U. S. TO ACT IF WORKERS CALL RAIL STRIKE

Law Prevents Interference Unless Walkout Is Voted—Ballots Favor Step.

CAPITAL SEES DANGER

(By a Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 3.—[Special.]—Prevented by existing legislation from any active intervention in the threatened railroad strike at this time, the federal government is preparing for later activity. The day's developments at Washington were in brief:

Completion of the United States board of mediation and control by appointment of third member.

Calling meeting of senate committee to consider the Newlands resolution, set for tomorrow.

Perusal of data by President Wilson and department of labor after conference with Mediation Commissioner Chambers.

PLEA TO LABOR DEPARTMENT.

The warning sent to President Wilson by Harry A. Wheeler, acting for the chamber of commerce of the United States, and hence for the organized commercial officials of the country, has been sent to the labor department.

Secretary of Labor Wilson is on his vacation in Pennsylvania, but is being kept informed of developments by Louis Post, assistant secretary, and may return to Washington for the cabinet meeting next Tuesday. He will do nothing in the meantime, his office states.

READY FOR PARLEY.

One step has been taken toward paving the way of settlement if later conditions offer an opening. This is the appointment today of G. W. W. Hanger, assistant commissioner of the United States board of mediation and conciliation, as a member also of the board. Thus this body has its full membership for the first time in its history, the other members being Commissioner Chambers and Circuit Judge Knapp.

Although the law was passed three years ago President Wilson had never filled the membership until today. The assumption is that he would not have done so even now had it not been for the threat of a serious need for the full board in the near future.

NEWLANDS CALLS MEETING.

Senator Newlands of Nevada, chairman of the senate committee on interstate commerce, has issued a call for a meeting tomorrow morning for consideration of his joint resolution introduced weeks ago calling for an investigation of basic conditions by the interstate commerce commission, which should report back immediately to congress.

There have been previous calls of the committee, but none yet has obtained a quorum.

ACTION AT STANDSTILL.

"I think we will get a quorum this time," said a member, "but it is problematical whether anything can be done right away. The committee is most unlikely to take any action until there has been some sort of a hearing and witnesses for a hearing cannot be brought in over night. There are few of the railroad chiefs or the labor leaders who could leave New York just at this time. They realize that all of them must be ready for Tuesday's conference in New York."

It is certain that the committee will not take up anything else at this time, but interested as Senator Newlands is in getting action which looks toward a settlement of the strike, he admits there is little which can be done for several days.

CAPITOL HOPES FOR DELAY.

There is a good deal of optimism at the capitol, however, and a hope in the committee that both sides will consent to a delay long enough to permit an investigation of conditions and a decision based on the facts learned.

This optimistic attitude does not find its expression in Harry A. Wheeler of the national chamber. He made it clear to the president why he fears neither side will recede an inch from its position, leaving a strike with its resultant disaster to business as the only result.

Commissioner Chambers of the board of mediation and conciliation called at the White House and went over the situation at length with the president. It is understood he explained the board's inability to do anything whatever at this

Henry Tow: Did You Know Baby's Dead and Wife's Hungry?

Reporter Saw Mrs. Tow at Police Station and Wrote This Story.

BETTER SEND MONEY

TO HENRY TOW, Somewhere—

Sir: This, Henry, is written by a reporter who happened to meet your wife.

It is a little hard to say, Henry, but it looks very much as if the reason the reporter met Mrs. Tow is because she is your wife. Most reporters are not concerned with the anxieties of women in police stations. There is usually only one answer. But that answer didn't seem to apply in the case of Mrs. Tow.

Your wife came into the South Clark street police station last night, Henry, and she seemed to think a great deal of you. But she didn't put it in that language. She was quiet and her manner bespoke a burden she seemed to bear.

Had Right to Be Proud.

She told the desk sergeant that on July 20 you left her with the explanation that you were going to Columbus, N. M., where you were going to get a job selling automobiles at $200 a month. She seemed much pleased with your prospects. Perhaps she had a right to be proud of you, Henry.

The outlook seemed bright not only for her but for the kids. Edward, the baby, hadn't been very well, but then he was only 2 years old and maybe he was subject to baby misfortunes. The two other children would soon smile for their daddy's good stroke.

Letters Won't Feed a Family.

Well, you went away. Your wife went to live with her mother. Of course you expected to do something as soon as possible. But you have missed out somehow. You wrote a couple of letters. And yet you will admit that letters won't feed a family of four.

Perhaps this will make you think a little: Young Edward died last Sunday. Edward that was 2 years old and just about able to yell for his dad when he saw him coming. That, of course, was pretty tough on your wife.

She bit her lips last night when she was telling it to the sergeant. But she didn't break down. She's a pretty brave woman, Henry. Probably she has to be brave to be your wife.

Said She'd Have to Go.

Still you didn't send any money. You wrote another letter. It wasn't a very nourishing letter, either. Your wife was hungry when they took Edward out and buried him. Yesterday your mother-in-law said she couldn't do anything more for your wife. She said she'd have to go.

That is why she came to the police station, Henry. Police stations are made for another sort of people. But the policemen are a little mushy down in a corner of their hearts. You said you'd love, honor and cherish your wife. The coppers saw where you fell down. They're a rough lot. They have to be. They must be strong enough to manhandle the rowdies and lift up the weak.

So, Henry, with all the doors closed your wife came to Clark street. They'll take care of her. And in the meantime you'd better come home and make good.

FRENCH SEIZE MILE OF FRONT BEFORE VERDUN

Unofficial Reports Tell of Capture of Town of Fleury.

MORE GAINS ON SOMME

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The French before Verdun today began a mighty smash at the German lines on the mile front from Thiaumont to Fleury and forced their way forward for the most important gains made by them in that sector for months.

The official report issued in Paris this afternoon said the French had penetrated the outskirts of Fleury, but unofficial dispatches asserted the entire village had been captured. This, if true, would give them control of points of the greatest strategic value and perhaps cause the retirement of the German forces on both sides of the reconquered land.

London regards as significant the fact that the Paris ministry of war tonight did not issue its customary second report on the day's fighting. This was taken to indicate that events of vast importance are in progress.

Both the British and French continued to make slight gains along the Somme today.

BRITISH WAR REPORT.

The British official report issued tonight says:

North of Bazentin-Le-Petit we gained some ground by a bombing attack.

During the night the enemy sent four strong detachments toward Delville wood, which were allowed to approach to close range before fire was opened. All were repulsed with heavy losses and at one place fifty of the enemy were caught in massed formation by our machine gun fire.

FRENCH WAR REPORT.

PARIS, Aug. 3.—North of the River Somme several German attempts last night against the French position on Monacu farm were repulsed, it was officially announced by the French war department this afternoon. The French troops organized their new positions between Monacu farm and Hem wood.

The text of the statement follows:

North of the River Somme we repulsed last night several German assaults upon the Monacu farm, and we organized our new positions between this farm and the Hem woods.

GERMAN ATTACKS REPELLED.

On the right bank of the River Meuse, the Germans delivered several violent counter attacks upon the trenches we captured yesterday. Everywhere the efforts of our adversary, who suffered heavy losses, were checked. Our troops, following up their advantages, made notable progress to the south of Fleury, reaching beyond the railroad station. The number of prisoners made by us yesterday in this region alone exceeds 700.

GERMAN WAR REPORT.

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—French troops have penetrated the German lines on the Monacu front and the River Somme, and have taken a trench section to the north of that position, says the official statement given out today by the German army headquarters.

In the region north of the fortress of Verdun, the announcement adds, the French have recaptured a trench section which they had lost in the Laufee wood.

On both sides of the Albert-Bapaume high road and east of Trones wood, strong British attacks broke down.

On the right bank of the Meuse (Verdun front) the enemy brought forward to the attack strong forces against Cote du Poivre and on the wide front between the Thiaumont work and north of the Laufee work. He obtained a foothold on the western part of Cote du Poivre and southwest of Fleury in parts of our first line trenches, and recaptured a trench section in Laufee forest which he lost on Tuesday.

At the Thiaumont work and southeast of Fleury the enemy was completely repulsed, and in the mountain forests he was repulsed with heavy losses by a counter attack after having temporarily broken into our lines.

'Girl of Mystery' in Jail, Blames Chicago Rector

Says the Rev. R. H. F. Gairdner Followed but Quit Her.

HE'S ON VACATION

Agnes Russell, who as "Anna Stearns, the Mystery Girl," talked herself out of jail and the Rev. R. H. Fortesque Gairdner, rector of St. Martin's Episcopal church, Austin, into no end of trouble here last January, has transgressed the legal code again and, as usual, is still talking.

As "Mrs. Anna McCarty of Chicago" she pleaded guilty before Justice Fred E. Degaw in Detroit yesterday to having stolen a $100 silver mesh bag from Miss Helen Smitt, daughter of a fashionable Detroit tailor. The theft occurred last Sunday night in the Westwood Inn, a roadhouse west of Dearborn, Mich.

Rector on Vacation.

"Mrs. McCarty" contends her companion on that evening was the Chicago clergyman who left here three weeks ago on a vacation automobile trip to Bayfield, Ont.

Miss Smitt, who said the bag, containing $6, had disappeared after she hung it on the back of her chair, was passing the Cadillac hotel in Detroit in her electric coupe on Wednesday when she saw "Mrs. McCarty" step out of the hotel carrying the bag. Miss Smitt jumped from her car and seized the girl, who fought back vigorously.

The former finally succeeded in wresting the handbag from her, and "Mrs. McCarty" leaped on a passing street car. A male passenger paid her fare. When arrested later, as she was returning to the Cadillac, she told Sheriff Oakman she had been at the Hotel Statler to call on the Rev. Mr. Gairdner.

Left Her Husband.

"I have been married since my trouble in Chicago," she told Justice Degaw. "I married a concert violinist, who used to be on the Chautauqua circuit. I ran away from him and met Mr. Gairdner here. He took an interest in me the first time he saw my picture in the Chicago papers last January and took me to his home, but the parishioners gossiped so much he had to send me away.

"I did not steal this bag. Mr. Gairdner and I were sipping some wine in the Westwood inn when I happened to see it on the floor. I took it, and failed to turn it over to the manager. I told them in Chicago I was done with social workers and ministers, but Mr. Gairdner followed me here. If he had stuck to me I probably wouldn't be in this mess. He went out of his way to tell the authorities all about my old troubles. He even helped to get out the warrant. Can you beat it?"

Arrested Here for Theft.

As "Anna Stearns" the girl was arrested in Chicago last January following a series of room robberies in loop hotels. She was charged with "jumping" board bills at the Congress, Brevoort, Kaiserhof, Great Northern, Planters, and Grand Pacific hotels.

She became known as the "mystery girl" when she refused to reveal her identity, because, she said, of her family connections in Kentucky. Her story attracted social workers. The Rev. Mr. Gairdner, who furnished bail and retained Mrs. Leonora Z. Meder as her attorney, took her to the Tip Top inn for supper, and then to the parish house at 5710 Midway park, Austin, where she remained for three days. Then the minister found her temporary quarters with a social worker.

Called Them "Hypocrites."

The girl characterized church members as "hypocrites." Still sympathy was with her until the Chicago police dug up her real name and her reform school records in Kansas City. Even then she talked herself out of the toils of the law when she was rearrested on two jewelry thefts and said she was going to bid farewell to the bright lights forever and go back home.

Just when it was thought she had returned to Kansas City she was arrested early in April as she was leaving the Bee-Vee cafe in Van Buren street. It was the old story. She had forgotten to pay a bill at the Briggs house. She gave out another statement denouncing hotel evils, raking social workers over the coals and sermonizing on the lure of the cabarets, and flitted from sight.

Parish House Dark.

St. Martin's parish house was dark last night, but Miss W. Kimball, assistant editor of the church paper, said the minister had been in Detroit.

"Mr. Gairdner left three weeks ago in his automobile for Bayfield, Ont.," she said. "He went to Niles and then to Indian Lake, and I heard from him ten days ago in Detroit. He is to be gone until Sept. 1."

LIFE LOSS ON ITALIAN CRAFT MAY REACH 100

Mail Carrier Is Destroyed and Seven Neutral Vessels Sent Down.

MANY CREWS SAVED.

(By Cable to The Chicago Tribune.)

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Revival on a large scale of the German submarine warfare on commerce is indicated by the increase of the number of vessels reported sunk, within what is believed the last thirty-six hours, in authentic statements made public today.

Reports from the admiralty, from Lloyd's, and from other sources show that three British, one Italian, three Swedish, one Norwegian, one Danish, and two Finnish vessels have been destroyed. Several trawlers, names unknown, also have been sunk.

In addition, German warships have seized two Swedish vessels.

REPORT NEARLY 100 LOST.

On the Italian ship Letimbro, which was sunk at some unknown point in the Mediterranean, it is believed that nearly 100 persons lost their lives. Twenty-eight survivors have arrived at Malta, says a Reuter dispatch from that place. Two boat loads with survivors are reported at Syracuse.

The Letimbro carried a crew of fifty-seven and its passengers numbered 113. It is believed a large number of them lost their lives. The passengers included women and children.

Survivors report that a submarine was observed at a distance of about 6,000 meters. It fired a warning shot and then gave chase, firing continuously for half an hour. It finally overtook the Letimbro, which had begun to lower boats.

"The submarine," adds the dispatch, "continued its bombardment, smashing five boats, the occupants of which perished. Some of the survivors say that many were killed by shell fire."

VICTIMS OF U-BOATS.

The other vessels destroyed in the new campaign against allied and neutral trade follow:

BRITANNIC (British), 3,487 tons. Crew saved.

MARGARET SUTTON (British), 197 tons. Crew saved.

HEIGHAUGHTON (British), 2,800 tons. Crew saved.

HUDIKSVALL (Swedish). Crew saved.

BROR OSCAR (Swedish), 368 tons. Crew's fate unknown.

VERMLAND (Swedish), 212 tons. Crew's fate unknown.

JOHN WILSON (Norwegian), 797 tons. Crew saved.

The names of the two Finnish vessels have not been reported.

The two Swedish vessels seized by German warships are:

PITEA, 444 tons.

TEMIS, 638 tons.

BRITISH LOSE LARGEST BOAT.

Both the foregoing vessels were bound for Raumo, Finland, with cargoes of general freight.

The largest victim sent down today was the Britannic of the Cocker line. Lloyd's announces it was unarmed.

The Swedish steamer Hudiksvall was torpedoed by a German submarine last night in the Baltic while on a voyage from Sweden to Finland, according to a Reuter dispatch from Stockholm.

The captain, with twelve men of the crew and five women, took to the boats and reached the Swedish coast. The Hudiksvall carried a valuable cargo.

REVIEWS NAVAL RESULTS.

The first lord of the admiralty, A. J. Balfour, has issued a statement for publication, in the course of which he says:

"The second anniversary of the British declaration of war provides a fitting opportunity for a brief survey of the naval situation. The consequences, material and moral, of the Jutland battle cannot be easily overlooked; an allied diplomatist assured me that he considered it the turning point of the war.

"The tide, which had long ceased to help our enemies, began from that moment to flow strongly in our favor. This much at least is true, that every week which has passed since the German fleet was driven damaged into port has seen

CHICAGO TEACHER IN FIRE.

Miss Anna Vosburgh Seriously Burned When Lightning Strikes Her Cottage in Colorado.

Miss Anna Vosburgh, a Chicago school teacher, was seriously injured when lightning struck and burned a summer cottage on the Harbison ranch, near Grand Lake, Colo., yesterday afternoon. Miss Vosburgh, who lives at 6487 Blackstone avenue, has been a teacher in the Chicago schools for the last twenty-five years. She was seriously burned and her foot was lacerated. She left this city for Grand Haven in July and intended to stay there until the latter part of August.

BULLDOGS ATTACK CHILD PLAYING IN VACANT LOT.

Tear Flesh of Little Girl Until New York Police Arrive and Shoot Animals.

New York, Aug. 3.—[Special.]—Mary Mimnaugh, 5 years old, was sitting on the stoop of her home in Park avenue this evening waiting for her father, Michael, to come, when a neighbor's child persuaded her to go for a romp in a nearby vacant lot.

Later persons in the neighborhood were aroused by screams coming from the lot. Looking out, they saw two large bulldogs tearing the flesh of Mary's neck and arms.

Two policemen responded and killed the beasts.

Mary it was said had only a small chance to recover.

HENRY MUST BE A MOVIE FAN

Mr. Ford Today Will Turn Himself Into a Motion Picture Audience to See "Civilization."

Henry Ford is going to be a motion picture audience today. All by himself he is going to witness a special performance of the film "Civilization" in the Washington theater, Detroit.

The film, which is now playing in Cohan's Grand Opera house, together with the company of singers and mechanicians of twenty-nine, was taken aboard a special car on the Wabash railway last night at 11:30 by Lou Houseman and started for Detroit.

The production will arrive in time to give a performance at 9:30 o'clock this morning. Mr. Ford, for whose sole entertainment the peace picture is to be shown, will have the Washington theater to himself. The performance will end in time for the company to take a train leaving Detroit at 12 o'clock and reaching Chicago in time for the regular performance tonight.

ARCHITECT SEEKS DIVORCE.

Louis H. Sullivan Charges Wife Has Deserted Him—Founded School of Building Design.

Louis H. Sullivan, an architect in the Tower building, filed a bill for divorce yesterday. He charges his wife with desertion. Mr. Sullivan is the father of the so-called "Sullivan School of Architecture," to which a number of other architects belong.

Mr. Sullivan designed the Transportation building at the Chicago World's fair and received a medal for originality in design from the French government.

EUROPEAN WAR SUMMARY

Central powers renew war on allied and neutral commerce. Sink eleven ships, seven of them neutrals. One hundred persons reported lost on Italian mail steamer.

Russians advance within twelve miles of Kovel, big rail center. Both Petrograd and Berlin report heavy fighting.

Allies repel all German attacks from Somme sector to Verdun. Inflict heavy losses on foe.

Berlin claims bombs were dropped on London in latest raid. British deny report but admit attack on coast points.

Austrian destroyers bombard Italian port of Bisceglie; Italian airmen drop bombs on Durazzo.

SKIRTS ARE TO BE LONGER, SAYS PARIS FASHION EDICT

Big Hips Taboo and Sleeves Must Be Enlarged Near Shoulder—Coats to Lengthen.

New York, Aug. 3.—A Parisian edict was received today anent the amount of material in milady's skirt. There is to be more of it. The addition, say fashion's formulators, does not mean fuller garments. Skirts are to be grown longer. The big hip, predominant in present styles, is taboo. Coats will be longer for women and shorter for men. Sleeves must be enlarged near the shoulders without too much trend toward the old "leg o' mutton" of years ago.

GUNBOATS IN DUEL; 1 SUNK.

Belgian Craft Sends Down German After Fight on Lake Tanganyka, Is Claim.

HAVRE, Aug. 3.—The sinking of the German gunboat Graf von Gotzen in a duel with the Belgian gunboat Netta on Lake Tanganyka is announced in an official statement issued by the Belgian war office.

BLACKLIST IN AUSTRALIA

United States Firms Put Under Bar and Trade with Them Is Prohibited.

new successes for the allies in one part or other of the field of operations. It would be an error, however, to suppose that the naval victory changed the situation; what it did was to confirm it.

GERMAN EFFORTS FAIL.

"Before the Jutland battle, as after, the German fleet was imprisoned. The battle was an attempt to break the bars and burst the confining gates. It failed, and with its failure the German high seas fleet sank again into impotence.

"The Germans claim Jutland as a victory, but in essence they admit the contrary, since the object of a naval battle is to obtain command of the sea, and it is certain that Germany has not obtained that command, while Great Britain has not lost it. Tests of this assertion are easy to apply. Has the grip of the British blockade relaxed since May 31? Has it not, on the contrary, tightened?

"The Germans themselves will admit the increasing difficulty of importing raw materials and foodstuffs and of exporting their manufactures; hence the violence of their invectives against Great Britain."

WORLD MAP CHANGED.

The first lord refers to German exhortations to look at the map and see the extent of the German successes, and adds:

"That depends on what map you take. Even the map of Europe shows an ever shrinking battle line. But look at the map of the world. All of Germany's colonies are gone except East Africa, which even as I write seems slipping from her grasp.

"Has the battle of Jutland opened the smallest prospect of Germany regaining these colonies or giving a moment's respite to the hard pressed colonists in German East Africa?"

German U-Boat Policy.

Mr. Balfour advises those requiring further proofs of the value the Germans attach to their "victorious fleet" to study the German policy of submarine warfare, and says:

"The advantage of submarine attacks on commerce is that they cannot be controlled by superior fleet power in the same way as attacks by cruisers; a disadvantage is that they cannot be carried out on a large scale consistently with the laws of war or the requirements of humanity. They make, therefore, a double appeal to German militarism, an appeal to its prudence and an appeal to its brutality.

"The Germans know that their victorious fleet was useless. It could be kept safe in harbor while the submarine warfare went on merrily outside. They knew that submarines cannot be brought to action by battleships or battle cruisers. They thought, therefore, that to these new commerce destroyers our merchant ships must fall an easy prey, unprotected by our ships of war and unable to protect themselves.

Assails Slayers of Fryatt.

"They were wrong in both respects and doubtless it is their wrath at the skill and energy with which British merchant captains and British crews have defended the lives and property under their charge that has driven the German admiralty into their latest and stupidest act of calculated ferocity—the judicial murder of Capt. Fryatt."

The first lord contends that the case is not worth arguing, that it is useless to do the German military authorities the injustice of supposing they were animated by solicitude for the principles of international law, and accidentally blundered.

"The illegality of their folly," he continues, "was of a different kind. It flowed from a different course. They knew that Capt. Fryatt was doing his duty, and they resolved at all costs to discourage imitation.

Calls Germans Blunderers.

"What blunderers they are! They know how to manipulate machines, but of managing men they know less than nothing. They are always wrong, because they always suppose that if they behave like brutes they can cow their enemies into behaving like cowards.

"Small is their knowledge of our merchant seamen. I doubt whether one can be found who has not resolved to defend himself to the last against piratical attack. But if there is such a one, depend upon it, he will be cured by the last exhibition of German civilization. And what must neutrals think of all this?

"The freedom of the sea means to Germany that the German navy is to behave at sea as the German army behaves on land. It means that neither enemy civilians nor neutrals may possess rights against militant Germany; that those who do not resist will be drowned and those who do will be shot."

CLAIM MADE BY BERLIN.

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—"The naval warfare of the second year of the war, which envy and a spirit of revenge forced upon Germany and her allies, has passed, the chief impressions left by it being increased British naval terrorism and the battle of the Skagerrak," says Admiral von Holtzendorff, chief of the general staff, in a statement to the Associated Press today, making public an account of the material results of the second twelve months of the war from a naval standpoint.

"The neutral powers in 1916," Admiral von Holtzendorff continued, "were throttled more than in the first year by the sea power of England and hindered in the exercise of their commerce, postal rights, etc., by threats and violence. The victory of the German fleet over the British May 31 and June 1, therefore, was in the interest of all the neutrals and all those dependent on the freedom of the seas."

Armed Merchantmen.

The naval year closed with the execution of the British sea captain Fryatt, the chief topic of discussion. This is not regarded by Germany as an isolated case, but as Germany's answer to what is termed the doctrine of armed merchantmen adopted by Great Britain even before the war and to alleged illegalities of which, according to the German claims, Great Britain has repeatedly been guilty during the war. For this reason an important place in the review supplied the Associated Press on Admiral von Holtzendorff's instructions is taken up in a recapitulation of alleged violations of international law charged against British ships.

Enumerates Code Violations.

"While in the first year of the war," says the statement, "twenty proved violations of the law of nations by enemy merchantmen [firing upon German submarines, attempts to ram them, etc.] occurred, thirty-eight such cases were reported in the second year. Merchantmen owned by the allies therefore during the two years violated in the grossest manner the rules of international law no less than fifty-eight times against our submarines.

"The warships of Germany's enemies during the war have violated the law of nations in three particularly extreme cases, namely, the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, the Dresden, and the Albatross. Two cases, the Baralong and the King Stephen, must be characterized not only as violations of the law of nations and a breach of the most ordinary tenets of humanity, but as common murder. Countless cases in which British warships have violated international law in their conduct against merchantmen owned by the central powers or neutrals cannot be enumerated."

SHIPS AT CAPES STILL AWAITING DEUTSCHLAND

Enemy Cruisers Apparently Unaware U-Boat Is at Sea.

Norfolk, Va., Aug. 3.—The allied cruisers patrolling the entrance to Hampton roads to prevent the departure of the German submarine merchantman Deutschland still were in position within sight of shore this evening, and there was nothing to indicate that they were aware of the passage of the Deutschland out through the capes last night.

Marine men here believed the submarine-ble had eluded the war vessels and was safely on the way across the Atlantic on its return voyage to Germany.

Capt. Hinsch of the warbound German liner Neckar, who, on board the tug Thomas F. Timmins, directed the departure of the Deutschland, said today that the underwater freighter passed unobserved within 100 yards of a United States destroyer on neutrality duty about a mile off the capes. He also disclosed that the submarine submerged twice on the way down the bay to test its engines.

Went Down 135 Feet.

"When we came to a stop at a point in the bay which I shall not disclose because we probably shall have to use the place again," said Capt. Hinsch, "the pilot aboard the submarine was taken off to the Timmins. It was then about 5 o'clock in the morning. The submarine was submerged, so that its machinery and pumps could be tested and the cargo trimmed should that be necessary. It went down in a deep hole in the bay to a depth of 135 feet, remaining there for some time.

"When it came to the surface again Capt. Koenig came up through the conning tower and said that everything was working perfectly. We started off down the bay, and when no traffic was in sight the Deutschland took another dive while running. It went down until only four inches of its periscope was showing above the water. Then I dropped behind to see at what distance the wake of the Deutschland or the foam crest of the periscope could be seen. At 400 yards with glasses I could not see a thing.

"We Were Well Hidden."

"The tests having proved that the Deutschland was in perfect condition, we went into a place to hide for a while. We were well hidden, too. Any one would have had great difficulty in finding us.

"In the afternoon we started for the capes and you know how the better part of the trip was made. The destroyer was passed in the dark. As soon as the men on the bridge sighted the lights of the Timmins they watched us closely and looked all through for the submarine which passed them at a distance of only a hundred yards. At the time the submarine was submerged until the decks were awash.

"Later when I reported to the destroyer that the Deutschland had cleared the capes and was on the way to sea the officers aboard seemed most surprised. They had not observed it at all."

Submerged Inside Limit.

Capt. Hinsch added that when the vessels were about a mile off the capes the submarine increased its speed and the men aboard the Timmins, which had stopped, watched it and it sped for the open sea. A mile away all its lights suddenly disappeared. Capt. Hinsch said he knew the vessel submerged at that time when a mile inside the three mile limit.

Capt. Hinsch returned to Baltimore tonight.

In response to questions regarding the prospects of the Bremen, sister ship to the Deutschland, arriving in American waters, Capt. Hinsch said: "You can depend upon it that if the Bremen was coming in the near future I would not be returning to Baltimore and neither would the Timmins."

He declined to say when the Bremen was expected.

NOT TIME FOR ARRIVAL.

[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—With reference to the reports in circulation that the Bremen has landed somewhere in America, or is about to make some port there, it is reliably stated that the Bremen has not yet had time to arrive in America. Confirmation of the report of the departure of the Deutschland is not yet received here.

GERMAN PAPER DEFENDS SLAYING ARMED NEUTRALS.

Argues Empire Has Right to Treat as Common Murderers Subjects Caught Fighting with Foes.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The Frankfurter Zeitung says a dispatch from the Reuter correspondent at Amsterdam reproduces from the Rheinisch Westfaelische Zeitung of Essen a remarkable letter arguing that Germany has the right to treat as common murderers any subjects of neutral states caught fighting on the side of Germany's enemies. The letter in part says:

"We are waging no war with the United States, but North Americans whom we encounter with arms in their hands ought to be treated as francstireurs and shot."

The Frankfurter Zeitung asks if the Rheinisch journal would consider it legal for England to have shot Germans who fought against the British in the Transvaal.

MUSIC CHARMS SOOTHE 'COP

Violinst Angers Housewife, but Plays His Way Out of Police Custody.

Percy Weaver of 16 West Erie street is probably alone in the achievement of softening the heart of an Evanston policeman. But he failed utterly on the heart of an irate housewife living in the vicinity of Judson avenue and Main street, Evanston. Weaver plays the violin and sings for what the kind hearted may give him. The irate housewife called the police. Weaver was taken before Chief McEnery. He was about to be ordered out of town for having no license when he played for the chief so fetchingly that he was told to go his way in peace.

FAMOUS WOMAN WEDS

Rev. William Hartley Carnegie and Bride

PHOTOS BY AMER. PRESS ASS'N AND UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Mrs. Joseph Chamberlain, widow of the late British statesman, and the Rev. William Hartley Carnegie, rector of St. Margaret's and Canon of Westminster, were married at Westminster Abbey at 8 o'clock this morning. The ceremony was simple and quiet.

Mrs. Chamberlain before her first marriage was Mary Endicott of Massachusetts, daughter of the late William C. Endicott, secretary of war in President Cleveland's cabinet.

She married Joseph Chamberlain when he was colonial secretary under the late Marquis of Salisbury.

WARSHIPS SHELL AN ITALIAN PORT

Bisceglie Under Austrians' Fire; Durazzo Bombed from the Air.

ROME, Aug. 3.—An official statement issued today says that two Austrian destroyers shelled Bisceglie, an Italian seaport on the Adriatic near Bari. The text of the statement follows:

Two enemy destroyers shelled Bisceglie, a district which possesses no defenses. Six persons were wounded, two of them, women, seriously. The material damage was slight.

Nine Italian aeroplanes bombarded Durazzo this morning with great effect. A large number of bombs fell on wharves, buildings, and the aerodrome. All of the machines returned except one, which broke down and had to land in enemy territory.

Bombard Adige Valley.

Another official statement says:

A bombardment by enemy artillery and aircraft in the Adige valley is continuing. An enemy aeroplane dropped bombs on the town of Ala, but they did no damage.

In the upper Posina region yesterday we repulsed an attack against our position in the Caldiera valley.

In the Travenanzes valley we made fresh progress notwithstanding the fierce resistance of the enemy.

Shell Drave Villages.

The enemy artillery bombardment on Cortina d'Ampezzo persisting, we are still shelling the villages in the Drave valley.

On the remainder of the front the situation is unchanged.

FINE KAISER'S DEFAMERS.

Germans Punish Belgians in Charge of Art Exhibit When Emperor's Bust Was Assailed.

LONDON, Aug. 4, 1:18 a. m.—The German administration of Belgium has imposed fines amounting to $2,500 on the Belgian committee in charge of the recent municipal art exhibition, according to a Rotterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company. At the request of the German administration, the dispatch says, the bust of the emperor was exhibited among other sculptures. It caused such a hostile demonstration on the part of the visitors to the exhibiton that it had to be removed.

Labor Men Go to War.

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 3.—The 1,883 local labor unions in Canada have contributed 11,972 recruits and 439 reservists to the overseas force, according to figures made public here today.

LONDON RAIDED, BERLIN CLAIMS; BRITISH DENIAL

Press Bureau Calls German Report Untrue—Admits Zeppelin Attack on the Coast.

BERLIN, via London, Aug. 3.—The raid last night by German Zeppelins resulted in the dropping of a great number of explosive and fire bombs on London, on the fleet base at Harwich, and on industrial establishments in the county of Norfolk, says an official statement given out here today.

The Zeppelins were attacked by light British forces, but all returned undamaged, says the statement, which follows:

During the night of Aug. 2 a great number of our naval ships again attacked the southeastern counties of England and successfully dropped a great number of explosive and fire bombs, especially on London, the fleet base at Harwich, on railway works, and on, from a military viewpoint, important industrial establishments in the county of Norfolk.

On their approach the airships were attacked by enemy light forces under the rays of numerous searchlights, but all returned undamaged.

British Deny German Report.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—In regard to the official statement from Berlin on the air raid last night the British Press Bureau says:

"The Press Bureau is informed officially that the German statement is untrue virtually from beginning to end.

"Investigations made here fail to bear out the German claims that the last two Zeppelin raids reached London. Many people from all parts of London and the suburbs have reported they did not see or hear any Zeppelins or any guns.

"Whenever Zeppelins have reached London or the suburbs in the past the news spread quickly and there was no difficulty in finding plenty of witnesses to testify to their presence."

Six Airships in Attack.

Six German airships took part in the raid, according to a war office announcement issued this afternoon, which says eighty bombs are reported to have been dropped. Nine horses were killed and three horses were injured, the statement adds. The text of the official statement follows:

Several hostile airships attacked the eastern and southeastern counties last night. The first reports were received about midnight. From these it seems that not less than six airships were attacking the counties of Norfolk, Suffolk, and Essex, more or less simultaneously. The raid lasted about an hour and a half.

Except at one point the raiders did not penetrate far inland, but contented themselves with dropping a few bombs at a time on widely distant localites mainly near the sea.

Two Enemy Craft Hit?

Anti-aircraft guns came into action in one locality, but the raider there attacked made good his retreat.

In conjunction with this attack one airship was making for the coast of Kent. Many observers report that a second airship followed the first. The number of bombs dropped in this attack makes the statement appear quite possible. Anti-aircraft guns came into action and one, if not two, hits are claimed against the first raider.

A total number of eighty bombs have been accounted for up to date, inclusive of those seen falling into the sea. The total damage was astonishingly small. Nine horses were killed and three others injured. The military object of the raid is not apparent.

Dutch Fire on Zeppelins.

YMUIDEN, Holland, Aug. 3, via London.—The "L-11," one of the Zeppelins which flew along the Dutch coast, was apparently damaged. Its motors were working badly and the ship had a heavy list. The Dutch coast guards fired on it and they believe that it was hit.

U. S. SPENDS $1,500,000,000

Present Congress Sets Record for Appropriation—Republicans Charge Extravagance.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 3.—[Special.]—With the passage of the District of Columbia appropriation bill in the senate today appropriations of the present congress passed the $1,500,000,000 mark and set a new record. Several other appropriation bills remain to be acted upon. It is anticipated that the Republicans during the coming campaign will make the extravagance of the present congress one of the principal issues before the voters of the country.

Petrograd Reports Hard Fighting Before City—Berlin Statement Similar.

PETROGRAD, Aug. 3.—The battering of Teuton defenses along the Kovel-Lemberg line showed no signs of abatement today. Unofficial dispatches from the front said the Russian forces were mixing infantry attacks with heavy artillery bombardments in a series of battles at various points. German counter attacks in heaviest succession are being launched against the Muscovite columns, so far without success, except temporarily to halt the forward movement of the Russians.

Press dispatches today said that Gen. Kaledino was less than a dozen miles from Kovel and continuing his advance. He is threatening momentarily to take the Kovel-Lemberg railroad, spreading still wider the Russian wedge between the German and Austrian forces. This same wedge threatens a turning of the flanks of the two Teutonic armies. Marshy terrain is hampering the Russian attack slightly.

Russian Official Statement.

The official statement from general headquarters issued today reads:

On the Stokhod desperate fighting is proceeding near the villages of Dubeschovo and Gulevitchie. In the Vorobievka region, east of Jezierna, nine enemy aeroplanes flew over our encampments.

On the night of Aug. 2, in the region of Smorgon, the enemy launched gas attacks on both sides of the railway. The attack opened at 1 o'clock in the morning and the gas was released six times with intervals between the waves. The gas attacks finished at 6 o'clock in the morning.

The use of gas was discovered in good time with the result that the Germans who were following the gas attacks were, on attempting to advance, met with rifle and machine gun fire and suffered severe losses. The enemy did not even succeed in getting outside his own wire entanglements and rapidly returned to his trenches.

German Official Statement.

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—The German war office today issued the following statement:

Army group of Field Marshal von Hindenburg: Russian advances on both sides of Lake Nobel failed. A strong attack southwest of Lubieszow broke down.

The enemy advancing on the Kovel-Sarny railway was driven off by our fire. In the forest near Ostrow, north of Kiselin, more than 100 prisoners were captured.

Enemy attacks, apparently planned on both sides of the railway near Brody, developed against Ponikowica and were repulsed. Russian aeroplanes were shot down near Rozyszcz and east of Torchyn.

Army group of Gen. Count von Bothmer: Southwest of Wilesniow small enemy outposts were cleared.

IRISHMEN PRAY AS CASEMENT IS SENT TO DEATH

Another Crowd Outside Prison Jeers—Doomed Man Brave on the Scaffold.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Just outside the walls to the rear of Pentonville prison there stood this morning a group of thirty Irish men and women with bared heads bowed.

Within the walls the great prison bell was tolling. The hour was 15 minutes to 9. After a few minutes the tolling ceased. The bowed heads raised and thirty pairs of eyes watched the hands of the tower clock creep slowly to 9. As one minute after the hour was reached, the bell pealed forth again, one dull muffled clang, and the little group of men and women fell to their knees, remaining for some moments in silent prayer.

Casement Is Dead.

The single clang of the bell had borne to them the news of a tragedy they had only recently given up hope might be averted. It meant that within the walls the body of Roger Casement, hanging at the end of a hempen rope, had added one more to Ireland's list of martyrs.

Out in front of the prison, before the gates, another and much larger crowd, not Irishmen, was gathered. The same dull clang of the gong was the signal for a mocking, jeering yell from this gathering. To them it meant that a man whom Britain once had knighted had paid the penalty of death for high treason on a conviction of conspiring to cause an armed revolt in Ireland and with having sought German aid to that end.

Body Refused Kin.

Inside the prison after the application of the usual tests, Casement was pronounced dead at nine minutes after 9. According to the custom in the case of prisoners hanged for crimes similar to that of Casement, his body will be buried in quicklime in the prison yard.

A coroner's jury found that the sentence had been carried out in accordance with the law and in a humane manner. Gavin Duffy, Casement's solicitor, who appeared in behalf of relatives, identified the body.

Replying to a question by the coroner, Solicitor Duffy said that Casement's health at times was very bad. He made a plea that the body be handed over to relatives which the authorities, he said, had refused. The coroner declared he had no power to interfere, whereupon Duffy protested, saying it was a "monstrous act of indecency that the authorities should refuse the request."

Met Death Bravely.

Father James McCarrell, who attended Casement during the hanging, said the condemned man met his death courageously.

"Casement went to his death like a brave and bold man," said Father McCarrell. "Just before the black cap was adjusted he stood forward, boldly erect, and said in a clear, distinct, slow voice: 'Into thy hands, O Lord, I commend my spirit.' Then, still standing at his full height, he added: 'Jesus, receive my soul.' The trap was sprung one minute after 9 o'clock."

Earlier in the morning two priests of the Earlier in the morning two priests of the Roman Catholic church administered the last rites in the cell of the condemned man and shortly afterward a little procession, headed by the clergymen, with Casement following, a warder on either side, proceeded toward the execution shed, only five yards away. The priests recited the litany of the dying.

Barber His Executioner.

As the party reached the shed where the gallows was erected the special executioner, a hair dresser named Ellis, approached Casement and quickly pinioned him. The two chaplains, the under sheriff of London, and the under sheriff of Middlesex then took up their positions in front of the scaffold. Casement mounted the gallows steps firmly and commended his spirit to God as he stepped on the trap. A moment later the lever was pulled.

One of his attendants said that his overpowering love for God and Ireland was most striking. According to this attendant the last words of the condemned man, apart from his prayers, were: "I die for my country."

Immediately after the execution three notices were posted on the prison door. The first, signed by the under sheriff of London, the governor of the prison, and Father James McCarrell, Casement's confessor, read:

"Judgment of death was this day executed on Roger David Casement in his majesty's prison of Pentonville in our presence."

A similar notice was signed by the under sheriff of Middlesex county. The third bore the name of P. R. Mander, the prison surgeon, who certified that he had examined the body and found Casement dead.

Defend the Execution.

An official statement issued from the press bureau tonight says:

"The government carefully and repeatedly considered all the circumstances in the Casement case before reaching a decision not to interfere with the sentence.

"He was convicted and punished for treachery of the worst kind to the empire. He had served as a willing agent of Germany."

After declaring that Casement had organized German assistance for the Irish rebellion the statement continues:

"Conclusive evidence has come into the hands of the government since the trial that he had entered into an agreement with the German government, which explicitly provided that the brigade which he was trying to raise among Irish soldiers held as prisoners might be employed in Egypt against the British crown."

DENIES CECIL STATEMENT.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 3.—Michael Francis Doyle of counsel for Roger Casement, in a statement given out today in reply to that made by Lord Robert Cecil in London yesterday, said that "the statement that Irish prisoners in Germany suffered undue hardships because they did not join Casement's Irish brigade was false, and no evidence of it appeared at the trial."

"The rations of all the captive Irish soldiers were cut down," Mr. Doyle said, "but in proportion to the rations of all the captive British soldiers and was due to the food shortage in Germany and not because of Casement's presence there."

Why U. S. Delayed Protest.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 3.—[Special.]—An inquiry probably will be made in the senate as to why the senate's resolution designed to aid Roger Casement was not presented to the British foreign office until after Casement had been hanged. The resolution was passed by the senate last Saturday. So far as could be learned tonight the resolution did not reach the state department from the White House for transmission to London until about noon yesterday.

CHICAGO IRISHMAN'S VIEW.

Attorney Hugh O'Neill, who was born in County Derry, Ireland, the birth place of Casement, and who knew him intimately and entertained him while in Chicago, said:

"England, the hangman of the nations, by the execution of Casement has added another to her many infamies. Casement was not only a patriot and a martyr, he was a statesman with a giant intellect. Not only did England take his life but Sir Robert Cecil, speaking for the government, published a venomous statement at the same time her hangman put a rope around his neck. Neither England's statesmen nor hangmen can destroy the name or the glory or the deeds of Casement."

Denounced in Resolutions.

A resolution denouncing the execution of Roger Casement, former British knight, was adopted at a meeting of the executive committee of the United Irish Societies of Chicago at a meeting in the Hotel Sherman last night.

The meeting was for the purpose of arranging details for the annual demonstration of the societies at Brand's park, Tuesday, August 15.

The resolution was signed by James P. Walsh, president, and Thomas P. Bonfield, secretary of the societies, and copies will be sent to the relatives of Casement in Ireland.

IN AGAIN

But This Time, Says "Anna Stearns," Austin Parson, After Following Her to Detroit, Deserted Her Instead of Bailing Her Out.

Agnes Russell

Agnes Russell, who kept Chicago interested for a whole month last winter through her escapades as "Anna Stearns, the Mystery Girl," pleaded guilty in Detroit yesterday to a charge of larceny. She blamed her arrest on the Rev. R. H. Fortesque Gairdner, rector of St. Martin's Episcopal church in Austin, who befriended her here. She says the clergyman, who aroused criticism among his parishioners by keeping her at the parish house for three days, was infatuated with her and followed her to the Michigan city.

FOUR AMERICANS ARRESTED IN IRELAND SEEK RELEASE.

Advisory Board to Hear Appeal of United States Citizens Taken at Time of the Rebellion.

LONDON, Aug. 2.—Four Americans arrested in Ireland in connection with the rebellion and interned ever since have appealed for release to an advisory board provided to hear such cases. No decision yet has been given by the committee. The persons involved include John Kilgallon, Peter Fox, William Gilmartin, and Michael Joseph Lynch.

The cases are being closely followed by the United States embassy, which has been trying to effect release of the men. Up to the present time three out of eight Americans arrested at the time of the rebellion have been released, including James H. Sullivan, H. C. Rudy, and Joseph Gilchrist.

Jeremiah Lynch, another American, was sentenced to death, but it was commuted to ten years' imprisonment.

POLICE READY IN N. Y. CAR STRIKE

Every Available Man Ordered on Duty Today—Expect Tieup at 3 p. m.

New York, Aug. 3.—In anticipation of a strike on all surface lines in Manhattan and Queens boroughs tomorrow morning, police officials, after a conference late tonight, ordered all available men in the department to hold themselves in readiness for strike duty.

The police announced that information given them by Theodore P. Shonts, president of the New York Railways company, who also is head of the subway system, indicated that the strike which already is in progress in the Bronx, parts of Westchester county, and along the lines of the Third Avenue railway in Manhattan might be extended to all the lines of the New York Railways company.

Shonts Addresses Employes.

Mr. Shonts and Frank Hedley, general manager of the New York Railways company and the subway system, addressed a large gathering of employés and their families tonight. They assured the men that the companies wished them to organize, but among themselves and without the help of "alien organizations." Mr. Shonts urged the workers to stick to their places and he promised better working conditions.

Various conferences held by Mayor Mitchel during the day in an effort to bring about arbitration failed. The ultimatum expires at 3 p. m.

Both Sides Confident.

Both railway heads expressed confidence that the majority of their employés would remain loyal, but the union leaders, on the other hand, claimed that the employés of both companies had been virtually all enrolled in the union.

If the strike occurs it will involve 4,500 employés, tie up lines with 220 miles of tracks, operating 2,200 cars and carrying 330,000,000 passengers a year. This is in addition to the Third avenue system, on which strikes already have partly tied up the Bronx, several routes in Manhattan, and the trolley lines in Yonkers.

The public will have left to depend upon only the elevated and subway lines, already overcrowded, and one or two omnibus lines.

Garment Strike Ended.

The garment strike, which virtually has paralyzed the women's suit and cloak industry in this city for nearly four months, was declared settled tonight at a general meeting of the strike committee.

HIGHLAND PARK MOURNS DEATH OF ITS PET CANINE.

Pedro, the town pet of Highland Park, is dead. For six months a little black and tan cur has had a friend in every one out there. Then business men "chipped" in a dime each to buy his license. He was fed by almost every housewife. Peter Johnson gave him his bath. Mrs. Robert Peterson gave him Sunday dinners. Miss Margareta Berisa petted him every day.

He came from Kenosha, Wis., and every two weeks has gone back there for a visit. The same freight crew which brought him down took him back. The dog seemed to know when that crew came through.

The "illness," if a dog may be ill, which resulted in his death, was due to too much watermelon. He is not buried as yet. Many Highland Park people are discussing giving Pedro a rather public burial.

WILKIE SCOFFS AT 'EXPOSURES' BY EMIL WITTE

Thinks 'Revelations' of German Intrigue by Former Attache Prompted by Revenge.

Emil Witte's "exposures" of alleged German intrigues at the Washington embassy during the Roosevelt administration and published in part in Leipzig in 1907 has just made its appearance in an American edition under the title of "The Revelations of a German Attaché."

Slason Thompson contributes an introduction to the American translation which purports to give the inside espionage work in this country of the German embassy under the régime of the late Ambassador Von Holleben, who was suddenly recalled soon after the visit of Prince Henry of Prussia.

Was Legation Councillor.

Witte, in his elaborate "exposures," which purport to deal with ten years of the alleged intrigues which aimed, he says, at uniting the Germans in the United States for the fatherland and against this country, was councillor of the German legation at Washington at the time the intrigues are alleged to have been on.

In his elaborate book he brings in the name of John E. Wilkie, head of the American secret service at Washington at the time, and declares that the story of the whole "conspiracy" was placed in his hands.

Mr. Wilkie, now identified with the Chicago Surface lines, stated last night that Witte did lay before him in manuscript form, just before the visit of Prince Henry of Prussia to this country serious charges against the German officials at the embassy.

The story, as Mr. Wilkie recalls it, was that Ambassador Von Holleben was trying to get control of news agencies, even the Associated Press, in this country in furtherance of the alleged scheme of propagating pro-German sentiment.

Had Lost His Job.

"But if I remember aright," said Mr. Wilkie, "we learned upon investigation that Witte had lost his position at the embassy for some reason or other and was unable to get another job. His revelations, as it now occurs to me, were aimed at Ambassador Von Holleben, who, he claimed, was responsible for his losing his positon and had gone to the extent of blacklisting him so he couldn't get any newspaper work with any of the German papers.

"Witte came to us just before the visit of Prince Henry with his story. I think I asked him to submit the matter in writing. He did this. I think the then secretary of state, Mr. Hay, and undoubtedly President Roosevelt saw the manuscript.

Whole Matter Pigeonholed.

"But the Washington officials were so anxious not to have any unpleasant developments on the eve of Prince Henry's visit that the whole matter was pigeonholed for the time being.

"When Prince Henry did come he was royally entertained everywhere. I went with him on his trip across the country. He was a delightful traveling companion and very democratic. He got a good impression, too, I believe, of the greatness of this country and our people.

"Prince Henry and President Roosevelt were thrown together a good deal and they became close friends. They rode horseback together quite a bit. I think they became a little chummy. At any rate, I think Prince Henry and Roosevelt understood the situation very well, and both were very anxious that the friendly relations with Germany should not only continue but that every obstacle that might be in the way should be removed.

Prince Dissatisfied.

"The coincidence of Von Holleben's recall soon after Prince Henry's return to Germany had nothing to do, I believe, with the Witte matter and was not suggested by this country.

"In any event we investigated Witte's stories and if I remember clearly we came to the conclusion that he was out for revenge on Von Holleben and that he was making some statements that could not be substantiated. The whole matter was dropped and afterwards Witte, we understood, tried to sell his manuscript or other stories along the same line to certain eastern newspapers, which refused to print them."

BENEFIT FOR NEGRO TROOPS

Committee Plans to Hold Field Day at White Sox Park on Aug. 17.

Letters disclosing an urgent need for hospital and service equipment from the members of the Eighth Illinois infantry has stimulated the local colored citizens' committee to bring to a successful issue the proposed field day exercises to be held at White Sox park on Aug. 17.

Many of the more prominent Negro athletes in the country have been invited and are expected to participate. Rube Foster's American Giants will play Artie Hofman's Premiers. The Daily News band will provide the musical program.

W. A. Moulton, vice president of the West Englewood-Ashland State bank, the treasurer of the fund, acknowledges the following contributions:

A. H. Loeb	$200
William H. Monroe	50
William Wrigley, Jr.	50
F. S. Peabody	50
H. F. Hill	25
Ernest A. Hamill	25
Robert Allerton	25
Charles Dennehy	25
Medill McCormick	25
George M. Reynolds	25
George R. Porter	15

Mr. Loeb will give $200 monthly for the regiment as long as it is in the federal service.

110 READY FOR PLATTSBURG

Secretary Magill Arranges for Special Train to Citizen Training Camp.

A special train for Chicagoans and others attending the Plattsburg camp in August has been arranged by Secretary Richard N. Magill of the central department executive committee of the Military Training Camps association.

One hundred and nine have enrolled for the August camp from Chicago proper and many more from suburban towns.

The total enrollments from the central department for the August camp approximates 600.

HEADS CATHOLIC CLUB

New Organization Obtains Quarters for Social Center for Loop Working Girls.

Mrs. Rose D. Rittman

CHICAGO Catholic women have completed plans for opening the first social center and clubrooms for employed girls in the loop. It will be maintained by the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters and will be the response to an appeal by Archbishop Mundelein that members of this association do some welfare work for working girls. An organization called the Women's Catholic Foresters' club has been formed. A lease for the entire tenth floor of the Venetian building, 15 East Washington street, was signed by Mrs. Rose D. Rittman, high chief ranger, and the members of the high board. The quarters will be ready for occupancy the latter part of this month.

The plans embrace every phase of personal service and welfare work. They include training in industrial and fine arts, domestic science, physical culture, and business. An employment bureau, a room and boarding house directory, a circulating library and traveling art collection, with a choral society and orchestra composed of girls of the club, are among the practical features arranged.

ILLINOIS TROOPS AILING; NOT DENGUE, OFFICERS SAY

Ailment Among Troopers Diagnosed as "Intestinal Intoxication"—All Food Inspected Daily.

Brownsville, Tex., Aug. 3.—[Special.]—There are estimated to be 300 cases of dengue fever now among the civilian population of Brownsville, but the medical officers of the First Illinois cavalry continue to deny there is any of this ailment in the regiment.

There are cases of chills and fever, cramps, etc., but the officers say the men have no dengue symptoms. They say intestinal intoxication is the name of the illness and they deny the disease is due either to the quality or the quantity of the food, which undergoes a daily inspection and is pronounced by the medical officers as of the highest quality and well prepared.

Two newspaper correspondents attached to Col. Foreman's camp—Robert Mehaffy of the Chicago American and T. A. Ballantyne of the Daily News—are ill with dengue fever.

Among the troopers in the regiment who are ill is Private Gerald Kyle of C troop, suffering from "intestinal intoxication"; Private W. A. Patterson of F troop, ill of "exhaustion"; Private Sears of F troop, intestinal trouble; Shelby C. Chapman, M troop, stomach trouble.

DISCHARGE SOLDIERS WITH MONTH OR LESS TO SERVE.

So Reads Order to Wisconsin Militia at San Antonio—Move to the Border Indicated.

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 3.—[Special.]—An order directing regimental commanders to discharge all men with a month or less of their enlistment to serve "before moving to the border" was posted today in the Wisconsin brigade at Camp Wilson. The same notice probably will be given the Illinois troops.

The significance of the order is not clear to commanders of militia. They profess not to know whether general movement of the troops to border points is indicated. The discharge of men whose enlistments as guardsmen are expiring will cut deeply into the strength of the organizations. Regiments will lose an average of twenty to thirty men a month, unless the men are reënlisted, and there is very little enthusiasm for reënlistment among the guardsmen.

A posse in the singular left San Antonio tonight to bring back the first nerve failure in the Illinois troops. The deserter, William E. Meredith, of the headquarters company, First I. N. G., is under arrest at Tyler, Tex. Sergt. Maj. Albert Becker has been deputized to bring him back to camp.

FUNSTON BEGINS QUIZ INTO UNTRUE TALES FROM BORDER

Board of Officers to Investigate "Sniping" and "Battle" Stories—Writers May Be Banished.

San Antonio, Tex., Aug. 3.—Gen. Funston today took the first step in his campaign to prevent stories being sent out from camps of the national guard incorrectly stating conditions there.

He appointed Brig. Gen. D. Jack Foster of the Illinois national guard to name a board of officers who will investigate articles recently sent out of San Antonio regarding alleged sniping of Illinois guardsmen by Mexicans and a "battle" that followed.

The articles to which the general objects were by four correspondents of Chicago papers.

The investigating officers will report their finding to Gen. Funston. If found guilty of misrepresenting conditions the correspondents probably will be refused admission to the camps.

WITHDRAW ARMY, CARRANZA TO U. S. IN PROTEST NOTE

Evacuation Made First Condition to Be Taken Up by Joint Commission.

[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

Mexico City, Aug. 3.—The Mexican government's reply to the note of the United States of July 27, which was sent today, insists upon a definite decision being made regarding the withdrawal of the United States troops from Mexican territory before the consideration of any other questions shall be undertaken by the American and Mexican joint commission.

The document, which is friendly in tone, expresses the readiness of the Mexican government to permit the discussion by the joint commission of any subjects which may be introduced by the representatives of either government on the condition that the decision is first made regarding the time and method of evacuation of the United States forces from the positions now occupied to the south of the Rio Grande. It is not believed here that the Mexican government will consent to the altering of this determination.

Accompanying the note were Mexico's nominations to the commission, who are Finance Minister Luis Cabrera, Acting Minister of Communications Ignacio Bonillas, and General Manager Alberto Pani, of the Constitutional railways.

Convene in Week or Two.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 3.—The final word from Carranza necessary to initiate organization of a joint commission for settlement of border disputes is expected to reach Washington in a day or two, and officials believe the commission's deliberations may begin within a week or ten days.

The official announcement in Mexico City today that Mexican commissioners had been selected was taken as a sign that the American suggestion for broadening the scope of subjects to be considered at the conferences probably had been accepted.

Guard to Stay on Border.

President Wilson informed Democratic senators he intends to leave the national guard on the Mexican border until Carranza proves his ability to protect the United States against aggressions from Villista or other bandits.

One or two of the senators suggested that the border patrol work is regular army work and if the regular army is too small congress should enact such legislation as will increase it to the required strength.

Snipers Are Busy Again.

Douglas, Ariz., Aug. 3.—Snipers lying in the brush about two miles west of Agua Prieta and several hundred yards south of the international boundary are reported to have fired a number of shots at members of the border patrol of the Second Montana infantry Tuesday night. The incident is said to have been unofficially reported to Brig. Gen. T. F. Davis. The guardsmen made no reply.

Fresh Troops After Villa.

Chihuahua, Mexico, Aug. 3.—Fresh troops have been ordered into the pursuit of Villa, Gen. Jacinto Trevino announced tonight.

AUTO OWNERS 'STUNG'; CRY FRAUD, AND U. S. GETS BUSY.

Mails Closed to the International League in Buffalo, Which Promised Cheap Supplies.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 3.—[Special.]—Cries for vengeance from many automobile owners in the United States who admit they were badly stuck brought results today when the postoffice department denied the use of the mails to the International Automobile League, Inc., and the International Automobile League Tire company of Buffalo, N. Y., and A. C. Bidwell, president of both concerns.

The action announced by Solicitor General Lamar is the result of complaints made last March by the American Automobile association and the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World seeking to abolish fraudulent advertising.

Bidwell was charged with amassing a fortune by employing agents who solicited members for the league by representing that membership enabled the motor drivers to obtain tires and accessories at manufacturers' prices.

League members testified that when they endeavored to realize the big savings they were informed that the league was "just out," but that an excellent article manufactured especially for the league could be supplied in place of the one ordered.

TELLS WILD TRIP FROM ANTARCTIC

Shackleton Man, Back in London, Has Little Hope for Men Behind.

750 MILES IN BOAT.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Harry McNish, a member of the Shackleton antarctic expedition, arrived in London tonight bringing details of the terrible experiences undergone during the escape from Elephant island.

McNish told how Sir Ernest Shackleton led the little party in an open boat 750 miles through mountainous seas, driven by great gales and filled with floating ice. They were forced to jettison most of their supplies and even lost their sea anchor. During the weeks of struggle they ran out of water and food, but finally reached South Georgia island.

McNish has little hope of the rescue of the men left behind on Elephant island. Sir Ernest now is engaged in a second expedition to attempt their relief.

Don't Know Help Is Coming.

"Perhaps the worst fact we have to reckon with regarding the men left on Elephant island," McNish said, "is that they may think the small boat in which we reached South Georgia island has foundered with all hands and that consequently the world is still ignorant of their fate.

"It was, I suppose, one chance in a hundred that the boat ever would get through, and time after time it was only by a miracle that we escaped drowning. It was only by an act of Providence that we were able to make Elephant island at all. Even then the wind blew everlastingly, and we had to crawl on our hands and knees to make headway against it.

Had to Find Help.

"The chief decided that a push must be made to the nearest land where help could be found, and I was set to work to fit our largest boat for the adventurous voyage. It was a difficult job, but with the help of George Marston [the artist] and McCarthy (a seaman), who made a great hand at sewing frozen canvas—the most difficult proposition in the way of sewing that there is—we managed to make good.

"We decked the boat with sledge runners, box lids and canvas, and made it as seaworthy as possible, but even then it seemed a crazy craft in which to sail 750 miles through ice and gales.

Stormed Continuously.

"The journey was almost worse than our expectations. Though we set out with a fair wind that was the last decent weather we had and for a fortnight there was a constant succession of storms and gales. I do not think we saw the sun half a dozen times, and it was very difficult to get an observation.

"Ice was constantly forming on the boat and was the worst handicap we had to face.

"One man was employed all the time in cutting the ice away with an ax, but we were never free from ice, and we had to jettison quite a lot of stuff, even the oars, to keep the boat afloat.

Lose Their Sea Anchor.

"A week after we started, while hove to in a gale, we lost our sea anchor, the rope being cut by the ice.

"This seemed to be almost the last straw, but Sir Ernest Shackleton rose to the occasion, and I never saw him in better form than he was that day.

"'We are going to get there all right,' he said, when things seemed perfectly hopeless. And, sure enough, we did.

"We first sighted the west coast of South Georgia. It was during a great snow storm, and as we knew nothing about the tide or the island we had to hold off until daylight the next day. The wind was blowing a hurricane, and we had great difficulty in keeping the boat afloat on a dead lee shore, and it was hopeless to try to land.

Drifting Onto Cliffs.

"After a time we found that we were drifting onto the cliffs. It was just touch and go and if Sir Ernest had not set a reefed sail I believe none of us would be alive now.

"We had to bail continuously, and but for the wind shifting at a critical moment we could never have put ashore alive.

"When we got to South Georgia—on the wrong side of the island, as it happened—we were just about at the end of our water. We were all frost bitten, too, but the main thing we troubled about was something to fill our stomachs and that we found soon after landing."

Fruit Firm Sues I. C.

The Illinois Central railroad was sued yesterday by the Edward G. Davies company, fruit dealers, who charge the company has by extortionate, incorrect, and unauthorized means collected moneys rightfully belonging to the petitioners on shipments. It is also charged the railroad circulated false reports about the firm.

MOOSE REMNANT TO PICK NO MAN FOR PRESIDENCY

Plans to Perpetuate Party Are Adopted at Indianapolis; "Betrayers" Scored.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 3.—Plans for the reorganization and perpetuation of the Progressive party as a national political organization were adopted tonight at a conference of the remnants of the Bull Moosers.

The conference decided it would be impracticable at this late date to reassemble the Progressive national convention and fill the vacancy on the national ticket caused by Theodore Roosevelt's declination of the nomination for president. Instead, the rump organization says it will put up an electoral ticket in every state where there is a nucleus of an organization left, bearing the name of John M. Parker of Louisiana, nominee for vice president, in the hope of electing enough presidential electors who might prove the balance of power in the event of a close contest between the two major parties.

Includes Central States.

Among the states in which this plan will be carried out are: Louisiana, Maryland, Indiana, Missouri, Wisconsin, Michigan, Utah, North Dakota, and Minnesota.

J. A. H. Hopkins of New Jersey was chosen treasurer of the rehabilitation party, and Matthew Hale of Massachusetts, vice chairman of the national committee, will be in active charge of the campaign.

Edwin M. Lee of Indiana, A. D. Nortoni of Missouri, Bainbridge Colby of New York, C. F. Hoffman of Michigan, Harold Moise of Louisiana, and C. W. McClure of Georgia were named members of the executive committee.

Conference's Appeal.

The following address was issued by the conference:

"To the Progressives of the Country:

"At a national conference of the party held today in the city of Indianapolis, attended by representatives of thirty-seven states, a resolution was unanimously adopted condemning the action of the Progressive national committee on June 26, 1916, as an illegal usurpation of authority not conferred upon it by the recent convention of the party, denouncing its action as a breach of trust, and repudiating the same in every respect as nonexpressive of the party's thought or wishes.

"It is useless to deny or to deceive ourselves as to the grievous effect upon the party of the blows which it has sustained through the defection of many of its leaders and through the betrayal by the national committee of the trust confided in it by the party membership.

Cite Party's Betrayers.

"Men whom we have delighted to honor and men we delight to follow have not only abandoned the party's cause, but have sought to sacrifice its future and to compromise the dignity of its individual membership by a collusive undertaking with the Republican party to deliver our party strength to the Republican presidential ticket.

"The course of the national committee has been emphatically repudiated in every state where there has been free discussion and action.

"This conference is the culminating protest of the party against the treasonable attempt to put it out of existence as a national party and to deliver its vote to the Republican party. The Progressive party cannot be delivered.

"It is the sense of this conference that the action of the individual Progressives on the presidency should be left to their individual judgment and conscience.

Choice Up to Individuals.

"Any effort to dictate the action of individual Progressives must of necessity fail, and this conference recognizes the capacity and the resolve of every Progressive to make up his own mind and to determine his own course.

"The conference has authorized the appointment of a committee and has confided to it the duty of taking appropriate measures to preserve our party's existence, and to make vigorous electoral contests. This committee will later announce a national conference of the party to be held at some convenient place after the election. At this conference ways and means will be considered for the maintenance of our party and the carrying forward of its great mission."

THINK LAMM IS NOMINATED FOR GOVERNOR OF MISSOURI

Republican Leaders Hold Candidate Has Safe Lead Over Rival—Gardner Chosen by Democrats.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 3.—Incomplete returns from more than sixty-five counties today gave former Judge Henry Lamm of Sedalia a lead of 21,000 votes over John E. Swanger, also of Sedalia, his nearest competitor for the Republican nomination for governor. This lead is believed by many Republicans to indicate Lamm's nomination.

The nomination of Gardner on the Democratic ticket has been conceded.

AIDS PYTHIAN PICNIC

Grand Chief of Auxiliary, Who Will Attend Outing Tomorrow for Benefit of Hospital Fund.

Mrs. Belle Snyder

The Pythian Sisters, woman's auxiliary of the order of Knights of Pythias, will hold an annual picnic of twenty-five temples at the grove of Riverview park tomorrow for the benefit of the hospital fund of the order. Many officials and members of the order will be present, including Mrs. Belle Snyder, the grand chief of the woman's auxiliary. Each year a charity benefit is given for the purpose of raising additional funds for the sick and destitute.

DENEEN JUDGE SLATE PICKED

"Reunited Republican Organization" Gives Three Places to Progressives.

The "Reunited Republican Organization," which is the official title of the Deneen-Hull-Progressive Republican combination, agreed yesterday upon a slate of ten candidates for judges of the Municipal court. The Progressives get three of the places and the Republicans seven. The slate follows:

Thomas J. Graydon, Twenty-first ward.
Hugh R. Stewart, Thirty-first ward.
Ninian H. Welch, Thirteenth ward.
Charles S. Wharton, Thirtieth ward.
John A. Swanson, Seventh ward.
John R. Newcomer, Thirty-fifth ward.
Hosea W. Wells, Eighteenth ward.
William W. Maxwell, Second ward.
Simon P. Gary, Second ward.
Samuel Friedlander, Twenty-fifth ward.

The three Progressives are Graydon, who heads the ticket, and is chairman of the Progressive county committee; Gary, and Friedlander. The two sitting Republican judges, Newcomer and Wells, are on the "reunited" slate. They were also nominated on the city hall-neutral slate at the Medinah temple convention. At Deneen headquarters the statement was made that both asked to go on the Deneen slate with the expectation of withdrawing from the city hall ticket.

Stewart and Maxwell are former judges of the Municipal court. Welch is former assistant judge of the Probate court. Swanson is now a state senator and was the primary nominee for Municipal court judge last year. Wharton is a former member of congress from the stockyards district.

WOMEN TO GIVE $100,000 TO HELP ELECT HUGHES

Miss Anne Martin, Woman's Party Chairman, So Declares—Believes G. O. P. Nominee's Word Good.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 3.—One hundred thousand dollars and the influence of the national woman's party will be cast into the balance in favor of Charles Evans Hughes and against President Wilson if the Democrats fail to pass the federal suffrage amendment at the present session of congress.

Miss Anne Martin, chairman of the woman's party, so declared to the United Press here today.

"We must judge the Democratic party on its performance and the Republican party on its promises," she said. "Just as we hold President Wilson to a strict accountability for his suffrage record, so we will hold Gov. Hughes to his promise of national suffrage if he is elected.

"We have every confidence that as leader of his party Gov. Hughes will keep his word. The party that secures the political freedom of all women will inevitably win the undying loyalty and adherence of the women voters. Will the Democrats give this great opportunity to the Republican party?"

OFFICE HOLDERS WARNED AGAINST POLITICAL WORK

McAdoo Issues Rules Against Campaign Activities—Lewis Will Defend Wilson.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 3.—Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo today issued a circular address to all officers in the treasury department holding any presidential appointment warning them to avoid all activity in the coming campaign.

The statement says:

"Presidential appointees are forbidden by statute to use their official authority or influence to coerce the political action of any person or body, to make any contribution for a political object to any other officer of the United States, or to solicit or receive contributions for political purposes, or to discriminate among their employés or applicants for political reasons.

Acts Forbidden.

"Otherwise a presidential appointee will be allowed to take such a part in political campaigns as is taken by any private citizen, except that he will not be permitted:

"1. To hold a position as a member or officer of any political committee that solicits funds.

"2. To display such obtrusive partisanship as to cause public scandal.

"3. To attempt to manipulate party primaries or convention.

"4. To use his position to bring about his selection as a delegate to conventions.

"5. To act as chairman of a political convention.

"6. To assume the active conduct of a political campaign.

"7. To use his position to interfere with an election or to affect the result thereof."

Warning to Jerry O'Rourke.

Postmaster General Burleson wrote a letter to Jerry O'Rourke, postmaster at Harvey, Ill., calling his attention to the statute, forbidding political activity by federal office holders. O'Rourke is a candidate for the legislature, of which he was a member when Senators Lewis and Sherman were elected in 1913. O'Rourke has been told to withdraw from the race or resign his postmastership.

Lewis to Defend President.

Political fireworks will be set off at both ends of the capitol tomorrow. Senator Lewis of Illinois will address the senate in an effort to answer the charges made against the Wilson administration in the speech of acceptance of Charles E. Hughes. Representative Rodenberg of Illinois will denounce the administration in the house.

Senator Lewis had a long talk with the president today, and it is expected he will address himself particularly to the Mexican situation.

Ask for Letters Under Will.

A petition for letters testamentary to be issued to them as executors of the will of John McLaren, who died July 26, 1916, was filed in the Probate court yesterday by John Loomis McLaren, James Simpson, and Philip B. Hosmer. The estate consists of about $150,000 personal property and $12,000 real estate.

NUTSHELL POLITICS

Jottings on Candidates and Events in National, State, and County Campaigns.

Mayor E. N. Woodruff of Peoria, who has filed his petiton as a Republican candidate for governor, was in Chicago yesterday preparing to open headquarters next week, either at the Great Northern or Hotel La Salle. "Mayor Woodruff's platform will be issued next week," said Senator John Dailey, his campaign manager. "It will be full of interesting subjects that all candidates are dodging and will be ready by everybody."

Among the last day petitions expected to be filed is that of James H. Wilkerson as a Republican candidate for state's attorney.

Chicago Democratic leaders received word from the east yesterday that National Chairman Vance McCormick and Senator Thomas J. Walsh will not get here until Monday to discuss western campaign plans.

The reunited Republican organization—"Progublican," a low brow called it—will send out 1,500,000 sample ballots, one to every man and woman voter in Cook county, regardless of party, marked to indicate the Deneen-Progressive ticket, together with a statement of the case from their standpoint.

"Ed Brundage and his crowd of neutrals call us rebels. Well, we fight in the open at least, while he and his so-called neutrals are nothing else but snipers," says a statement issued by Felix A. Nordon, candidate for the board of assessors.

William Grant Webster is out again. He filed his petition as a candidate for the Republican nomination for state treasurer. He has filed already as a candidate for congress in the Seventh district.

Edward O. Peterson, Col. Frank L. Smith's Kane county manager, who as Progressive nominee for state treasurer in 1912 polled 313,000 votes, sent this report to Smith headquarters: "I had a reliable man go through the big shops here, where there are 2,000 men, and he informed me the men are coming to Smith like wildfire. It is no illusion when I say the Lowden sentiment is dying fast here."

The Fourth Ward Republican club has indorsed Morton D. Hull for governor, according to resolutions signed by Henry G. Dobler, president, and R. L. Burns, secretary.

Hull meetings are announced for tonight as follows: Twenty-first ward, 1450 North Clark street; Seventeenth ward, 760 Milwaukee avenue; Thirty-third ward, Chicago avenue and Walker street; Thirty-fourth ward, 3510 Ogden avenue.

X. F. Beidler of Lincoln, who was Democratic nominee for secretary of state in 1908, has filed as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for state treasurer.

More than 1,000 Negroes gathered at the African Methodist Episcopal church in Evanston last night to hear Mayor Thompson, who had been announced as the speaker. The mayor failed to appear.

MOOSE HERE FOR HUGHES.

Bridgehampton, L. I., Aug. 3.—Prediction that Hughes will poll 90 per cent of the votes of former Progressives in Illinois was made in a telegram received today by the Republican nominee today from Frank H. Funk, former Progressive gubernatorial candidate.

LORIMER BEGINS CONGRESS RACE; ASSAILS PRESS

Dares Publishers to Public Debate on Morals in First Speech in Campaign.

William Lorimer opened his speaking campaign for the Republican nomination for congress in the Sixth district last night in Occidental hall, West Madison street and Sacramento avenue. He "accepted the offer of his friends," he said, and would do all in his power to win the nomination.

He made THE TRIBUNE'S opposition to him an issue, and also assailed the Chicago Daily News and Victor Lawson, the publisher. He dared the publishers of THE TRIBUNE and the News to get on the same platform with him and discuss the question of public morals. He read THE TRIBUNE editorials in which it was stated that in behalf of decency and honesty Lorimer ought to be defeated.

He reviewed the testimony before the senate investigating committee that resulted in his being ousted from his senate seat.

"You never read the real evidence of Beckemeyer and Link in THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, did you? These men testified under oath that they had not been promised a dollar to vote for Lorimer," he said.

Severs Relations with Mayor.

Mr. Lorimer closed the books with the city hall, formally cutting loose from Mayor Thompson, Fred Lundin, and their aids.

"Fred Lundin, Mr. Rohm, city purchasing agent, and Dave Clark, Thompson committeeman from this district," said Mr. Lorimer, "have threatened my friends in the city's employ with loss of positions if they support me. My friends, I don't want any of my friends holding city jobs to suffer on account of me, and I would be the last person to ask them to do anything that would cost them their jobs.

"Mayor Thompson and Fred Lundin think they cannot carry the load of Lorimer. They were my friends for many years and I was theirs. It was a friendship that I would go into the last ditch for. But they feel that they can no longer associate with Lorimer. They have left me, not I them.

Starts All Over Again.

"So I am here tonight, starting all over again, just as I did when I was a young man. I ask no man to support me if it will hurt him in any way. But with your help, my neighbors and friends, we will win this fight and I will go back to congress."

Mr. Lorimer will speak again tonight at 3272 West Madison street.

WOMAN PRAISES WILSON.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 3.—Miss Kate Gordon, president of the Southern States Woman Suffrage conference, issued a statement today praising President Wilson for his stand for state action on suffrage and declaring Democratic women voters would not be deceived by Mr. Hughes' "bait of a federal amendment as a short cut to woman suffrage."

SIXTY PERSONS ARE KILLED BY FLOODS IN TENNESSEE.

Dam Gives Way and Water Sweeps Over the Valley After Terrific Rains.

Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 3.—Sixty lives were lost today in a flood that swept down the narrow valley through which flows Big Barren creek in Claiborne county, Tenn. The waters overwhelmed the basin when a thirty-five foot dam gave way after the hardest rain ever known in the region. Weather bureau officials said fourteen inches of water fell in that part of the state.

The flood washed the valley, which is a quarter to a half mile wide, and poured into Clinch river. Houses floated down the crest of the waters and crops were destroyed from one end of the valley to the other.

Reward for Firemen's Efforts.

The Rittenhouse & Embree company, West Thirty-fifth street and South Racine avenue, in appreciation of the work of firemen at the fire which partly destroyed the lumber yards several days ago, yesterday sent Fire Marshal Thomas O'Connor a check for $500 to be deposited in the firemen's pension fund.

HUGHES TO TELL HOW TO BRING U. S. EFFICIENCY

Mexico and Preparedness to Be His Topics on Campaign Tour to Coast.

Bridgehampton, N. Y., Aug. 3.—[Special.]—What Charles E. Hughes will do to bring about an "efficient America," outlined in detail, it is promised, in the score or more of speeches to be made on his campaign tour to the Pacific coast. Mr. Hughes' declaration for national universal suffrage is the first of a series of affirmative pronouncements he proposes to make on specific subjects.

Unless he changes his mind Mr. Hughes will make Mexico and preparedness the emphatic passages of his first two addresses in Detroit next Monday night. He is expected to outline a definite plan of action for dealing with Mexico and building up the nation's defenses.

Hughes Is Encouraged.

Mr. Hughes thinks the outlook for his election is "most encouraging." He said so tonight in a telegram to senators and representatives tendering a Washington reception to National Chairman Willcox. After apologizing for being unable to attend the reception, Mr. Hughes added: "It is very gratifying constantly to be receiving assurances of strong support and I desire to express to the Republican senators and representatives my deep appreciation of their earnest co-operation. There has been no more important campaign in our recent history, and we have a rare opportunity to be of service to the country. I am glad to say that the outlook is most encouraging."

Hundreds of letters and telegrams congratulating Mr. Hughes upon his speech of acceptance have been received at his summer place here.

"It Means Your Election."

Alexander P. Moore of Pittsburgh, ex-Progressive leader, telegraphed:

"Your wonderfully straightforward speech is a foundation on which every true American can stand and fight for you. It means your election and a restored and united party."

"Hearty congratulations and best wishes for a pleasant and successful journey on your western tour," wired ex-Senator Albert J. Beveridge of Indiana.

"I have just read your admirable unanswerable speech of acceptance and most heartily congratulate you," was the telegram from Mr. Hughes' running mate, Charles W. Fairbanks.

Mr. Hughes worked all day on his Detroit and Chicago speeches. Tomorrow he hopes to make ready the essential parts of his Minneapolis and St. Paul speeches. In the evening he will get ready for his departure on Saturday night for the west.

ACCUSE MAN OF WRITING DENTAL STUDENTS' EXAMS.

Secretary of State Board Swears Out Warrant for Frank Karl, Called High School Expert.

At least one easy route to quack dentistry is believed to have been closed through an investigation conducted by the state board of dental examiners, which resulted yesterday in the issuance of four warrants by Judge Flanagan.

The warrants, which were sworn to by Dr. Otto B. Seifert, secretary of the state board, charge one of the defendants with being a professional examination taker and the other three with having fraudulently obtained entrance to dental schools through the aid of his knowledge.

The man accused of making a business of getting high school certificates for prospective dental students is Frank Karl of 808 West Madison street. The students for whom he is alleged to have successfully taken an examination at the Englewood High school on March 15 last are:

GEORGE SCHVETZ, 733 South Hermitage avenue, post-graduate student at the Chicago College of Dental Surgery.

SAMUEL A. OFEFFERMAN, 2241 Polk street, student at the Chicago College of Dental Surgery.

HERMAN TRACHTENBURG, 1738 West Twelfth street, student at the Chicago College of Dental Surgery.

Hearing of the state board of health into charges against Dr. Amos De Feo and Dr. Amante Rongetti, who are accused of dishonorable and unprofessional conduct, was conducted in executive session at the Hotel Sherman yesterday. All of the evidence in the De Feo case was heard, but the Rongetti case has not been concluded.

ONE MAIDEN'S AMBITION.

Threatens to Become "Toughest Woman in Chicago" if Sent to House of Good Shepherd.

As she was being taken from the court room, May Davis, 17 years old, of 2843 West Van Buren street, shouted back at Judge Pomeroy of the Juvenile court, who had ordered her sent to the House of the Good Shepherd: "If you send me out there when I get out I will make myself the toughest woman in Chicago." She was accused of violating her parole.

ASSAILS PIER SEWAGE PLAN.

Sanitary Trustee Asks Inquiry on Pollution Charge—Denied by City Officials.

The sanitary district yesterday passed a resolution calling for an investigation of the sewer system at the Municipal pier. Trustee Sullivan, who introduced the resolution, said he was informed sewage from the pier is contaminating the lake. Unless the city remedies this situation he proposes to take it up with the board's law department. The city denies the charge.

HUNTING LODGE FOR LEITER.

Contracts Let for $30,000 Structure Near Point a La Hache, La.—4,000 Acres in Tract.

Point a la Hache, La., Aug. 3.—Contracts were let today by agents of Joseph Leiter of Chicago for the construction of a $30,000 hunting lodge near here. It was also announced that Mr. Leiter had purchased about 4,000 acres of marsh land in Plaquemine parish for use as a private shooting ground.

ROBINS TO BACK HUGHES; SPURNS DEMOCRATIC JOB.

Illinois Progressive, Offered Post by McCormick, Decides to Aid Republican Nominee.

New York, Aug. 3.—[Special.]—Raymond Robins of Illinois, who had charge of the Progressive national convention and who was recently offered a place on the Wilson campaign committee, has spurned Democratic National Chairman McCormick's offer and will support Hughes for the presidency, it was learned here tonight.

The Illinoisan's attitude became public after he had held a conference here with Chairman George W. Perkins of the Progressive national committee.

Mr. Robins probably will call on Mr. Hughes on Saturday and declare his allegiance.

Grief Causes Suicide.

Suicide, while despondent over the death of his wife and child, who were killed a year ago, when his wife accidentally poured gasoline on a fire, was the verdict of a coroner's jury yesterday which investigated the death of Joseph Fiala, 1559 Brookfield avenue, Lyons, who was found shot to death Wednesday.

'REBEL' DENEEN RAPS BRUNDAGE

Former Governor Assails Critic's Alliance with City Hall He Berated.

The Chicago Republican primary campaign went into the smash bang stage yesterday. Edward J. Brundage, at a north side meeting Wednesday night, branded former Gov. Charles S. Deneen as a "rebel" because the Deneen organization refused to stand for the Medinah temple slate.

This is what the former governor had to say about Mr. Brundage in a formal statement issued yesterday:

"I notice Mr. Brundage called me a rebel. As that ugly word means 'one who endeavors to overthrow his lawful ruler,' I am curious to know to what particular ruler of the neutral-city hall faction I owe allegiance. 'Under which king, Bezonian? Speak or die!'"

Recalls Primary Bitterness.

"The charge of rebel comes with bad grace from a man whose present alliance with the city hall forces followed a bitter political warfare at the last primaries in which he made statements against the city hall faction which, if true, would have been a proper subject for public investigation.

"If, as Mr. Brundage says, there was no cause for friction in the Republican party in Cook county this year, with what justification did he make these statements, and what justification did he and his associates have for making such a bitter primary fight against the city hall faction in April?

And Why the Hyphen?

"And why should Mr. Brundage now attempt to distinguish himself from the city hall faction by the use of the hyphen? There are but two explanations for Mr. Brundage's use of the hyphen. One is that he hopes thus to abate the odium of his association with the city hall; the other that he hopes to deceive the public as to his true position."

Motors Collide in Evanston.

Damage was caused to two automobiles in a collision early yesterday at Central street and Ridge avenue, Evanston. A car owned by Andrew McMurray of 2304 Central street struck one driven by Thomas James of 1276 Victor avenue, Chicago. Neither occupant was injured.

WOMAN CANDIDATE BEATEN IN G. O. P. KANSAS PRIMARY

Returns Indicate Man Has Won Nomination for State School Head—Other Contests in Doubt.

Topeka, Kas., Aug. 3.—On the returns from forty-eight counties of the state on Tuesday's primary Miss Lizzie Wooster, the only Republican woman candidate, has been beaten by W. D. Ross for the nomination for state superintendent of public instruction.

Walter L. Payne had a lead of about 5,000 votes over Matt Weightman for state treasurer on the Republican ticket and about 6,000 over C. E. Evans. In the only other doubtful race Frederick W. Knapp was leading Frank Organ by about 400 votes for the Republican nomination as state auditor.

HIRED TO STEAL, SHE SAYS.

Young Woman Arrested for Shoplifting Blames "Mrs. B—" for Her Lapse.

"Mrs. B— told me to do it," said Mrs. E. O. Seeling yesterday when she faced Judge Flanagan in the South Clark street court on a shoplifting charge. Mrs. Seeling, a demure woman of 23, who lives at 4522 North Racine avenue, was accused of taking $7.35 worth of lingerie at Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.'s.

"I met Mrs. B— in the restroom," she said, "and she offered me $5 if I would steal the things for her. So I took what she said and went outside to give it to her and was arrested."

Mrs. B—'s name and address went into the records and the police are looking for her.

Husband Charges Desertion.

Abbott V. Peterson of Evanston filed a bill for divorce from Ellen Johnson Peterson yesterday in the Circuit court, charging desertion.

HUGHES TO HAVE STRENUOUS DAY ON CHICAGO VISIT

Plans for G. O. P. Nominee on Tuesday Next Will Keep Him on the Jump.

Chicago will be the storm center of national politics Tuesday when Charles E. Hughes gets here to start on his western swing. Definite plans for the strenuous day that the nominee will have were completed yesterday.

While Republicans from Illinois and all over the central west are consulting, the Democratic national leaders will be in conference with National Chairman Vance McCormick, Senator Thomas J. Walsh, who is to handle the Chicago end of President Wilson's campaign, and with the Democratic state managers.

Mr. Hughes will arrive in Chicago from Detroit over the Michigan Central at 8 o'clock in the morning, accompanied by a party of twenty-eight, including newspaper men. National Chairman William R. Willcox and others of the national committee executive force will reach Chicago Monday.

Breakfast at Blackstone.

The reception committee, of which John C. Shaffer is the chairman, meets Mr. Hughes at the Twelfth street station and accompanies him to the Blackstone for breakfast.

At 10 o'clock Mr. Hughes is due to arrive at the national committee headquarters on the seventh floor of the Conway building. Officers of the national committee took possession of the offices yesterday. There Mr. Hughes is to have a conference with Chairman Willcox and definite arrangements for the western campaign are to be made.

At noon Mr. Hughes is to be escorted to the rotunda of the Conway building, a space nearly a block in area, where he is to have a public reception that continues until 1:30 p. m. The Hamilton club is in charge of these arrangements.

Drive Through Parks.

After the reception Mr. Hughes goes to the Blackstone for luncheon and for a rest until 3:30 p. m., when he will go for a two hour drive through the park and boulevard system, returning to the Blackstone for dinner at 6 p. m.

He will leave the Blackstone at 7:45 for the Coliseum, where he is to make the address which is scheduled to be the real keynote speech of his western trip. The party is to depart for St. Paul at 10:15 p. m.

The down-state membership of the reception committee was announced yesterday by Chairman Shaffer.

Many of the members of the Republican national committee, particularly from the Mississippi valley and western states are expected at the meeting.

He Fears Saloonkeepers.

Frank J. La Rue, a janitor living near Chicago avenue and Franklin street, told Judge Scully in the insane court yesterday that "he knew too much about the saloonkeepers in his neighborhood and that they were trying to get him out of the way." He was sent to Dunning. When arrested he was parading in the street dressed in a policeman's uniform and armed with a water pistol.

I. C. SUBMITS TERMINAL PLAN

City's Commission Receives Drawings; Hope for South Shore Improvement.

WILL SUPPLY BEACHES.

Hope that the obstacles to the great south shore improvement may soon be removed was revived yesterday with the announcement that John F. Wallace's railway terminal commission is studying the tentative plans for the new Illinois Central terminal in connection with the lake front project.

Ultimatums and counter ultimatums between the city council and the railroad has delayed the improvement for more than a year.

Civic leaders believe, however, that Mr. Wallace is in a fair way to straighten out the difficulties. They recall his success in bringing about a settlement with the Union Station company over its new terminal.

Plans Now in Hand.

The Illinois Central, it is announced, has turned over its tentative plans to Mr. Wallace and offered to cooperate with him. Mr. Wallace is expected to recommend concessions both on the side of the city and the railroad.

Another source of hope lies in the demand for more bathing beaches and more parkways along the lake front. The hot weather has made this demand so insistent that city officials are disposed to quit haggling about technicalities.

The proposed improvement, based on the 1912 agreement between the south park board and the Illinois Central, will give the people four miles of lagoons, playgrounds and bathing beaches between Grant park and Jackson park.

Criticism Not Proper.

"Instead of being criticised for delay in the matter," Chairman Ellis Geiger of the council railway terminals committee said, "we should be congratulated for having induced President Markham of the Illinois Central to agree to submit tentative plans.

TWO POLICEMEN "IN BAD."

Patrolmen Murphy and Purtell Held for Attempted Murder and Robbery.

Grand jury investigation may be made into the case of Patrolmen John A. Murphy of the Stanton avenue station and George T. Purtell of the Hinman street station, who are held on charges of attempter murder and robbery. They are accused of shooting Charles Jung, owner of a Chinese laundry at 511 East Thirty-seventh street, beating him, and robbing him of $3 Wedensday. They deny the charges, but admit they had been drinking.

AUTOMOBILE OF W. R. MOORHOUSE INJURES THREE

Crashes Head On Into Machine of James Callay, Former City Employe.

Commissioner of Public Works William R. Moorhouse figured in an automobile accident Wednesday night in which three persons were injured and his own car was partly wrecked.

The accident occurred at Sixteenth street and Michigan avenue at 9:30 o'clock, when the boulevard was crowded with cars. Mr. Moorhouse was driving south and his machine ran head-on into a car driven by James Callay, a former city employe, 3115 Lowe avenue. A front wheel was ripped off Mr. Moorhouse's car.

The injured, who were cared for at St. Luke's hospital and then went home, were:

Charles Reische, 52 years old; engineer in United States engineering office in the federal building; lacerated forearm. Was in Mr. Moorhouse's car.

Frank Niethanas, 10 years old; 3114 Lowe avenue; salesman; forehead and neck lacerated.

Willard Callay, 10 years old, 3115 Lowe avenue; forearm lacerated and knee cut.

Two women were in Mr. Callay's car. One of them is said to have been his wife and the other a relative. Neither, so far as could be learned, was injured.

It was reported that Mr. Callay's car was occupied by University of Michigan students. This was not true.

THE THREATENED RAILWAY STRIKE.

Before the European war the world said a European war was impossible.

The reasoning was that a European war was impossible because it would be so terrible.

The European war came and it is as terrible as it was thought it might be.

The American public and representatives at Washington are watching the events leading to a nationwide railway strike in the same mood of optimism as they watched the oncoming storm of world war.

There will be no strike, they feel, because it would be so costly and so foolish.

It will be costly, tremendously costly, and it will be foolish. But it is time for the public and the government to realize that this offers no assurance there will be no strike.

On the contrary, there is every reason so far as unprejudiced observers can judge to fear that a strike is not only possible but probable, and it will be not only probable but inevitable unless the promptest and most effective action be taken.

For months THE TRIBUNE has been pointing out the gravity of the drift of the railway wage controversy and begging for congressional consideration. The chamber of commerce of the United States through a special committee, after an investigation of the conditions, has now appealed to the president to intervene. Some time ago Senator Newlands introduced in congress a resolution authorising and directing the interstate commerce commission to undertake an inquiry into the controversy. This resolution, as we have said before, is in our opinion of imperative importance. It has slept in the senate because during a political campaign any proposal which savors of interference with organized labor is feared. But it should now be given full and expeditious consideration, and, in our opinion, it should be promptly passed in the interest of the public, the employés of the railways, and the railways themselves.

The Newlands resolution is as follows:

"Whereas, The controversy that has arisen between the railroads and certain of their employés relating to a shortening of the hours of labor without corresponding decrease in pay, and for increased compensation for any service performed in excess of the daily period prescribed, may lead to a serious interruption of the railroad service, with disastrous effect upon the public welfare and upon the commerce of the nation; now, therefore, be it

"Resolved, etc., That the interstate commerce commission be, and it is hereby directed, immediately to investigate and to report to the congress as soon as practicable the minimum, maximum, and average wage paid, with hours of service, to each class of railroad employés in the United States, and so far as they are comparable, the minimum, maximum, and average wage, with hours of service, paid in other industries where similar skill and risk are involved, the relation of wages to railroad revenues, the question of whether railroad revenues based on existing rates for transportation will admit of equally favorable terms to all classes of railroad employés, and any other matter in this connection that the commission may deem relevant; and be it further

"Resolved, That it is the sense of the congress that the railway companies, their officers, and employés, should give their hearty support and coöperation to the interstate commerce commission in its investigation, deferring pending controversies over questions at issue until that commission may be able to complete its investigation and make its report to the congress."

This resolution originated with the committee of the national chamber of commerce referred to, and has the approval of a vote of 987¾ in favor to 29¼ votes against. In introducing it Senator Newlands said:

"The resolution is drawn from the point of view of the public as an interested party in the controversy. It would be difficult to exaggerate the calamity that would result from a tie-up of freight of all the railroads of the United States in one week. No legislation exists on the statute books for preventing such a calamity should either party refuse to submit to arbitration. Neither can maintain its position if, when the facts are presented, public opinion based on these facts is against it. It is with a view to ascertaining a just conclusion through a nonpartisan quasi judicial body which has the necessary facilities for doing the work expeditiously that this resolution is introduced."

We do not see how either side can thrust aside this plan of just and peaceful adjudication of their important differences if it is solemnly offered them by the national congress. The resolution should therefore be passed without further delay, for a railway strike of the proportions threatened and on the issues drawn would be a national calamity whose immediate and remote consequences it would be difficult to overestimate.

The duty of congress, it seems to us, is plain and unavoidable with honor. If such a body will not act in such an emergency there is something radically wrong with its membership.

FOR A SKOKIE PRESERVE.

The forest preserve commission has wisely decided to take up consideration of the lower Skokie district next in its proceedings and its committee on plans will go over the ground today.

This committee, consisting of President Reinberg and Messrs. Charles Wacker, Dwight Perkins, J. C. Vaughn, William A. Peterson and Commissioners Regan, Busse, O'Malley, and Miller, is an exceptionally able body, having broad and sound views of public improvements of this character and fully in sympathy with the objects of the forest preserve act. We may look for a good plan and for an energetic development of it by the commission.

It is to be hoped the action of the Cook county commission will stimulate public interest in Lake county. The Skokie valley is one of the beauty spots of northern Illinois and ought to be developed rationally and harmoniously under the forest preserve act, which the Cook county commissioners seem to be applying with admirable energy and public spirit.

The Lake county commissioners ought to sit up and take notice. Their section of the Skokie is a county asset of great value for the people of today and their posterity, and Lake county should show as much enlightened foresight as its neighbor, Cook.

HANGING CASEMENT.

Lord Robert Cecil, a few hours before Sir Roger Casement was hanged, said that the only ground for a reprieve would be political expediency, and that in a land in which the law never was strained to punish a person it was impossible to strain it to let one off. Law, to be the respected and controlling genius of order, had to be uncompromising, unemotional, and never expedient.

We know that sentimentalism interferes in American administration of law, and we know that the British system to which Lord Robert Cecil referred is a better protection for orderly citizens than our system. A guilty person in England faces something remote from human emotions and weaknesses. It seeks to determine facts of guilt or innocence, and if guilt be found the execution of sentence proceeds as if in the hands of automatons which could not be checked or controlled by human beings.

Casement was the victim of this machine. Lord Robert Cecil implies that law could not without confession of error and weakness, without injury to justice, spare Casement after Pearse and his associates had been executed. Injustice would be found in partiality.

De Wet did much more than Pearse, Casement, and the other Irish leaders attempted, and his punishment was mild. He had less excuse than the Irish in one way. The Union of South Africa has the political freedom for which Ireland is struggling.

The De Wet case reveals the weakness of the British position with regard to the Irish. The right of rebellion is a fundamental right. Open rebellion in arms against a government not wanted by the people under it is not a crime against law. It is hazardous, and failure may mean the loss of life, but the state which has provoked the rebellion is warranted in consulting political expediency. The ground which was mentioned as the only one for Casement's reprieve was the only one needed.

The use of clemency in dealing with the leaders of a revolt is not an interference with the processes of law. The state judges in each case what will satisfy the needs of the state. That is the object to be served. Few cases will be alike, and law cannot be automatic.

The federal government in Washington did a great service to the United States when it did not execute the leaders of the southern rebellion. If Robert E. Lee had been a martyr in the minds of the south the reunion of states would have been delayed for another generation.

Great Britain had punished the leaders in the Irish rebellion, and had punished them severely. Finer men than Casement had been shot. Injury had been done true British policy. The trouble with England and Ireland is that the Tory English mind controls both the English and the Irish when Ireland is in the question. The Tory English mind thinks an Irish revolt is immoral and criminal. It cannot escape that way of thinking.

If the Poles of Posen were to revolt against Germany, or if the people of Alsace were to revolt against Germany, the English would think the rebellion glorious. The Prussianized Poles have not written so much tragedy in history as the Irish, and the Alsatians have suffered nothing if Ireland be considered as having suffered at all. But England would regard an Alsatian revolt as heroic, and it regards an Irish revolt as sordid, base, ignoble, and dastardly.

England will not admit guilt in Ireland. England will not confess that England has made Irish rebels. England could have stood before a supreme judgment bar and with truth have confessed that Casement was her creation; that she had made, formed, and inspired him; that his acts were consequences of her acts; that the responsibility was hers and the guilt hers. England made him; England unmade him.

Political expediency would have been a wiser guide than law. Great Britain needs Ireland as a contented part of the British empire. Ireland's best hopes will be realized when she is a contented and self-governed part of the British empire. It is the English, not the Irish, who stand in the way of a settlement.

THE IMPOSSIBLE SYSTEM.

Gen. Parker, in command of the forces on the lower Rio Grande, favors the withdrawal of all married guardsmen whose families are not provided for. One of the guard officers said to him, "But, general, these men fear public odium if they withdraw," at which the general said: "What, odium! With the streets at home full of young unmarried men who ought to be here!"

The situation, indeed, shows up the injustice and inefficiency of our present military system. It is true there are thousands of men in the guard at the border who ought to be at home, while the country is full of young men without dependents or responsibilities, whose duty it is to serve and who would be the better for serving. But our system has left them untouched, while it has accepted the volunteer regardless of the consequences to him or the community of which he is an active and responsible unit. So now in the emergency we must ignore the injustice and social inconvenience worked and make use of what we have.

How shortsighted and blundering it all is. When are we to get rid of it and adopt the democratic system of universal military training and service?

Editorial of the Day.

TEMPTING PROVIDENCE.

[From the Milwaukee Sentinel.]

"Mr. Hughes' survey of the immediate past challenges our future. We have muddled along, but our gratitude for such immunity as we have enjoyed should be directed to Providence."—Chicago Tribune.

Yes; but another four years of Wilkins Micawber's watchful waiting in the White House might be a tempting of Providence that would lead to a sharp lesson in the precept that the Lord helps them that help themselves.

The country blundered innocently into Woodrow Wilson, a minority president, in 1912. Providence has been kind, and tempered the wind to the shorn lambs of business and labor with a passing and fortuitious spell of seeming prosperity. The country can best show its gratitude to Providence by declining further trial of Mr. Wilson, now that it has got acquainted with him.

It cannot reasonably expect Providence to act as guardian ad litem for the people for another four years. Mr. Hughes' watchword of "America first and America efficient" should appeal favorably to a somewhat overworked Providence through whose proverbial care for "children, drunken men and the United States" the country has been permitted to "muddle along."

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

Motto: How to the Line, let the quips fall where they may.

"THE throats of the little red trumpet-flowers are wide open. . . .
Red! Red! Coarse notes of red . . .
Clang!—from its red and yellow trumpets. . . .
Today the trumpet-flowers are red—red—
The red throats of the trumpets bray and clang in the sunshine. . . ."

SO sings Amy Lowell in Poetry (the magazine), as recently she sang of a windowful of red slippers. Apparently Miss Amy doesn't care what color a thing is as long as it is red. If she has an automobile it must be "a big red touring car."

IT is probable that the British government was in possession of as many facts about Casement as this or any other nation, and that the political expediency of hanging him was at least casually considered. If the British government made a mistake it was in executing Padraic Pearse, not Roger Casement. If the schoolmaster deserved his fate, the job-holder deserved his ten times as much; but for Casement, Pearse would still be living. Only a nation not engaged in a life-or-death struggle may take a sentimental view of the matter.

'TIS A FEARFUL THING IN SUMMER TO BE SHATTERED BY THE HEAT.

[From the Pocatonico News.]

City Clerk Clarence Schmich of Freeport had his wooden leg shattered by the heat last Saturday. It sounded like a pistol shot and for a time he was unable to understand what had happened, but he soon discovered that his wooden underpinning had been shattered. That is a new record for the heat. People who have wooden legs better put them on ice during the present heated term. It is no joke to have a wooden leg shattered by the heat or any other cause. Aside from the inconvenience of going on crutches until he can have another limb fitted, the city clerk will be put to considerable expense. Wooden legs are made of English willow and they are a rather expensive luxury since the war in Europe has caused such a demand for wooden legs. They cost now $125 and are hard to get at that.

THE French department of commerce mentions that a fleet of American made subs crossed the Atlantic under their own power six months ago; but this does not take from the Deutschland's exploit, which was a sporting event and a human interest story.

NEARLY everybody in this country, we fancy, hopes that the Deutschland will get across safely. Even the English will not be greatly disappointed if the plucky adventurer is not rammed or netted.

Chicago's Handicap.

Sir: On the one hand the population of our village is not increasing as rapidly as in former years; on the other hand, our papers are cumbered with a great deal of matter relative to the police force. That eminent historian, Edgar Wilson Nye, compares, in his valuable and painstaking History of the United States, the growths in population of New York and Philadelphia in their youth. He observes that Philadelphia grew at a much greater rate than New York, and suggests that in adolescent growth Philadelphia had only wild Indians to contend with, while New York, although also afflicted with the Indian evil, must needs combat its police force in addition. May we not draw from this a lesson?

THE PASSING OF THE BEAN FIELD.

[Proclamation by the Johnson Bible College, Tennessee.]

To 1000 of my Brothers and Sisters:

On July 15th we had finished planting our bean and tomato crop, and almost finished plowing our corn. We had 80 acres of corn on the Johnson Island, and in the rich bottoms across the river from the College. The corn was unsurpassed in growth and promise. BUT THE RESISTLESS AND RELENTLESS FLOODS HAVE CLAIMED IT. I DOUBT IF THERE EVER WAS SUCH DESTRUCTION ON THIS RIVER IN ITS HISTORY. Helplessly I watched the waters climb, the low rich banks were already under water, but they climbed up, up, until the bean field disappeared and island followed and then the mighty current swept down through the bottoms carrying destruction as it went. Oh it was pitiful to see! And it was God's crops! He saw it all and will provide!!!

In many respects this is the greatest disaster in our history. Three days before we had the work nearly on a cash basis, and it looked like we would have an easier journey toward sunset. What a change in seventy-two hours! We have the finest dairy in the South. Last year we cut 40 acres of our river bottom corn into our silos. The biggest one is empty and nothing with which to fill it. We have 14 daughters of King Segis Pontiac Alcartra 2nd coming to maturity whose offspring will bring the work tens of thousands of dollars if we can feed them and not be forced to sell them. We have the finest hogs we ever had, and no corn with which to fatten them! The times call for tears, for deep and believing prayer, for self-denial, and I believe you will be with us.

OF COURSE everyone who has sent us the suggestion, "Deutschland unter Allies" thinks he originated the wheeze.

BLOOD PRESSURE DIET.

IN the Interstate Medical Journal Dr. H. W. Soper gives his opinions on high blood pressure. He thinks that eating too much meat is a large factor in every case and the largest factor, by far, in some cases.

He has been successful in reducing blood pressure by dieting. A person with a high blood pressure is given the following diet list:

One glass of cold water upon arising.

BREAKFAST.

Oranges or grapefruit.
Cereals with cream.
Eggs, soft boiled, poached, omelette.
Toast and butter.
One cup hot water flavored with cream.
11 a. m., one glass of cool water.

LUNCH.

Orange or grapefruit.
Cream vegetable soup [no meat stock].
Stewed white onions, oyster plant, carrots, celery, spinach, asparagus, string beans, well mashed squash, broiled egg plant, okra, or corn.
Raw celery, onions, tomatoes, olives, lettuce, tomato or fruit salad with French or mayonnaise dressing.
Custards, gelatins, cornstarch, tapioca.
Stewed fruits.
Whole wheat bread and butter.
Raw fruits.
One glass cool water.
4 p. m., one glass cool water.

DINNER.

Creamed vegetable soup [no meat stock].
Roast beef, lamb, chicken or turkey without dressing, broiled lamb chops or steak, baked fresh fish.
Potatoes well mashed or rice well cooked. Other vegetables, choice from same as at lunch.
Whole wheat bread and butter.
Stewed fruits, raw fruits.
One glass cool water.
Bed time, one glass cool water.

Avoid all condiments, such as mustard, horseradish, and catsup. Use little sugar, little salt, and no pepper. All vegetables should be well cooked without the addition of meat, fat, or sugar.

The keynote of the treatment is the quantity of protein taken. In nine cases out of ten he restricts his patients to 450 grains of meat a day—a little less than one ounce. A few took 600 grains and a very few 750 grains.

It is impossible to diet for high blood pressure without weighing the amount of meat eaten. The amount of protein allowed was 900 grains in the average case. One or two patients got as high as 1,500 grains. Besides the meat and eggs, the foods in the above dietary which are rich in proteins are toast, cereals, bread, and cream.

If the patient will weigh the amount of bread, cereal, and cream he can eat about as freely as he wishes of the articles on the above diet list.

Constipation must be overcome when present.

Following this line of dieting some seventy persons were relieved of their symptoms and had an average fall of 40 in blood pressure.

NURSING MOTHERS' FOOD.

Mrs. E. R. S. writes: "[1] What food, fruits and vegetables particularly, can a mother eat whose child is three weeks old so as not to injure her milk? [2] How often should her baby be fed? Also, how often and what in later months? [3] How should she be clothed in hot weather?"

REPLY.

1. Eat plenty of plain, wholesome food such as milk, eggs, meat, bread, vegetables, and fruit. The statements that acid fruits, onions, turnips, and some other fruits and vegetables should not be eaten by nursing mothers is incorrect. Speaking generally, the appetite of a nursing mother is a good guide.

2. Until one month of age feed the baby every two hours until 10 p. m., and once after that during the night; 1 to 3 months of age, every two and one-half hours from 6 a. m. till 6 p. m., and at 10 p. m. and 2 a. m.; 3 to 4 months of age, every three hours from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m., and twice at night; over 4 months of age, every four hours from 6 a. m. to 6 p. m., and once at night. Do not wean her until the latter part of next spring.

3. During July, August, and September in a slip and diaper.

MISSES EVERY THIRD BEAT.

Sufferer writes: "1. What causes my heart to miss every third beat? 2. Is this serious? 3. What is a good tonic for this? 4. Is it a disease? 5. Is it curable? P. S. —I have had these symptoms for three months."

REPLY.

1. Perhaps you smoke too much. There is some cause. Your physician will find it.
2. In some instances, yes.
3. You should not take a tonic or any other medicine until you know what is causing the trouble. For instance, you may need to stop smoking. If so, why take a tonic?
4. It is a sympton, but it may indicate a disease.
5. In most cases, yes.

POOR JUDGMENT.

H. R. writes: "Will you please inform me whether sodium bicarb. 10 gs., calcined magnesia 5 grs. mixed and taken five or six times a day for pain in stomach is a good thing. My brother has been taking these powders for four months and would like to know what you think of this treatment for pain in stomach after eating."

REPLY.

It is poor judgment to continue taking an alkaline mixture five or six times a day for several months. He should change his diet, or find out the cause of his trouble and remedy it.

RESUSCITATION.

E. W. K. writes: "Permit me to thank you for your illuminating article on 'Resuscitation.' It was instructive to a degree. But I nowhere find any reference to the length of time artificial respiration should be kept up before abandoning hope. Will you kindly give me some light on that point and greatly oblige."

REPLY.

It is not often possible to revive a person who has not breathed for five minutes. After ten minutes it is impossible. Then say keep up artificial respiration for at least fifteen minutes after breathing has stopped. That allows leeway for mistakes.

LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY

[Copyright: 1916: By the Brentwood Co.]

EMPEROR WILLIAM has just been placed in mourning by the death of his brother-in-law, Prince Adolf of Schaumberg-Lippe, who has not fallen on the field of battle, but who has succumbed to aneurism of the heart, at Bonn, on the Rhine.

The late Prince was an amiable, good looking, but insignificant man, who after having been placed by the kaiser in a false position, became the subject of a quarrel extending over several years, that had the effect of irritating the rulers and the people of every non-Prussian state of Germany against the kaiser.

The latter, instead of blaming himself for the matter, ever afterwards bore a grudge against the unlucky Prince Adolf, who was made to feel it in many different ways, and whose existence was not precisely rosy, most of the kaiser's underlings taking their cue from him in their more or less contemptuous treatment of poor Prince Adolf.

The way that the prince came to marry the emperor's sister deserves to be recalled here. Princess Victoria of Prussia was engaged to be married to the late Prince Alexander of Battenberg, when ruler of Bulgaria. But as Alexander was in the blackest books of the late czar, Prince Bismarck, and also the present kaiser (then Prince William) opposed the match for fear of giving offense to the court of Petrograd.

Then Prince Alexander lost the throne of Bulgaria and the match seemed more than ever objectionable to Bismarck. But Princess Victoria, who was of a romantic turn of mind, became still more insistent on marrying Prince Alexander, who was one of the handsomest men of his day, and appealed to her grandmother to help her in the matter.

Finally it was arranged that the marriage should take place privately at Windsor castle, under the auspices of Queen Victoria, instead of at Berlin—the present kaiser, who had meanwhile succeeded to the crown, being unwilling to countenance the union.

A few days before the date appointed for the wedding the courts of London and Berlin, and in fact of every monarchical nation in Europe, were startled by the news that Prince Alexander had deliberately jilted the kaiser's sister and had just married at Mentone Johanna Loisinger, a Hessian actress, whose parents were domestic servants, but who was a woman of remarkable beauty.

Prince Alexander seems to have realized that of the two women the actress was far the more fascinating, Princess Victoria being the least attractive of any of the kaiser's sisters. Moreover, he realized that by marrying Princess Victoria in defiance of the wishes of her brother and of Bismarck, who was still in office, he would place himself in a more awkward position than if he escaped from the predicament in which he had placed himself by marrying some one else.

While Bismarck rejoiced over the denouement, the kaiser was deeply affronted at the idea of one of his sisters being thus jilted on the eve of her wedding day, and, looking upon himself as partly responsible for the slight to which she had been subjected, sought to efface it by marrying her as quickly as possible to Prince Adolf of Schaumberg-Lippe, who had been one of his boyhood friends, regimental messmates, and chief cronies prior to his accession to the throne. The marriage took place in the following year and it remained childless.

Neither Prince Adolf nor his wife was particularly well off and Emperor William therefore undertook to look after their interests. So when he learned that the aged Prince Waldemar, ruler of Lippe, was dying, leaving as his next heir a hopelessly demented brother named Alexander, he induced the moribund prince to sign a decree vesting the regency of the principality in Adolf of Schaumberg-Lippe.

On Waldemar's demise Prince Adolf was established by the emperor with the assistance of two or three regiments of Prussian soldiers as regent of Lippe, in the face of the protests of the legislature of Lippe and of those of Count Ernest of Lippe, who as next after the demented Prince Alexander in the line of succession was entitled to the regency. Prince and Princess Adolf, therefore, secured possession through the kaiser's military forces not only of the de facto sovereignty of Lippe but also of the vast estates and immense wealth of the reigning house of Lippe.

The kaiser took the position that Count Ernest was disqualified by the fact that his grandmother, instead of belonging to a sovereign house, was a mere member of the lower German nobility, named Modeste von Unruhe.

In 1904 Count Ernest died without having been able to secure his rights. The fight for these was taken up by his eldest son, Count Leopold, who was still more objectionable in the emperor's eyes owing to the fact that his grandmother was an American girl, a native of Philadelphia. She was a German-American, her parents being a Mr. and Mrs. Halbach-Bohlen, who had emigrated shortly after their marriage to this country, where they secured letters of naturalization and settled in the Quaker city. They were members of the same family as Hans Halbach-Bohlen, who through his marriage with Bertha Krupp has become the head of the great gun making and iron and steel works at Essen, known by the name of Krupp.

Count Leopold, like his father, was subjected to all kinds of public affronts by the kaiser, who actually went so far as to forbid the officers of the Prussian regiments stationed in the principality to acknowledge the bows or to salute the Countesses of Lippe, while on one occasion, when Count Leopold sent the kaiser a telegram, the latter caused him to be publicly notified, through the Berlin Official Gazette, that he, the kaiser, did not desire to entertain any kind of communication with Count Leopold save through the chancellor of the empire.

Eventually the question as to the right of Count Leopold to the regency of Lippe was brought before a court of arbitration, presided over by the late King Albert of Saxony.

The king and his fellow arbitrators decided in favor of Count Leopold and the insane Prince Alexander having meanwhile died in a lunatic asylum, Count Leopold, with the assent of the Supreme court of the empire, assumed the throne of Lippe as Prince Leopold IV., the kaiser's brother-in-law, Adolf of Schaumberg, being obliged to surrender not only the regency but also all immense entailed property of the reigning house of Lippe.

FACILITIES OF PUBLIC LIBRARY

Chicago, July 29.—[To the Friend of the People.]—The Chicago public library, which is supported by taxpayers' money, announced that on April 1, 1916, there would be a catalogue of all books acquired from 1911 to 1915. Later on the date was changed to May 1, and now it is impossible even to secure information as to when the catalogue in question will come out. The Chicago public library is famous for the confusion which characterizes its catalogues. No other institution of the kind presents so many difficulties for tracing a book of any kind. I believe that the public is entitled to better service, which can be possible to obtain by substituting for the rule of disorder which now prevails a rule of order and precision.

AIROLI GIGLIOTTI.

Two parts of the five year cumulation of titles in this library have appeared. The third and concluding part will be out, we trust, within the month. The manuscript has been completed for some time, but it is not always possible to count on exact dates when a job of this kind is going through the press. Permit us to add that the public card catalog is absolutely up to date and continues so from day to day. If any one finds difficulty in tracing a book, a simple inquiry will meet with personal attention.

NOTIFIED TO ABATE NUISANCE.

Chicago, July 29.—[To the Friend of the People.]—In the rear of the restaurant at 4736 North Racine avenue there is a portable kitchen with an iron stove pipe reaching just a little above the roof. In the warm weather we must keep our back doors and windows open, and the smoke and kitchen odors are a great nuisance, when the wind blows in our direction. Can you help us?

M. K. D.

Some nuisance exists by reason of the fact that the chimney does not carry off the restaurant odor, and appropriate order was issued for the abatement of the nuisance.

MUST DISCONTINUE DUMPING.

Chicago, July 28.—[To the Friend of the People.]—I wish to call your attention to the condition of the alley under the south side elevated back of Calumet avenue, between Fiftieth and Fifty-first streets. They clean the paved portion, but the balance is in bad condition, especially near Fifty-first, in rear of delicatessen. I would like to see this block cleaned up, as it is full of rotten fruit, broken bottles, and attracts many flies.

S. L. CORT, 5026 Calumet avenue.

Small storekeepers on Fifty-first street from alley to Calumet avenue have been notified to stop practice of placing rubbish under the elevated structure, which is private property. The alley proper is cleaned once each week.

NEED NOT MAINTAIN FENCE.

Chicago, July 26.—[To the Legal Friend of the People.]—The writer is owner of a house and lot. The adjoining lot on the east side is vacant. The fence on the east side of my lot is a wreck, made so by owners of teams parking their wagons on lot, and backing up against the fence. That fence, as do all lines of fence on east side lots on that side of street, property belongs to the owner of the vacant lot. Does the fact of his lot being vacant relieve him from requirement of maintaining a fence between his and my lots? The east line of his lot is on an alley.

W. H. B.

Your neighbor cannot be compelled to maintain the fence. If you are dissatisfied with its condition you must repair it yourself or induce him to do so.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

DOESN'T COMPLAIN OF CAMP LIFE.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Your correspondent, F. Arnold, protests against the terrible times the soldiers are having at old San Antone and wondering why patriotism exists in the face of conditions there existing. I don't know where this gentleman gets his facts. A young sergeant of Company E, Second Illinois infantry, in whom I am greatly interested, advises me that the food is abundant, clean, wholesome, and well cooked.

Does Arnold get anything better than that? He also asserts that the camps are clean and in an admirably sanitary condition; that the medical attendance is perfect; that the amount of sickness is less than it would be among the same number of men in Chicago; that the clothing is well adapted to the climate and service; and that nearly all equipment, except such as congress has neglected to provide, is well suited to the needs of the army.

The men are high hearted and patriotic, perform their duties without complaint, and look forward to the future in the serene confidence of power. They desire no weak, puling sentimentality from your correspondent. They expect appreciation and they will try to deserve it.

EDWARD MAHER,
Formerly Captain, Company D, Second Infantry, Illinois National Guard.

CALL THE DUNES RILEY'S PLAYGROUND.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Why not make the so-called "Mystery Lady of the Dunes" secretary of the recently launched effort for making of a part of this region a midwestern national park? Also, why not call this park Riley's playground, in honor of the great Hoosier poet? We all know that the entire middle west needs, and will continue to need, more and more each year, a great national park and playground at the southern end of Lake Michigan, in the very heart of the dunes region. We all know, too, that the right time to cinch this project is now.

I have not the slightest idea who this "mystery lady" may be, but I do feel fairly certain that her romantic personality and invaluable experience gained through a genuine interest in that locality should fit her for becoming, logically, the secretary of this national park and playground enterprise. By coupling her personal interest and experience in this region with the idea of creating a suitable national memorial to James Whitcomb Riley within the borders of his own beloved Indiana, it seems to me that securing this magnificent national playground in the dunes region could quickly be made an accomplished fact.

BOARD OF VESSEL SAFETY REPORT.

Chicago, Aug. 3.—[Editor of The Tribune.]—Your recent article on the Eastland brings to mind the fact that the word "stability" does not occur in the government rules for the inspection of lake vessels. The only practical way in which the stability of any vessel can be determined under varying conditions of load is by means of an inclining experiment and the data secured from the same scientifically worked up to a final result, and this can only be done by a qualified naval architect with experience along this line. The government steamboat inspectors cannot be expected to make calculations for which they never have been trained.

The city council on July 26, 1915, passed an ordinance appropriating funds for the investigation of the Eastland disaster and the creation of a commission under the committee on harbors, wharves, and bridges to conduct the same, and also to investigate the stability of all passenger carrying vessels out of this port. This commission, known as the "technical board of vessel safety," comprised the ablest men who could be secured in Chicago for this purpose.

The report of the board shows that twenty-three steamers were inclined and calculations completed on fourteen of them, the work then being discontinued by order of the commissioner of public works. Unfortunately, the Eastland, then being in the hands of the Supreme court, no data could be obtained from it, thereby precluding a scientific investigation of its condition.

In its report, an abstract of which appeared in your columns under date of April 8, last, the board makes valuable suggestions for the improvement of the federal steamboat inspection service and outlines a plan for its reconstruction which changes, if carried into effect by congress, would prevent any recurrence of such disasters.

LOVE NOTES ADD TO WOE OF MAN HELD WITH GIRL

Wife of Wilkens Reads Rival's Burning Letters and Plans to Get Divorce.

New York, Aug. 3.—[Special.]—Mrs. Martha Wilkens, wife of George Wilkens, bookkeeper for the Englewood Country club, who is under arrest in Chicago charged with being a fugitive from justice, today was put in possession of love letters written to her husband by Miss Helen Calhoun, the 19 year old girl with whom Wilkens fled from New York. When Mrs. Wilkens glanced over the correspondence she announced that she would immediately bring action against her husband for divorce.

When Wilkens is brought back to Englewood he will face a variety of charges. His wife has a warrant charging desertion, the Country club officials want him arrested for taking $1,000 of the club's funds, and the father who has gone to Chicago to get his daughter, announced that he would have the "anti-white slave act used against him."

Love Letters in Safe.

The love letters found in the safe of the country club show that Wilkens had been keeping company and corresponding with Miss Calhoun since last November. Helen Calhoun is the daughter of J. Frederick Calhoun of the Bronx and employed by the city as a tax searcher. Wilkens' wife is a tall, attractive blonde, 20 years old. They have a 2 year old son.

The Wilkenses have been married for three years, and Mrs. Wilkens had no occasion to doubt her husband until his disappearance on July 4. The couple made their home in rooms at the country club.

Girl a Milliner's Model.

Helen Calhoun prior to her disappearance was a milliner's model. Her letters to Wilkens tell of how she first fell in love with his handwriting. The notes are filled with burning messages of love. She was also extremely fond of automobiling and, time after time, she uses the words "honk, honk," as exclamations. In a letter written to Wilkens two days before the elopement, Helen wrote:

"I broke my glass case last night and I suppose now there will be seven years of bad luck."

In another letter Helen indicted a poem to Wilkens. She wrote:

If happiness were mine to give
I'd give it all to you
To last the whole year through.

Discusses Her Family.

In another letter she discussed her family. She wrote:

"I suppose you think the family are strict but you guess wrong. I can usually do as I please."

The letter then went on to tell how one morning at 3 o'clock when Wilkens had taken Helen home that Mrs. Calhoun had leaned out of a window and cautioned her daughter not to make any noise that would arouse her father.

Mrs. Wilkens said today that on the day her husband disappeared he had asked her to go to New York with him, but she had refused. She cannot understand his asking her to accompany him unless he had relented on his plan to elope and wished to take his wife to New York and confess to her about his shortage with the country club.

FATHER TAKES HER BACK.

Helen Calhoun was taken back to her home last night by her father. Calhoun broke down when he saw his daughter behind the bars in the South Clark street annex and refused to make a statement further than to say he was going to give her another chance.

The young woman also refused to make an extended statement.

"Just tell the public that I am going to be good," she said.

DENIES BOAST COST LIFE.

Father Asserts Drowned Youth Made No Claim He Could Stay Under Water Five Minutes.

Earl Davis, Chicago student drowned in Keeler lake, near Dowagiac, Mich., on July 31, did not meet his death, as reported, through a boast that he could stay under water five minutes, according to his father, L. K. Davis of 6430 South Sangamon street.

"My son swam out alone," Mr. Davis said. "He was seized with cramps and sank before help came."

DIES SEEKING ICE

Girl of Nine Reaching Into Wagon Fatally Hurt as Horses Start.

Ethel Curwin, 9 years old, of 123 West Erie street, was hot and thirsty after romping and playing yesterday. She did not crave fancy ices or frappes, for she was not accustomed to them; all she wanted was a little relief from the heat and something to cool her burning cheeks. So when an ice wagon rounded the corner of La Salle street, Ethel jumped for joy. Leaving her little sister on the steps of the porch, she rushed out to satisfy her modest desire.

As she was reaching into the wagon from the step the horses started with a jerk and the girl was thrown violently backward on the street. She was picked up unconscious by R. B. Brundage of the Clarendon hotel, who took her to the Passavant hospital in his auto.

Her skull was fractured and she died soon after.

BUSINESS MEN JUMP INTO FRAY FOR COL. LOWDEN

D. R. Forgan Heads Organization to Boost G. O. P. Candidate for Governor.

Five hundred Chicago business men lined up yesterday behind the candidacy of Col. Frank O. Lowden for the Republican nomination for governor. At an enthusiastic meeting held in the roof garden of the Hotel La Salle an organization was perfected and arrangements were made to launch the Chicago campaign for Col. Lowden.

David R. Forgan was elected president, Gordon A. Ramsay secretary, and Charles G. Dawes treasurer of the Frank O. Lowden Business Men's association, with the following vice presidents: John V. Farwel, George M. Reynolds, Frank W. Gunsaulus, Charles G. Dawes, Arthur Dixon, John F. Smulski, Edgar A. Bancroft, Wallace Heckman, Alexander H. Revell, Samuel M. Felton, Arthur D. Bevan, and W. D. Fenton.

Lowden Resolution Adopted.

The speakers included Mr. Bancroft, Mr. Smulski, and Frank H. Funk, Progressive nominee for governor in 1912. The following resolution was passed:

"Frank O. Lowden, during the many years he was a resident of this city, impressed himself strongly upon its professional and business life. As a business lawyer and as an active business man he demonstrated high ability and achieved a reputation for honesty, breadth and fairness of dealing throughout the entire community.

"In our belief he combines in a marked degree the executive and administrative qualities demanded in the first place of government in a great agricultural, commercial, and industrial state such as ours.

"His unusual experience in business, agriculture, and law, his honorable and useful service in congress, his acquaintance with and knowledge of his fellow citizens gained by contact in an active and energetic life, fit him for duty as a governor of wise, correct, and constructive action.

Praise His Independence.

"He has been independent and courageous in his public expressions and in his public positions. We know where he stands on all important public questions.

"In 1895, he was active in the campaign which resulted in the passage of the city civil service law of that year and its adoption by Chicago by a majority of over 50,000 votes.

"In Congress, he introduced and secured a favorable report on a bill to put the federal diplomatic and consular service on a merit basis, a cause in which the business men of Chicago have been greatly interested for many years. The development of foreign commerce depends upon the skill and training of those in the consular service which this measure was designed to effect.

"Be it resolved, as business men of Chicago, that we commend to its citizens his candidacy and pledge him our earnest and active support."

PULL WAGON OFF VIADUCT.

John Ryan of 4834 Langley avenue and George Goetz of 932 West Thirty-seventh street were slightly injured yesterday when a team of horses they were driving ran away. The horses pulled the wagon through the railing of a viaduct and fell to the tracks of the Soo line railroad, a distance of twenty-five feet.

BOUND BRIDE LOCKED IN ROOM STILL A MYSTERY.

Detectives Unable to Learn How Young Woman, Near Death from Gas, Was Imprisoned.

What happened to Mrs. Josephine Miller, a 22 year old bride, in her room at 1436 West Adams street yesterday? Detectives spent the day trying to find out, but at night confessed they couldn't make head or tail of the affair.

The young woman was found on the floor in the morning, her hands tied behind her back, her feet bound with cords and held by another rope to the leg of a table, and a white rag, passed under her chin and over her head, serving as a gag. Gas from a heater on the table had made her unconscious.

Mrs. Thomas Dent, who conducts the rooming house, said Mrs. Miller had been "brooding" since Monday, when her husband disappeared after telling her he had been accused of theft in Blue Island. But Ambulance Physician Isaac H. Holloway, who revived her with an oxygen machine, said it didn't look like a case of suicide.

"I don't see how she could possibly have bound herself like that," he declared. "Moreover, the door of the room was locked on the outside."

Mrs. Miller lapsed into unconsciousness after being taken to the county hospital and could make no statement.

DE VRY TO GET ARMADILLO.

Corporal Simmes, Serving on Border, to Send Captured Animal to Zoo.

An armadillo, which was captured by Corporal Simmes, a Chicago soldier on the border, will be added to the Lincoln park zoo. Cy De Vry said last evening that he received a letter from Corporal Simmes telling him of the capture and of his intention to send the animal to Chicago.

"I will certainly accept the armadillo," Mr. De Vry said. "We had some of them in the zoo, but they died lately."

Boy Hit by Interurban.

William Keller, 14 years old, of 5136 West Fifty-fourth court, narrowly escaped death yesterday when he was struck by a Chicago and Joliet electric car near Argo, Ill. He is at the Argo hospital.

OLD DISTILLERY PLANT SOLD AT AUCTION TODAY

Phœnix Holding at Cortland Street and North Branch Goes Under Hammer.

The old Phœnix Distillery company's plant at Cortland street, formerly Clybourn place and the north branch of the Chicago river will be offered at judicial sale at the auction rooms of the Chicago real estate board this morning at 11 o'clock. The property has a north frontage on Cortland street of 317 feet with a depth of 390 feet and 400 feet of dock frontage.

The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road tracks are on the south end of the property. It comprises altogether about 110,000 square feet and was appraised at $150,000. There are old improvements of no value on the property. The sale will be conducted by Master in Chancery James V. O'Donnell. Former Judge Petit is attorney for the complainant.

Outside Business Property Brisk.

Several good sized deals in outside business and flat properties were among the more important features of the day's business. One of these covered the property at the northwest corner of Montrose and Sacramento avenues, which was sold by James Goggin, May Raskin, and Abe Welch to Pasquale and Carmela Schivone for a reported consideration of $68,000, subject to an incumbrance of $48,000.

The lot fronts 84 feet on Montrose avenue and 125 feet on Sacramento avenue and is improved with a three story building containing four stores on the ground floor and fourteen apartments on the upper floors.

Property Taken in Trade.

In part payment the purchasers conveyed the property at the northwest corner of Sixty-fifth street and Parnell avenue, improved with a nine apartment building, at a reported valuation of $20,000, subject to an incumbrance of $14,000; also the property at the southeast corner of Polk and Wood streets, improved with a building containing four stores and four flats at a reported valuation of $20,000, subject to $14,000 incumbrance, and the property at 834 South Ashland boulevard, improved with two flat buildings and a garage at a reported valuation of $14,000, subject to an incumbrance of $8,000.

The sellers were represented by James M. Bidwell of Bidwell & Hoyne, and the Schivones by Mr. Cohen of the Schivone Real Estate Investment company.

Bloom Buys in Ingleside Avenue.

Edward I. Bloom, the builder, has sold to Isaac Hirsch the high grade six apartment building at 5112-14 Ingleside avenue for a reported consideration of $35,000, subject to an incumbrance of $20,000. In part payment Mr. Hirsch conveyed the entire block of vacant on Yates avenue, extending from Eighty-first to Eighty-second streets, east front, at a reported consideration of $10,000. Hugo Ash and David Harris were the brokers.

Edward M. Bertha has purchased from Leon J. Harris the new six apartment building of five rooms and sun parlor at 5511-15 University avenue for a reported consideration of $26,500, subject to an incumbrance of $16,500. The sale was negotiated by Keller & Harris.

Fargo Avenue Lot Sold.

The three story nine apartment building at 1626-30 Fargo avenue, between North Ashland avenue and Paulina street, has been sold by Peter Fuhs to W. P. Spink for a reported consideration of $32,000, subject to an incumbrance of $18,000. Mr. Spink conveyed in part payment the brick store and flat building at 3414 Ogden avenue for a reported consideration of $12,000, clear. George J. Jank & Co. and Krause, Beak & Co. were the brokers.

The four story and basement building at 319-23 West Division street, just west of Moore street, lot 75x100 feet, and the two story building a 1146 Moore street on a lot 25x100 feet, now being remodeled have been leased by Sidney S. Date to the Real Food Products company for a reported term rent of $60,000. The buildings will be used for the manufacture and wholesaling of food products.

Wolbach Purchases Vacant.

Murray Wolbach has purchased from C. A. Barker the vacant property at the northeast corner of Yates avenue and Seventy-second street, 98x289 feet, for an indicated consideration of $13,000. It is stated that Mr. Wolbach has no plans looking to the improvement of the property.

Record has been made of the transfer by court decree of the Illinois property of the Chicago and Milwaukee Electric Railroad company to the Chicago, North Shore and Milwaukee Railroad company. The transfer has affixed to it $1,200 worth of revenue stamps, with the statement the transfer is subject to trust deeds, amount not stated.

Scientist Church Gets Loan.

The Eleventh Church of Christ, Scientist, has given a trust deed to Foreman Bros. Banking company to secure a loan of $100,000, five years, at 5 per cent. It is on the property at the northwest corner of Logan boulevard and Mozart street, 95x125 feet.

The New England Mutual Life Insurance company has made a loan of $72,000, ten years, at 4½ per cent, on the property at the northwest corner of Hamlin avenue and Iowa street, 174x125 feet; Avers avenue, northwest corner of Iowa street, 158x125 feet, and the southeast corner of the same streets, 35x125 feet.

Realty Men Hold Outing.

The outing of the Edgewater and Rogers Park Real Estate Men's association yesterday at "The House That Jack Built," Milwaukee avenue and the Desplaines river, was a decided success. About seventy-five automobiles took part in the parade, which started a little after 9 o'clock from a point near Devon avenue and Broadway, after which the party headed for the outing place.

A chicken dinner was served, after which a program of sports and games was run off. North side merchants contributed many prizes for victors in the various contests.

The Lady of the Lake

Kindly old Mme. Michigan Lake, during the recent unprecedented torridity, took hundreds of thousands of Chicagoans in her embrace and just naturally saved their lives.

Her protege, Miss L. Breeze, was truant and strayed away to parts unknown for a couple of weeks, but Mme. Lake herself bestowed her soothing caresses upon her stricken constituents at all hours of day and night.

And this year common sense is ruling in the matter of bathing garb. The fair sex is accorded the same freedom of dress as the men, which permits of much more fun and exercise in the water.

A charming group of lake nymphs, chosen from the beauties seen at the various beaches, is picturized in a double page in the rotogravure section of

A Word to Our Customers —Present and Prospective

BORDEN'S

ON APRIL 21st we increased the price of milk in quart bottles to nine cents.

The additional charge was absolutely necessary to the maintenance of the Borden Standard — the only standard we know, and the only standard, we believe, that should be acceptable to you.

This movement on our part was met by the consumer with a protest that took shape in loss of business to us.

At the time, we stated the reasons for the increase. We printed in the newspapers of Chicago full, frank statements of the cost of delivering milk in the city and the amount involved in the increased price to the producer for the raw product.

You discounted these statements, more or less, as we rather feared you would; but the fact remains that they were full, frank and complete, and told the whole story.

Many of you stopped taking Borden's milk.

At first the losses were large.

For a time the situation was discouraging.

It was especially discouraging to the salesman on the wagon who had to lose many customers he had been serving for years.

But we knew that to sell milk at eight cents a quart was to mislead you as to the value of a bottle of Borden's Milk.

We knew that to sell milk at a loss was unfair to the producer, to the employees of the company, and to the company itself.

We knew that it was unfair to the consumer to do anything that would weaken the Borden Milk Service or tend to relax, in any way, the Borden Standard. So we raised the price and took our medicine—and bitter medicine it was.

Our losses continued up to a month ago.

Then the gains began to offset the losses.

And now we are gaining in volume.

Our customers are coming back.

We never doubted for a minute but that you would be with us again, and we are glad to receive this expression of confidence.

We believe that we are better able to take care of your milk needs than any other milk service open to you.

We believe that we serve the best bottle of milk sold in Chicago.

And we say these things with a full, comprehensive knowledge of the whole milk situation.

To know that the milk on your table has been produced and handled with a full regard for your love of cleanliness, should be a source of satisfaction to you every time you drink a glass of Borden's Milk.

To know that it comes from healthy cows housed in clean barns and is properly pasteurized, should make you want more of this wholesome, safe, health-giving milk.

Summer is here.

This is the time of the year that makes milk handling doubly difficult.

Why not be sure of your supply and get milk that you know is right? Why take chances with uncertain milk?

RAILROAD WAGES

Shall they be determined by Industrial Warfare or Federal Inquiry?

To the American Public:

Do you believe in arbitration or industrial warfare?

The train employes on all the railroads have voted whether they will give their leaders authority to tie up the commerce of the country to enforce their demands for a 100 million dollar wage increase.

The railroads are in the public service—your service. This army of employes is in the public service—your service.

You pay for rail transportation 3 billion dollars a year, and 44 cents out of every dollar from you goes to the employes.

On all the Western railroads in 1915, seventy-five per cent of the train employes earned these wages (lowest, highest and average of all) as shown by the pay rolls—

	Range	Average	Range	Average	Range	Average
Engineers	$1747 3094	$2195	$1537 3076	$2071	$1056 2445	$1378
Conductors	1543 2789	1878	1454 2933	1935	1151 2045	1355
Firemen	1053 2078	1317	751 2059	1181	418 1552	973
Brakemen	854 1719	967	874 1961	1135	862 1821	1107

The average yearly wage payments to all Western train employes (including those who worked only part of the year) as shown by the 1915 payrolls were—

Engineers	$2038	$1737	$1218
Conductors	1772	1624	1292
Firemen	1218	973	832
Brakemen	921	1000	1026

A 100 million dollar wage increase for men in freight and yard service (less than one-fifth of all employes) is equal to a 5 per cent advance in all freight rates.

The managers of the railroads, as trustees for the public, have no right to place this burden on the cost of transportation to you without a clear mandate from a public tribunal speaking for you.

The railroads have proposed the settlement of this controversy either under the existing national arbitration law, or by reference to the Interstate Commerce Commission. This offer has been refused by the employes' representatives.

Shall a nation-wide strike or an investigation under the Government determine this issue?

WHY COMMISSION SHOULD EXAMINE RAILROAD LABOR

Business Man Thinks the Public Should Have Real Facts to Avert a Strike.

The railroad controversy, it is generally believed, is nearing the stage where there must be a backdown on the part of the railroad managers or the unions if a strike is to be avoided. The subjoined article sets forth the conclusions and arguments being urged by the business interests of the country working for a full investigation of the question by the interstate commerce commission.

BY A CHICAGO BUSINESS MAN.

The joint resolution now before congress delegates to the interstate commerce commission the task of immediately investigating "the minimum, maximum and average wage paid, with hours of service, to each class of railroad employes in the United States, and, insofar as they are comparable, the minimum, maximum and average wage and hours of service in other industries where similar skill and risk are involved; the relation of wages to railroad revenues; the question of whether railroad revenues based on existing rates for transportation will admit equally favorable terms to all classes of railroad employes, and any other matter in this connection that the commission may deem relevant."

The joint resolution further requests that the parties to the controversy defer any action which they may have in mind until this investigation can be completed and the report submitted to congress.

Purpose of Resolution.

The reasons lying back of this resolution may be stated as follows: The demands of the brotherhoods are fundamental inasmuch as they constitute a new basic day and a new method of computing overtime. If these principles are proper for one group of railroad employes, it may be claimed that they are also applicable to all other groups. There are 1,750,000 men in railroad service, while only a little over 300,000 of these are in the train service, and, therefore, back of the demands in question.

The statistics put out by both sides to the controversy are distinctly contradictory in the matter of wages earned, hours of labor, and other conditions. There seems to be no doubt, however, that in comparison with other groups of railroad labor the members of the brotherhoods receive the highest average pay, and this is not stated either for or against their contentions, because pay must always be predicated upon the importance of the task and the hours of service.

The fact that the basic day fundamentally changes the present railroad situation is the all-important thing, and the public, which ultimately must assume to pay whatever marked increases are given railroad employes, have a right to know just how much the railroad bill would be increased.

Free of Politics.

The interstate commerce commission is the only body that can make such an inquiry with a result acceptable to the railroad employes, the roads themselves, and the general public. Any special commission might be more or less tinged with politics. There is no other subject now before the commission which ranks in importance so high as averting a tie-up of our freight transportation.

WANT BEACH AT WAVELAND.

Residents Petition Lincoln Park Commissioners to Furnish Bathing Facilities.

The following petition, addressed to the Lincoln park commissioners, is being circulated in the Waveland avenue district:

We, the undersigned, citizens of the city of Chicago, and residents in the vicinity of Waveland avenue, do humbly request that the beach at the foot of Waveland avenue be reopened and put in suitable condition for the use thereof with all possible haste, and in making said request we believe that the unanimous will of the citizens of the community is reflected thereby.

Former Private Banker Who Was Slain on Lonely Road in Michigan.

Henry Pontorno

Police of Chicago and Michigan authorities began a search yesterday for the two men who shot and killed Henry Pontorno, former Chicago banker, on a lonely road near Benton Harbor, Mich. In the meantime residents of the Italian section around Twenty-second street and Archer avenue are not mourning. They waited for a year to hear of the death of Pontorno. Many of them claim they lost sums ranging from $1 to several thousand when Pontorno closed his private bank after complaining to the police that he had been robbed by auto bandits. No surprise was expressed when news of the murder reached the quarter. The slaying is laid to the Mafia.

HOYNE SEES NO BOMB PLOT.

Belittles Theory Labor Revenge Caused Explosion at Home of Editor Liebling.

State's Attorney Hoyne made the statement yesterday that in his opinion the bomb explosion in the plant of the Jewish Daily Press Tuesday was not the result of labor difficulties or that it was caused by Julius Liebling, the publisher, testifying in the recent labor trial before Judge Scanlan.

"I don't believe the explosion had anything to do with labor," said the state's attorney. "I believe it resulted from a personal controversy. It should be said, however, that there is no evidence to this effect, nothing but suspicion.

"The investigation has not been dropped by this office, but I do not believe it will amount to anything."

time, the statute under which it exists permitting action only after the strike vote has been taken and a subsequent conference of the disputants has failed to effect an agreement.

He also explained that the labor department has nothing whatever to do with settlement of such a dispute, the board of mediation and conciliation being conceded sole authority in the case of disputes relative to the movement of trains.

Switchmen May Demand Raise.

New York, Aug. 3.—Demands of approximately 30,000 members of the Switchmen's Union of North America, for increased wages and shorter hours, made in Chicago in March, are being discussed here by representatives of the union and the railroads affected, it was learned tonight. The union is a member of the American Federation of Labor and has headquarters at Buffalo.

The railroads represented at the conference are the New York Central, Michigan Central, Lehigh Valley, Nickel Plate, Pere Marquette, Rock Island, Chicago and Eastern Illinois, Chicago Great Western, Soo, Elgin, Joliet and Eastern, Cincinnati, New Orleans and Western, Texas Pacific, Baltimore and Ohio and the Delaware Lackawanna and Western.

Nearly 300,000 Want Strike.

Seventy per cent of the ballots cast by more than 400,000 railroad employés of the United States in the vote on a general strike had been counted this afternoon. Timothy Shea, assistant president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, in charge of the work, declared that of these 300,000 almost all favored a strike.

The count will not be completed, Mr. Shea said, until Monday of next week. If the strike vote is concluded by that time, Mr. Shea said, the leaders of the railroad brotherhoods, reinforced by the authority of the strike vote, will resume negotiations with the railroad managers on Tuesday.

W. S. Stone, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and Mr. Shea declined to discuss the appeal made to President Wilson by the chamber of commerce of the United States to intervene in the situation.

PROTEST AGAINST STRIKE.

More opposition to a general railroad strike likely to result from the demands of the four train service brotherhoods appeared yesterday, when the railroads uncovered a movement, started in Nashville on the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad, to line up the unorganized 80 per cent of the railroad workers for arbitration.

R. T. Frazier, a draftsman for the railroad, is leading the move and transferred his headquarters to Chicago yesterday for a general canvass of the western railroads. He claims to have secured 5,000 signatures among the N., C. and St. L. employés in four days' work.

The appeal, headed, "An Appeal of the 80 Per Cent," will be loosened in Chicago to general circulation among the unorganized railroad forces.

A. LIGHT LIGHTS IN CITY AGAIN AND UNSHEATHS PEN.

Troubled Thespian Declares He's "Boycotted," and Tells of Convincing Judge of Ability.

Alexander Light, director of the Light & Wilks Shakespearean company, is here in town and he swings his pen as follows:

"The merchants' association having an agreement not to advertise in theatrical programs throughout the country, since through years their secret agents have been picking on me and trying to induce my patrons to go back on me and falsely arrested me several times and I have always been found not guilty, it is about time that they should let me alone, so that I can continue my work.

"When I was arrested in Geneva county," continued Mr. Light, "I was taken before Judge Mazzini Slusser.

"State's Attorney Tyers said, 'I don't believe he is an actor.'

"His honor, the judge said, 'I am from Missouri and you got to show me.'

"Then I stood up and made this offer, that if, perchance, I fail in satisfying you of my ability, I begged them to go no further in the prosecution, but send me directly to Joliet. To this agreement they assented, and in private chambers I presented Shakespearean interpretations wherein the recitals brought tears to the eyes of auditors.

"His honor said a man of Mr. Light's ability should not be in jail, he is the real article."

FAVOR ROAD IN WINNETKA.

The Chicago-Milwaukee highway was indorsed yesterday by three more citizens of Winnetka, W. L. Kroeschell, A. S. Peabody, and Otto C. Butz. The Sheridan Road Improvement association regard the indorsements as further emphasizing the fact that opposition to the project rapidly is fading away, the only impediment to be found now in the movement coming from a few residents in Evanston, and it is believed they will shortly withdraw their objections.

"I heartily indorse this project," said Mr. Peabody, "and hope that all the villages along the north shore will cooperate to restore once again this main trunk line from Chicago."

"I am in favor of the improved Sheridan road for Winnetka," said Mr. Butz. "The improvement means a personal outlay upon myself of $500 for a new sewer alone, but I feel it is a worthy contribution and believe that other Winnetka residents feel the same, and that the village will surely pass the appropriation at the next election."

Our Daily Expense Bill Is $760,000

Every twenty-four hours it costs $760,000 to operate the New York Central Lines "for the public service."

It costs $351,000 every day for wages.

It costs $115,000 every day for interest.

It costs $255,000 every day for material, supplies, etc.

It costs $39,000 every day for taxes.

In addition a daily average of $110,000 has been expended for the last fifteen years (or a total of $600,000,000) for permanent improvements on the

To provide for the service demands of the future, large sums will be needed by all American railroads.

These sums must be provided from earnings, the issue of capital stock, or borrowed, and for railroads to borrow large sums or market their stock requires unquestioned credit.

By either method the funds can be secured only by co-operation of the public, which should see that railroads are granted fair rates, insured just regulation, equitable taxation and reasonable demands from labor.

The ability of all the railroads to continue to serve the public is the problem of the public quite as much as the problem of the railroads. A splendid railroad is the greatest industrial asset a community or state can possess

Welch's
The National Drink

These Be Thirsty Days

These be thirsty days indeed. But no matter. For Welch's solves the thirst problem. The hot weather season should remind you that natural thirst has a natural sequence—Welch's.

You should know Welch's and use it freely. Welch's has a delicious, tart, fruity flavor. Served "straight" or with water—plain or charged—it answers the craving that hot weather creates.

And Welch's is healthful. It's a natural tonic. It is not a concoction, not a make believe, but one of nature's inimitable products, pure and wholesome, for Welch's is the unchanged juice of premium-price Concords.

Welch's should be your favorite beverage—at home, at the fountain, at the office, at breakfast or luncheon, and on your outing. Keep a few bottles in the ice chest. It appeals to all the family.

Dealers recommend Welch's because they know it satisfies and repeats.

A one day open tournament for members of the Women's Western Golf association is scheduled at Indian Hill today.

Park Stars in City Tourney.

Although entries for the city amateur championship, which will start at Jackson park Monday, nominally closed last night, fully twenty-five more are expected by today's mails. This will bring the total to about 110.

Nearly all the leading public parks players are entered, among them being Harry Rautenbush, Murray Deming, George West, H. A. Smith, Walter Crowdus, C. Kinnucan, Staye Ryan, R. Shealy, W. Bone and J. H. Douglas.

LEGG FAVORITE FOR GOLF TITLE

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 3.—Two Minneapolis entries and two from Iowa will compete in the semi-finals of the championship flight at the transmississippi golf tournament tomorrow as the result of play in the third round.

Harry G. Legg of Minikhada club, Minneapolis, four time champion, came through today's thirty-six hole round with an easy victory over B. G. Guinand, Cedar Rapids, Ia., 9 and 8, and tonight the local player is a general favorite for the 1916 title which will be decided Saturday. Legg lead 3 up at the close of the first round.

Jaffray Victor, 6 and 5.

The other Minneapolis survivor of the third round was C. P. Jaffray, Minikhada, and he is paired with Legg for tomorrow's play. Jaffray defeated the Rev. Paul B. Talbott, Salina, Kas., 6 and 5.

James Hubbell of Des Moines and Carl Piepho, Cedar Rapids, were the other successful contestants. Hubbell won from George F. Piper Jr., Minneapolis, 3 and 2, and Piepho defeated John D. Cady, Rock Island, Ill., by the same score. At the close of the morning round Piepho was 1 up.

Mudge Wins Consolation.

In the consolation play the largest gallery followed the match between Dudley Mudge, Town and Country club, St. Paul, and J. K. Wentherby, Minneapolis. Mudge won, 8 and 7, displaying much better form than when he was eliminated from championship play yesterday.

WALTON LANDS MEDAL IN GALESBURG GOLF TOURNEY

Galesburg, Ill., Aug. 3.—[Special.]—The Scangataha club's first annual invitation golf and tennis tournament opened with 100 taking part in the golf qualifying rounds, in which Howard Walton, Champaign, won the gold medal for low score with a card of 77. Among those who took part in the three flights this afternoon were Burnett of Chicago, who defeated Jarl, Galesburg; Williams, Chicago, who defeated McIntyre, Chicago, first flight; Davis, Chicago, who defeated Goff, Galesburg, second flight, and Cherry, Chicago, who was defeated by Craig, Galesburg, third flight. Chick Evans of Chicago will be here tomorrow. Little tennis was played, due to wet weather, and the games went over until Friday.

BREEDERS OF PET STOCK HOLD ANNUAL ELECTION

The National Pet Stock Association of America held its annual election for 1916-17 at the rabbitry of Mead Mayhew, 3418 North Tripp avenue, yesterday. The association now has nearly 5,000 members. The following officers were elected:

Lewis Griffin, president, Colorado Springs, Colo.; George Eckert, first vice president, Chicago; T. F. Keeney, second vice president, Portland, Ore.; C. S. Gibson, national secretary, Detroit, Mich.; William E. Taylor, western secretary, Golden, Colo.; Dr. M. Matthies treasurer, Chicago.

A board of directors consisting of ten members residing in the various sections of the United States, was selected.

NINETY ENTRIES IN TENNIS MEET AT LAKE FOREST

BY KEENE GARDINER.

With ninety-odd entries, including some of the greatest stars of the country, already in, nominations for the annual western tennis championships will close at noon today with John C. Neely Jr., 16 South La Salle street. Drawings will be made this afternoon, and play will begin on the turf courts at the Onwentsia club tomorrow.

Matches in men's singles will open the tourney, although titles in men's and women's singles and doubles and mixed doubles will all be settled. The famous out of town players will be given until Monday to play their first round matches, although all local players will be defaulted if they do not show up.

Postpone Several Matches.

It would be impossible for National Champion Johnston, R. Norris Williams, R. Lindley Murray, Watson Washburn, Ward Dawson, Clarence Griffin, George M. Church, and others playing in the annual east-west championships at New York Aug. 4 and 5, to get to Lake Forest for the opening play, but most of them have promised to be on hand as soon as possible in return for the western association's consent to holding the east-west play on dates which conflict with the west's previous award by the national association.

Church, who won the western title last year, will not play through the tournament, but will defend his championship in the challenge round. Assurances that Maurice E. McLaughlin will play through the meet, and the entries of numerous stars from this section will insure a fast tournament.

Church to Defend Title.

The tourney will be conducted on a new plan this year. Competition will be limited to members of the western association, the National Lawn Tennis association, or affiliated clubs. One hundred and ten players are expected to take part, making one of the biggest fields in the history of the classic. The officials have directed their efforts toward getting the stars to enter and desired to keep the entries down rather than to boost the number of players.

FAVORITES LOSE IN PEORIA TROTS

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 3.—[Special.]—Heavy going and long drawn out races marked the third day of the Great Western circuit meeting, with favorites going down to defeat in nearly every instance.

Rain started falling as soon as the first heats of the three races staged had been run and upsets followed in the following trials. Light horses were forced to take the heels of the heavier racers when mud slowed up the track.

Sadye Denamore set a mark of 2:05¼ in the second heat of the free for all pace, the best time made this week. It was her last appearance as a winner for the day, however, as Shipmaster, who has shown good time before, came up from fourth position to straight wins. The 2 year old trot was postponed until tomorrow.

OWNER OF GOLF STORE ESCAPES OUIMET'S FATE

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 3.—[Special.]—Although Francis Ouimet and John H. Sullivan Jr., both members of the Woodland club, have been barred by the United States Golf association because of their affiliations with sporting goods houses, George A. Place of Concord, N. H., who won the title in 1911 and who is in the same line of business, received the following letter from President Woodward of the U. S. G. A.:

Denver, Colo., Jan. 22, 1916.—Dear Sir: Your undated letter regarding your amateur standing received. Thank you for bringing up the matter.

As I understand it you are the proprietor or owner of the business. Under these circumstances you are not violating the amateur rule, unless you are using your golf skill or prominence as a means of promoting your business. The statement in your letter indicates that you are not guilty in this respect, consequently as far as we are now advised you are violating no rule.

You are in the same situation as the heads of the firms of A. G. Spalding & Bros. and Wright & Ditson. Your employes, however, are to be considered as professionals. Of course, if you personally make or repair golf clubs for pay you are a professional. I am presuming, however, that you do not do this work yourself.

FRANK L. WOODWARD.

ANNEX SOUTHWEST DOUBLES

Dallas, Tex., Aug. 3.—George Wright and Bradley Hogue, both of Dallas, by defeating Arthur Seeligson of San Antonio and George V. Peak Jr. of Dallas, 6—2, 6—3, 6—0, in the doubles finals of the southwest district tennis tournament Monday, will entr the national tennis play at Chicago Aug. 12.

BYFORD IN FINAL FOR NORTHWEST SINGLES HONORS

Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 3.—Heath Byford of Chicago, Illinois state champion, went into the championship final of the northwestern tennis tournament at the Deephaven courts today by defeating Sidney Kinyon, Owatonna, Minn., 6—2, 6—1, 6—1.

The final match will be played on Saturday, because of the postponement until tomorrow of the semi-final between Setforde Stellwagen and John Adams, both of Minneapolis. Despite an injury sustained late yesterday, Adams played today in the doubles with Burton, Minneapolis, the pair defeating Kennedy and Furr, Minneapolis, 6—2, 6—2, 6—3, in the third round.

In the women's singles, Miss Lesley La Beaume, St. Louis, defeated Miss Edith Paradise, Chicago, 6—2, 6—2; Miss Marguerite Davis, St. Paul, won from Miss Joan Smith, Winnipeg, 6—1, 6—2, and Miss Alice Drake, St. Paul, beat Miss Evelyn Seavey, Kansas City, 6—0, 6—0. All three matches were in the second round.

LINDAUER SPRINGS UPSET IN MISSOURI NET MEET.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 3.—Al Lindauer of Chicago furnished the surprise of the Missouri state tennis tournament at the Kansas City Field club today when he eliminated Clifford Lockhorn of Kansas City, Missouri valley champion, in their fifth round match, 7—5, 6—1.

Lockhorn, with a series of notable victories behind him, was an easy favorite and was on his usual steady game. The Chicagoan, however, displayed the best tennis he ever has shown here and with careful placing of his shots took the match before the Kansas City star got started.

Another upset was the defeat of Eugene Monett of Norman, Okla., and Kenneth Uhls of Kansas City by Fred Williams of Kansas City and J. G. Cox of Springfield, Mo., in the first round of doubles.

E. A. Rice of St. Louis was outclassed by Jack Cannon of Kansas City in their fourth round match, 6—2, 6—2. Rice and C. S. Gregory of St. Louis met defeat in the second round of doubles from Harry Durall and Jack Lyttle of Kansas City, 6—3, 6—4.

LEADING NET STARS READY

New York, Aug. 3.—Eight of the first ten ranking tennis players of the country will compete in the east versus west matches which are to begin on the courts of the West Side Tennis club at Forest Hills, L. I., tomorrow. Maurice E. McLoughlin, No. 8, and W. Merrill Hall, No. 10, are the only members of the championship group who will not figure in the second annual struggle for court honors between the leading racquet experts of the Pacific and Atlantic coasts.

CONNING TOWER TAKES STAKE AT SARATOGA.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 3.—Conning Tower, Mrs. J. Schilling's veteran gelding, heavily backed from 3 to 1 to 2 to 1, won the Catskill stake of $1,500 today in a neck and neck finish with Lady Teresa.

Close finishes ruled in the earlier races. Hanson, a second choice at 3 to 1, just beat out Sandmarsh, the favorite, in the third.

The day marked the defeat of two high priced colts. John Sanford's Meteorite, for which he paid $12,000 as a yearling, and the $20,000 imported Mont D'Or II. both finished in the ruck.

SIXTEEN CLUBS AT REGATTA.

New York, Aug. 3.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen, which was held at the New York A. C. tonight, entries for the national regatta at Duluth, Friday and Saturday, Aug. 11 and 12, were announced. There were no Canadian entries among the sixty received for the program of thirteen events. Sixteen clubs are to be represented at the regatta, including the Lincoln Park Boat club of Chicago.

Two Majors Report to Louisville.

Toledo, O., Aug. 3.—Pitcher Ralph Stroud of the New York Giants and Catcher Joshua Billings of Cleveland reported today to Louisville.

Exhaust Echoes by J. C. Burton

Four more entries for the speedway grand prix that will be run on the Chicago track Aug. 19 were filed yesterday. Josef Christiaens, the Belgian, wired from New York that he and Frank Galvin would be on the starting line with the Sunbeams, one of which will carry a new aviation motor that just arrived from England. Fred Duesenberg also nominated two of his cars, naming Wilbur D'Alene and Tommy Milton as drivers.

Another scenic road through the Rocky mountains, the Spanish Trail-Grand Cañon highway, connecting Pueblo and Los Angeles and tapping Mesa Verde National park and the grand cañon of the Colorado, will be dedicated and opened to automobiles on Aug. 21, when a barbecue and good roads celebration will be held at Wolf Creek pass, at the top of the continental divide and two miles above sea level.

National touring week, which starts Sunday and continues for the following six days, has received the endorsement of the makers of the following automobiles and accessories: Apperson, Autocar, Cole, Crawford, Cunningham, Dixie, Dort, Empire, Franklin, Haynes, Hupmobile, King, Madison, Oakland, Oldsmobile, Paige-Detroit, Chalmers, Pierce-Arrow, Regal, Saxon, Studebaker, White, Champion spark plugs, Goodrich tires, Stromberg carburetors, and Timken axles.

To put Streator on the automobile touring map fifty motorists and good roads enthusiasts have organized the Streator Way association and now are soliciting funds to defray the expense of marking all the highways in the vicinity of Streator. They will concentrate their efforts on popularizing the Starved Rock route, which passes through Streator, Leanore and Lowell, and which the promoters claim is nine miles shorter than the Ottawa route, and the Chicago-Streator-Peoria highway, which is nineteen and one-half miles shorter than the Illinois valley way. In the vicinity of Streator this route has nine miles of convict built macadam and four miles of brick. Steel enameled signs will be used for marking and road maps will be published.

The Stewart-Warner Speedometer corporation of Chicago, maker of speedometers, vacuum feed systems, motor driven tire pumps and other automobile accessories, has purchased the business of the V-Ray company, Marshalltown, Ia., and hereafter will manufacture and market the V-Ray spark plug.

The first entries for the autumn meet to be held on the Indianapolis speedway on Sept. 9 have been received by General Manager T. E. Myers. The early birds for the Hoosier races are the two Pugeots that are being campaigned this season by Johnny Aitken and Charley Mers. The card will consist of three events, twenty, fifty and 100 miles in distance, and the Indianapolis promoters have asked the A. A. A. contest board to list the century race as an A. A. A. championship contest.

* *

Not only will the winner of the first race at the new Cincinnati speedway on Labor day, Sept. 4, draw down $12,000 and other material emoluments as his reward for victory, but he also will have his name inscribed in a new hall of fame which has been originated by General Manager Harry Shockley of the new track. This added honor takes the form of having one of the Hamilton county highways named after the winner of the race each year. Thus, if Resta or De Palma or Chandler or Oldfield or Aitken or Rickenbacher or any of the other thirty-odd starters participating in this year's race should win, his name immediately will be attached to one of the main roads of the county in which Cincinnati and the new track are located.

COX NAG LANDS MONEYED PACE IN EASY HEATS

Billy Dale Captures Feature at Kalamazoo—Trotting Contests Hard Fought.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Aug. 3.—Billy Dale, beautifully handled by Walter Cox, won the Burdick hotel purse of $2,000 for 2:16 pacers in straight heats today. The Cox horse was favorite in the feature of the afternoon's Grand Circuit races and was heavily played. At no time was he in serious danger.

The 2:16 trot went into four heats. Baby Doll captured the first mile easily. Then Tommy Murphy took the next three with Helen Worthy. Aullsbrook, the favorite, was out of form and failed to be inside the money.

Zombro Clay Takes 2:20 Trot.

The 2:20 trot was also a four heat race with Zombro Clay, favorite, winning the first, third, and fourth. Sister Sterling took the second, so that the Valentine family got a good share of the purse. Lowering clouds gathered during the afternoon and the last heat on the card was raced in a light rain.

The local meeting will close tomorrow with four races billed. The 2:16 trot is the headliner. Joan and Peter Scott are carded to oppose each other in this race.

GETS RECORD RIFLE MARK

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 3.—A new record for two consecutive full rifle matches under National Rifle association rules was announced Monday as having been made by W. G. Hansen of this city in the qualification trials for the Los Angeles team in the national rifle contest. The Los Angeles now holds the championship. Hansen, according to Secretary R. E. Crossman, made 243 July 23 and 243 yesterday. This equals the joint record of 243 for a single score, held by G. A. Wotkyns of Los Angeles, and a member of the Gimholt, Wis., team.

REAL FACTS ABOUT REELS.

QUADRUPLE multiplying reels suitable for casting range in price from $1 up to $50—you can go higher still if you want extras like aluminum spools.

The $1 reel we refer to is the Shakespeare Uncle Sam. Considering its low cost, it is a remarkable production—you can actually cast with it, which is more than can be said of other winches at a similar price. Ordinarily we do not advise such low cost tackle, but for the youngster, say, who simply must have a reel, the Uncle Sam will do nicely for a starter. The $50 product is the Talbot, Nos. 52, 53, and 54. Needless to say, it is a wonderful piece of work, rivaling in mechanical nicety the finest watch, so delicately adjusted, so finely geared that five grains will overcome its inertia.

Between the $1 and $50 reel most casters will find what they want. Beginners are often "scared stiff" by the reckless statements made by some angling writers that a reelly worth while reel fit for casting is impossible under $10 or $12—bunk, pure bunk. For example, the Tri-Part selling in Chicago for $2.65 is a real reel; so is the Precision at $2.50, and no doubt there are others.

A little higher in the scale we have the Takapart and the Service, selling at about $3.50—Ans Decker, one of the best casters in the country, uses a Takapart. At $4.50 you can get a Shakespeare Perfect—a German silver, take down, jeweled reel that is a "darb." We have one that has had hard use for seven years and it is still in good condition.

True, these low priced tools will not last for generations, like the high grade ones do, but they are good, serviceable reels, regardless of what the high brow angling writers say. The average once in a while caster will never feel the need of a better one, although the high grade reels are desirable if you can possibly raise the price, especialy if you fish often and hard.

QUESTIONS THEY ASK.

Chicago.—[To the Editor.]—[1] What is a good formula for preserving pork rind? [2] What is a dobson bait? [3] How should one fish for wall-eyed pike at this time of the year in lake? R. A.

Answers—[1] Four parts formalin to one of water will do, but home made pork strips are not a success. In fact, only one or two of the commercial strips are worth while. Chunks can be preserved in the same solution or in dry salt. [2] The larva of the horned corydalis, otherwise known as helgramite or grampus. [3] Troll just a foot or so off bottom; move the boat very slowly over spring holes if you know where they are; anchor as soon as you get a strike, as they congregate in numbers in favorable places.

Chicago.—[To the Editor.]—In your recent article on bamboo rods you state that these rods require care. Will you tell us briefly how to care for a bamboo rod? P. J.

Answer—When putting rod together rub ferrules alongside of nose or in hair to lubricate. With a rod of more than two pieces put butt and middle joint together first. Remove tip joint first in taking rod down. See that all guides are in line. Don't use rod for trolling without a reel. Pointing at bait and the strain is on the line. Don't stand rod in a corner; hang it up or lay it down flat. Wipe rod carefully when putting it away; also straighten tips with hands. Don't unjoint rod by twisting—pull in a straight line. Using one tip while other is hanging up to straighten is a good plan. Don't keep rod in a heated room. Replace all loose windings and give a coat of varnish every year.

MOSQUITO LAKE, WIS.

[Contributed by Ralph Scarritt.]

Mosquito lake is close to a chain of twenty-seven connected lakes in the Eagle waters, Oneida county, Wis. It is what is known as a "land locked" lake. For muskies and pickerel it is one of the best in this region. This chain of lakes is located 334 miles from Chicago on the C. & N. W. railroad, the fare for the round trip being $15.30.

Upon the arrival at the town of Three Lakes arrangements can be made for motor boat transportation across the various lakes in the chain to a point on the east shore of Big Fork lake about a mile from the thoroughfare connecting Little and Big Fork, to a sandy beach where the trail leading to Mosquito lake can easily be found. Follow this trail through the woods for about three-quarters of a mile. The end of the trail is down a steep hill to the west shore of the lake. Sometimes a boat will be found on the shore, but it is necessary to carry your own oars. Last year we were compelled to portage as no boat could be located.

The lake is about three-quarters of a mile long and half a mile wide, densely wooded on all shores. Along the west shore and running towards the center is a large bed of pickerel weed. Row straight out into the lake opposite the end of the trail until you strike the weed bed. Follow this in a northerly direction, keeping well over the weeds. Near the center of the lake the water is much deeper and it is here that the large catches of muskies and pickerel are made. Owing to the portage through the woods this lake is no fished much. Trolling with a number 5 or 7 spinner or with live frogs or minnows usually bring results. The shores of this lake are barren of accommodations, but the very best may be found within easy distance on the other side of the Eagle chain.

RAIN HELPS SOX TAKE FIRST PLACE; MERKLE'S HOMER BEATS CUBS, 1-0

Hose Rise to Top When Browns Land Victory Over Boston.

DOUBLE HEADER TODAY

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY.

There was a near cloudburst at Comiskey park yesterday which stopped the baseball combat between the White Sox and Washington, but when the flood had subsided the Sox found themselves stranded in first place in the American league pennant race. While the downpour was raging here the Boston Red Sox were being licked by the St. Louis Browns, and as a result Rowland and his south side troupers drifted into the lead without a struggle.

Ever since April 12 the White Sox have been battling to get to the place they occupy this morning. Not once in all that time did they get to the top. Most of the time they were struggling along in the second division, and at one time they sank clear to the bottom, being in last place on May 22 and 23. On May 24 they leaped from last place to fifth, and ever since then they have been fighting in desperation to gain the lead.

Double Header Today.

Whether they would be in first place today had it been possible to play the game yesterday is not known. They started the battle with the great Walter Johnson pitching for the enemy and Red Faber working for the Sox. Only one inning was completed and neither side had scored.

Two men were out in the first half of the second inning, when the storm broke with startling suddenness and raged at a terrific pace for about twenty minutes. When it subsided the field was like a lake, and, although the sun threatened to shine, it was decided the diamond was unfit for a contest, so the affair was postponed, and two games will be played today to make up for the loss.

Whether the Sox will be in first place tonight is another question. If St. Louis continues its wonderful winning streak there is a good chance that Chicago will keep the lead. However, should Boston break the long streak of the Browns today it will be necessary for the Sox to win both games of the double header against Griffith's athletes in order to stay in front. Should Boston lose the Sox can keep the lead by breaking even with Washington.

Six Leaders This Season.

Chicago is the sixth team to have the honor of leading the flag race since the season began, indicating how hot the race has been. There still are seven teams in the fight for the honor, the Athletics being the only squad counted out of it. Boston got away in front in April and led for a week or more, when New York got in front. Then Boston got back in front only to have Detroit go past it, after which Washington broke into the lead and enjoyed it for a brief spell, until the Indians crowded their way to the front.

Cleveland and Washington traded first and second places several times during the latter part of May and the first part of June, then the Indians held it throughout most of the month of June, yielding the place to New York on June 28. At that time the Sox were still in sixth place.

The Yankees maintained the lead until July 30, when Boston took it, and by that time the Sox were right on Boston's heels. Boston kept in front by beating the Tigers while the Sox were trimming the Philadelphia weaklings, but yesterday the Red Sox had to confront the Browns, who had won twelve straight, and St. Louis made it thirteen straight by winning over the champions and putting them out of first place.

Sox Look Like Good Bet.

Although the White Sox may have a desperate time in keeping at the top from now on, it looks today as if they have the best chance of any team to win out in the end. Since the latter part of May the Chicagoans have played better and more consistent baseball than any of them, and have done it regardless of the fact they have been greatly handicapped because of injuries. With an even break in luck from now on they should be at the top when the finish comes about Oct. 1.

The terrific storm yesterday not only prevented the game, but it drenched nearly every one of the 7,000 or more persons who attended. The wind blew a gale and blew the rain right through the grandstand. Those who were caught in the upper deck suffered most, as the little roof rendered scanty protection.

The first inning was unusually long, as both Faber and Johnson had trouble in retiring the side. Johnson must have pitched about thirty-five times to get three men out, for each batter fouled off about half a dozen.

Schalk Has Narrow Escape.

While the Sox were trying to get the side out they had a scare. Washington had runners on second and third with one out and Faber fanned Rice, then started on Williams. The latter popped up a foul which Schalk chased to the grandstand but couldn't capture. He finished by slipping and sliding against the wall, and one foot slipped under the screen in front of the wall. Schalk was unable to pull his foot out and the players of both teams ran to his assistance, thinking he had broken a leg. Three or four athletes finally pulled him out unharmed.

Indications are that Johnson and Faber will hook up again today in the first game of the double header. Wolfgang and Harper are the likely hurlers for the second.

Notes

New York, Aug. 3.—[Special.]—Same teams again tomorrow.

The Cubs are booked to play an exhibition game in Jersey City on Sunday.

Manager Tinker switched his two Zs defensively, putting Zim back at third and Zeider on second. It did not break the jinx.

Harry Ackerland, formerly part owner of the Cubs, was an interested spectator, and admitted that after the experience of the Tinkers this year he was not sorry he sold his stock.

Wortman crashed into the concrete stand near third base after a foul fly in the second inning, but luckily escaped injury. It was the same spot where Home Run Baker of the Yankees was hurt, and it ought to be padded.

Mann made two swell running catches in deep left center, robbing Merkle and Fletcher of long hits in the fifth, but in the eighth nobody could get Merkle's smash because the grounds were too small.

In spite of the threats of tying up transportation, a crowd of 12,000 took chances on getting to and from the Polo grounds. It does not look as if the elevated, which is the chief method of reaching the ball games, would be affected before Saturday.

CHICAGO 'TYPOS' OUT FOR PRINTERS' TITLE

Chicago Typos will leave for Indianapolis at noon tomorrow over the Monon to represent Typographical Union No. 16 in the ninth annual baseball tournament of the Union Printers' National league.

The local Typos won the Garry Herrmann cup in the tournament at St. Louis in 1911 and have been in the final competition all except two years since the tournament started. The prospects of the team are brighter than they have been for heveral years, for the players have had the advantage of over a month of steady training at the old Cub park.

A club of fifty rooters has been organized to accompany the team, with Joseph Larson and Joseph Oschger as "cheer leaders." The following players will make the trip: Manager "Monk" Goodwin, A. De Caluwe, Charles Coverick, Frank De Caluwe, Frank Koeller, Lester Newman, Walter Wilson, James McCarthy, George Bilger, Arthur Collander, Walter O'Malley, Edward Harrison, Albert Carroll, Adam Thome, and Mascot (Mex.) George Ford.

GARDEN CITYS WIN FIRST FROM CUBAN STARS, 6 TO 3.

Blow in Eighth Wins for Perritt Over Vaughn in Great Duel.

TINX WASTE CHANCES.

BY I. E. SANBORN.

New York, Aug. 3.—[Special.]—Fred Merkle's home run in the eighth inning today broke up what promised to be another swell and long drawn out pitchers' battle and also broke Chicago's back with a second 1 to 0 score due to tough angles in the luck.

Jim Hippo Vaughn and Pol Perritt were the hurlers engaged in this chapter of baseball history and Vaughn had the better of the argument in every way you can think of except in the run columns. The Cubs outplayed the Giants in every department of the game except in the pinches, and the Cubs never were in a pinch defensively.

Four Hits Off Vaughn.

Four hits were all the Giants garnered off Vaughn's delivery and his backing was perfect, also his control. Consequently he never was in trouble. The three hits which preceded Merkle's fatal blow were made after two were out in each case, and only twice did the Giants get a man as far as second base before the one who made the round trip at his leisure.

The Cubs, on the other foot, had so many chances to win that it made you dizzy to count them. In six of the nine rounds the first Cub at bat reached first base. In two other rounds the second man up got on. In only one spasm were the Cubs deprived of a bully opening for runs. Tough luck base running and the zero of hitting in pinches explains their failure to make even one run out of all these chances.

Cubs Pole Seven Blows.

Seven swats were made off Perritt and his backers made two errors. Zeider made three of the seven hits, twice leading off with one. His pals could not get him around. The fourth time up Zeider had a runner on second waiting to score and he fouled out. That was the way it broke.

Zeider led in the first with a single, and the next three advanced him as far as third. Saier singled with one out in the second, and got as far as second on Wortman's demise, but Wilson was passed intentionally and Vaughn forced him for the third out.

Zeider led again in the third with a single, but was pinched at second on some play that miscued. Zim opened the fourth with a single and Fletcher booted Kelly's roller. But when Saier tried to sacrifice he forced Zim at third. Wortman forced Saier out, then Wilson struck out in the pinch. Zeider's third hit came with one out in the fifth, but he got no farther than first.

Great Zim Runs Wild.

Zim was given a life in the sixth on a wild chuck by Herzog, but tried to go all the way to third on it and was thrown out by Merkle. That was the first out, too. Wortman led in the seventh with a single. Wilson flied and Vaughn whiffed. Wortman stole second, putting it up to Zeider, who fouled out. Kelly led in the ninth with a single, but with only one run needed to tie Saier forced him at second and the rest was easy.

Three Giants reached first in seven innings. Merkle singled and stole second with two out in the second and was stranded there. Burns singled with two gone in the sixth and was caught stealing. Robertson doubled with two out in the seventh and Kauff bounced a soft boiled one to Vaughn. Merkle, first up in the eighth, soaked a fly half way up the serried ranks of rooters in the left field stand and the next three men went out easily.

CHANEY OUTBOXES HOMMEY.

New York, Aug. 3.—George Chaney of Baltimore, who is to meet Johnny Kilbane for the featherweight championship on Labor day, outboxed Packey Hommey of this city in a ten round bout tonight. Chaney, who weighed 127, conceded four pounds to his opponent, but excelled handily in eight rounds, the other two being even.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 3.—[Special.]—Harry Kabakoff outpointed Leo Schneider in twelve rounds tonight in the fastest bantamweight battle staged here in many a day. The last few rounds were rousing.

BROWNS PUSH RED SOX FROM LEAD AND LAND 13TH STRAIGHT, 3 TO 2

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 3.—St. Louis made it thirteen straight by taking the first game of the series from Boston, 3 to 2. The defeat dropped Boston to second place, the White Sox taking the lead. In the second inning Walker hit into the left field bleachers for a home run.

St. Louis tied the score in its half of the inning. Pratt doubled, Marsans walked, and Severeid singled, scoring Pratt.

Gainer's Hit Scores Run.

Boston scored its last run in the sixth, when Lewis doubled after two were out. Gainer singled, Lewis scoring.

St. Louis again tied the score in the eighth when Austin's third strike got away from Agnew, Austin reaching first. Rumler, batting for Miller, singled Austin to second. Tobin ran for Rumler and scored when Sisler singled. Agnew dropped Hooper's throw to the plate. At this point Mays relieved Leonard and Thomas replaced Agnew. Pratt was passed purposely. Tobin was thrown out at the plate on Marsan's grounder. Severeid was easy, Barry to Gainer.

Sisler Again "Pinch Hero."

St. Louis put over the winning run in the tenth when, with one out, Tobin scratched an infield single. Sisler doubled. Pratt again was passed purposely, Scott threw out Marsans, but Tobin scored on the play. Score:

In the Wake of the News

By RING W. LARDNER

THIS COULD BE SUNG.

O Harvey, Harvey, Harvey, Harvey, how surprised you're bound to be
When you learn I'm rusticating on the Beach at Wawasee.

And Harvey, Harvey, Harvey, Harvey, I will bet you envy me
Now you know I'm rusticating on the Beach at Wawasee.

Way down in Indi, Indiana, in the state called I-n-d.,
Is the place I'm rusticating on the Beach at Wawasee.

I'm visiting some nice relations, and I get my fodder free;
That is why I'm rusticating on the Beach at Wawasee.

I do not have to pay the butcher nor the darned old grocery,
So the situation's pleasant on the Beach at Wawasee.

At home I get along with two meals, but as guest I guzzle three;
I am taking on much poundage on the Beach at Wawasee.

Thrice daily I go in the water and I swim most skillfully
For the pleasure of spectators on the Beach at Wawasee.

Four pretty girls are in the cottage; they are guests of Dorothy;
And they're glad to have me with them on the Beach at Wawasee.

But I forgot to bring my golf clubs, so I can't drive off the tee
And will p'rhaps forget my prowess on the Beach at Wawasee.

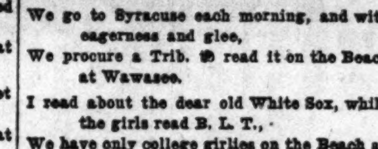
I've killed four flies and two mosquitoes, but as yet not one lone flea
Have I murdered in my wand'rings on the Beach at Wawasee.

At night we visit the pavilion where they keep the orchestry,
And we do the latest twinkles on the Beach at Wawasee.

Or else we join our youthful voices in My Mother's Rosary,
Which delights the music lovers on the Beach at Wawasee.

We go to Syracuse each morning, and with eagerness and glee,
We procure a Trib. to read it on the Beach at Wawasee.

I read about the dear old White Sox, while the girls read B. L. T.,
We have only college girlies on the Beach at Wawasee.



I'll end these little verses, Harvey, if it's just the same to thee;
I'm afraid the girls are lonesome on the Beach at Wawasee.

Roy Hartsell to Minors.

New York, Aug. 3.—Old Roy Hartzell wil step down to the minors tomorrow, after ten years under the big tent. In sending the veteran to Baltimore to replace Miller, the Yankee owners declare the present arrangement is only temporary. Hartzell probably will stay with the Yankees as a scout.

TWIN CITIES BAD PLACE FOR FIGHTS, POLLOK SAYS.

Harry Pollok, manager for Freddie Welsh, is still airing the grouch he acquired when the Welsh-White fight, scheduled at Minneapolis, was called of because the club insisted on a referee to whom the Welsh camp took exception. Pollok has sent out a string of circular letters to sporting editors and fellow managers "warning" boxers of the treatment they may expect in Minneapolis or St. Paul.

Pollok cites a newspaper article in which Billy Hoke, matchmaker for the club, is quoted as having declared on the morning of the date set for the battle that he hoped Welsh would draw out, as it would save the club $3,500. Pollok blames Harry Sherman and Elliott, his associate, for the cancellation of the bout.

Mickey Sheridan apparently isn't afraid of rought treatment at the Twin Cities. Michael is training at O'Connell's for a ten round scrap with Mike O'Dowd at St. Paul on Aug. 18. The weight will be 148 pounds at 3 o'clock. The winner is promised a bout with Jack Britton.

Nathan Nahin, father of "Kid Beebe," a local boxer, died at the Norwegian hospital Wednesday night.

Terry Durkin wants a chance at Joe Sherman. Terry claims to have a promoter who is willing to stage the battle.

EVERS BATTLES WITH CLUBMATE AT BRAVES' PARK

Ousted After Fight with Smith on Field, Trojan Loses in Second Clash.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 3.—[Special.]—The pepper box Braves, one of whom has been banished daily recently for trouble with the umpires or opposing players, developed violent internal dissension today, with the result that Johnny Evers, to whom suspension by the National league is an old story, probably will be suspended by the club, together with Red Smith, the fiery haired and tempered third baseman. They had two fist fights today, once in the dugout and again in the dressing room after the game.

The trouble started when Evers called Red down for unsportsmanlike conduct. Louden of Cincinnati tripled and was about to make a dash for the home plate after a fly when Red held him. Quigley, umpire on bases, saw the holding and let Louden walk to the plate. Red said something soto voce, and Evers yelled so loudly he could be heard all over the Braves field. "That's a great alibi for your dirty playing."

First Battle in Dugout.

When the Braves returned to their dugout a commotion started, and Byron dashed into the thick of the players in the dugout. He found a pile of players on Evers and another on Smith, after they had been pried from each other. Byron chased Evers off the field, and in the dressing room after the game the battle started anew.

The other Braves made no attempt to stop it this time, and the mutual pummeling continued for five minutes. Red got the decision. The Trojan took a lot of punishment, getting a cut under one eye and other bruises on the face, to say nothing of a stiff left on the point of his jaw.

Evers was a disgusted athlete tonight. He confided to a friend if he could get an unconditional release he was "about ready to quit the Braves."

What Can Poor Jawn Do?

"If I say anything I get in bad, and if I don't say anything I get in bad," said Evers, "so what is there to do?"

Manager Stallings today was notified by President Tener of the league that he had been suspended for three days for a verbal battle with Umpire Riggler after yesterday's game. Stallings left the field during the first game of the double header with Cincinnati. Fred Mitchell was in charge when Evers and Smith started their battle.

LID ON BOXING AT AKRON IF DECISIONS ARE GIVEN

Akron, O., Aug. 3.—Sheriff Jim Corey today said he would slap the lid on the fight game here if referees' decisions were permitted. He made the statement after City Solicitor Scott Kenfield had given an opinion to the Akron boxing commission that referees' decisions were legal so long as there was no winner's and loser's ends. A clash between city and county authorities will result if the commission passes a resolution, introduced a week ago, to permit decisions.

WHITE TRAINS AT SARATOGA AND WATCHES GEE-GEES GO

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 3.—Charley White, who is after Freddie Welsh's lightweight crown, is getting into condition here for his twenty round bout with the champion at Colorado Springs on Labor day. White and Manager Nate Lewis expect to be here until the middle of the month, when they will leave for Colorado. White also is trying to pick winners at the racetrack.

NEW YORK CRAFT BEGIN RUN

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 3.—With another day of fair skies and yachting breezes ahead, the fleet of the New York Yacht club swung out of the harbor at 9 o'clock today on its thirty-nine mile run to Sarah's ledge, off New London. The feature of the picturesque first day's run was the victory of Reginald Vanderbilt's Aurora, which defeated Winsome, sailed by Harry Maxwell, by :01.

MAYOR REFUSES PIER CONTRACT FOR VOGELSANG

Favors Dairy Lunch Instead of First Class Cafe at Amusement Dock.

Chicago's $4,000,000 recreation pier will be equipped with a dairy lunch instead of a first class restaurant, if Mayor Thompson's suggestions are followed.

The mayor made it clear yesterday he will not grant the restaurant contract to John Z. Vogelsang, who is now selling refreshments at the pier under a temporary permit. He indicated he thought it would be preferable to make an arrangement with John R. Thompson or Charles Weeghman.

Objections by Ettelson.

The decision against Mr. Vogelsang was bolstered by a sheaf of objections emanating from Corporation Counsel Ettelson. He talked at length of the great profits that are likely to accrue from the contract, and he said he was opposed to giving Mr. Vogelsang a "monopoly" for three to nine years.

A few days ago Commissioner of Public Works Moorhouse was eager to have the contract signed up with Mr. Vogelsang, as the city would get 18 per cent of the receipts.

Rumors of "Influence."

Rumors have been circulated that "friends of the administration" were opposing Mr. Vogelsang because they could not get him to grant them subcontracts.

Even with only a few booths in operation Mr. Vogelsang is taking in over $2,000 a day.

Mr. Ettelson said he would recommend giving Mr. Vogelsang a contract for the remaining four months of the season. Under such a contract no restaurant equipment could be installed unless the city agrees to pay for it.

CHARGES BARS PAY 'HUSH' CASH

Lyle Asserts City Hall Aids Collect Tribute from Law Breaking Saloons.

INVOLVES THIRTY BARS

The direct charge that administration lieutenants have collected money from saloon interests in Englewood in return for privilege to violate the Sunday closing law was made yesterday by John H. Lyle, attorney for the Englewood Law and Order league.

Mr. Lyle said the league would give the mayor one week to revoke the licenses of violators, and if no action is taken it will proceed to gather evidence of "graft" and turn it over to the state's attorney.

"We have listed the names of thirty or thirty-five saloons and one brewery doing business in the Thirty-first ward alone," Mr. Lyle said in a signed statement, "and we are satisfied we will be able to show that the Thompson administration, through employés on the city pay roll and other agents, has collected money directly or indirectly from every one of these saloons and the brewery with the understanding they will be allowed to violate the law.

"We will ask that the saloonkeepers and owners of the brewery and the mayor be brought before the mayor's own biased body (the civil service commission), and thereafter will ask that all be taken before the grand jury."

E. J. Davis of the Anti-Saloon league declared the twenty-two licenses revoked by the mayor were only "small fry" saloonkeepers who "didn't matter much politically."

LIFE GUARDS AT EVANSTON.

Mary Giddings Society Provides Watchers After Miss Weston's Death.

Spurred by the recent drowning of Miss Marjorie Weston, 20 year old daughter of George A. Weston, who lost her life in the lake at the unprotected beach at the foot of Lee street, Evanston, the Mary Giddings society has hired two life guards for the beach. Residents have been asked to subscribe to a fund to pay for the guards.

During August This Store Will Close at 1:00 P. M. Saturdays.

PILGRIMS' SONS GOVERN BOSTON THROUGH STATE

"Home Rule" Permitted City of Culture, with Large Alien Population.

STICKS BY ITS LANDMARKS.

BY HENRY M. HYDE.

WE WILL

To visit Boston in a critical spirit approaches sacrilege. The pilgrim from the middle west, especially, goes there almost under a pledge to sit in silent awe beside the cradle—if not the grave—of culture. If he be an American he is false to his birthright if he does not worship at a hundred revolutionary shrines.

Yet Boston runs St. Louis a close race as the fourth largest city in the country. It is the metropolis of New England. Admitting all the reverence due to its historic past, one may be pardoned, perhaps, if he regards Boston, for the moment, merely as one of the greatest American municipalities.

Yankee Stock Supplanted.

And the first thing he discovers that in Boston, of all places, democracy is not being given a fair trial. The Irish, who are the most numerous and the controlling nationality in Boston, lack home rule in the hub of the universe exactly as they do in the green island across the water.

Next to New York Boston has the largest percentage of foreign born population of any American city. More than 41 per cent of its people were born in other lands. If one adds the native born citizens of foreign parentage it becomes clear that the good old Yankee stock has almost disappeared. Certainly they do not represent more than a quarter of the present inhabitants of the city.

But Pilgrim Sons Govern.

Yet the descendants of the Pilgrim Fathers still govern Boston. They do it because most of the important government activities of Boston are under the direct control of the state. Boston harbor and water front, Boston water and sewerage system, Boston transportation, surface, elevated, and subway, are all managed from the state house on the hill, in the hall of which still hangs the historic codfish.

It is true that Boston is the capital of the state and that the Great and General Court—as the legislature is called—meets in annual session. It may be true, also, that state control of the machinery of government of Boston is not based on distrust of the foreign-born population of the city. But it remains the fact that the voters of Boston have comparatively little to say as to how their city shall be managed. And the tendency is more and more for the state to take over additional functions which in most American cities are left to the voters of the municipality.

System Not for Chicago.

It may be that Boston is better managed under the present system than it would be if the voters controlled the government. But in Chicago, at least, where the battle cry is "Home Rule in Municipal Affairs," it would create something like a revolution if the state should attempt to take control of local government out of the hands of the people.

Of recent years the supremacy of the Irish in Boston has been challenged by the coming of vast numbers of Canadian French, of Russian Jews and of Italians. But the men from the old sod are still the leaders in politics. They usually elect an Irishman mayor of the city and a majority of the city council are frequently of the same stock.

Lacking a voice in more important matters the Boston city fathers occasionally break out in directions which—at a safe distance—one may call amusing.

Cares for Its Landmarks.

One of the most admirable traits of Boston is the feeling which leads the city to keep inviolate the historic buildings and monuments of which the city is full. And among these monuments especially sacred is the old state house at State and Washington streets. It was the seat of the provincial and colonial governments and the center of activities in the great days of the revolution. On the State street front of the ancient building is still suspended the coat of arms which shows the lion and the unicorn of Great Britain.

Every once in a while a resolution is passed ordering the offensive coat of arms taken down. Then Boston, which demands that all its historic buildings be kept inviolate, raises violent objection to its removal, and the old seal is restored again to the place it has occupied more than 250 years.

125 Feet Building Limit.

In a further effort to keep its ancient monuments from being overshadowed—at the same time preserving the unity of its sky line—Boston has put a limitation on the height of buildings which would not be popular in Chicago. Nowhere in the city may a building be erected which is more than 125 feet in height, as against 200 feet in Chicago. And Boston does not stop there. It protects the beauty of such a district as Copley square by limiting the height of buildings facing that square to ninety feet. One building, the Westminster Chambers, was actually built facing Copley square to a height of ninety-six feet. The authorities sternly ordered it cut down to ninety feet and enforced their order. If one can imagine how a man would look with his head cut off immediately below the eyes they may picture the appearance of that building after the decapitation was performed.

U. S. Defies Ordinance.

The only real estate owner which Boston could not control was the United States government. When the federal building was outgrown the government calmly decided to rear a towering skyscraper on top of the old structure. The plan was carried out and the tall white tower which resulted is so slender and so high above the surrounding levels that it conveys an almost terrifying impression of insecurity.

GIRL AUTO VICTIM BETTER

Bond of Driver of Car Reduced as Ethel Pike Shows Marked Improvement.

The bond of Daniel Kelly of 6740 South Sangamon street, held at Evanston in connection with the automobile accident there in which Miss Ethel Pike, 17 years old, of 2850 West Lake street, Chicago, was severely injured, was reduced from $5,000 to $1,000 by Police Magistrate J. F. Boyer yesterday when it was learned that the girl's condition had grown more favorable.

AMELIA FORGAVE

But Her Heart Was Too Heavy to Make Life Worth Living.

Amelia Grunia

KOEPPELMANN PHOTO

Amelia Grunia died yesterday afternoon in the kitchen of her home, 1822 Sheffield avenue. There was a gas tube near and an open jet. Beside her was a soiled scrap of yellow paper and on it was written neatly:

"My Dear Mother: Don't, mother, cry for me, because I cannot live any more. My heart is burning. I forgive him for what he has done, so he can stay single.

"Now they can dress me up in my white dress, which I have sewed myself, and if it will be short they can drop the hem down at the bottom. I was five weeks ago in church to confession and communion, and they might bury me in the Catholic cemetery; and if they don't accept me there they can burn my body. And that $20 I have—$5 give for mass, $5 give to father and Stavey, and the rest should go to my funeral. And now I will bid you all farewell, and I want you all to pray for me.

AMELIA.

The girl lived with her mother and her brother. She was found dead by her mother, who returned at 6 o'clock.

GAYSOME TALES BRING SARCASM

Wife "Thanks" Those Who Aided Husband in Divorce Fight.

Sarcastic letters from Mrs. Marguerite V. Bucklew of St. Louis were received by Chicagoans yesterday "thanking" them for trying to block her efforts to get a divorce from Leslie L. Bucklew, a lumber salesman.

The Chicagoans had told in depositions of gay times at the Holland hotel in Chicago, during the winter of 1914-1915, when Mrs. Bucklew and C. Harry Henderson were guests at the hotel.

Depositions made by Mrs. W. E. Dobbs, F. W. Birdseye, and R. Lee Pearce of Chicago, formerly residents at the Holland, were presented by attorneys for the husband in his cross bill in St. Louis. Others who made depositions were a bell boy and a maid.

Stories of "joy rides," of midnight drinking parties, of the gift to Mrs. Bucklew of a silk kimono and of a diamond ring to Henderson were contained in the depositions.

"I have just received a letter from Mrs. Bucklew," laughed Mr. Pearce. "She said that in spite of my deposition she had got her divorce and alimony. I take it she hasn't got either yet, if the dispatches today are correct."

Mr. Pearce, it is said, declared he had been in Henderson's room and had seen Mrs. Bucklew enter without knocking.

Henderson is the western manager of a raincoat manufactory. Friends of Henderson said that since the winter of 1914-15 he had married a Chicago girl.

Mrs. Bucklew is the daughter of Robert D. Lewis, a tobacco magnate, and lives at 1310 Belt avenue, St. Louis.

PLANS CRUSADE TO CUT INFANT MORTALITY RATE.

Dr. Robertson Calls Conference of Physicians from Congested Districts to Save Babies' Lives.

Fifty physicians from the congested districts have been summoned to a conference with Health Commissioner John Dill Robertson this morning to discuss plans for waging a campaign to reduce the infant mortality rate.

The deaths of thirty-two children under 1 year of age, twenty-eight of whom are said to have died from heat prostration, were reported to the coroner's office during the twenty-four hours ending at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. One new case of infantile paralysis, making thirty-eight in the city, also was reported.

Dr. Robertson has ordered daily bulletins sent to the Bohemian, Polish, and Italian newspapers instructing parents on the proper care of children during the hot weather, and warning against feeding babies beer. Several contributions were received by the health department to employ extra nurses for sick babies during August. Mrs. H. C. Culbertson of Harbor Springs, Mich., sent $35; Hart Schaffner & Marx, $70; and Mandel Brothers, $210.

LIFE'S LITTLE PHONIES

GIRL SAVED AT EDGE OF PITFALL WITH '49 SHOW'

One of Five Being Herded on Train Halted at Depot by Relative.

GOING TO DANCE WITH 'RUBES'

BY CHARLES J. GOTTHART.

"A-l-l A-b-o-a-r-d!" drawled the announcer at the La Salle street station last evening.

Simultaneously five men and five girls seized grips and produced tickets for Kendallville, Ind., for the gateman to punch.

As the party of men and girls was passing through the gate, three individuals, two of them reporters for THE TRIBUNE, and the third J. F. Chatsworthy, employed in the correspondence department of a big wholesale clothing firm, intercepted the group.

Chatsworthy's eyes met those of Elsie Draperton, sister of Mrs. Chatsworthy, and tears appeared in the eyes of both.

That girl was saved, probably, from a "living death," for only nine of those ten tickets were used.

Story of the Trap.

But let us start at the beginning and see how the story interests you.

Albert Schaffner, a lawyer with offices in the Unity building, telephoned the city editor shortly after 1 o'clock to "send over a woman reporter and I'll give her a white slave story."

"Two young daughters of clients of mine answered an advertisement in an afternoon paper for performers," said the lawyer, "and when these young girls responded they were met by a man named Davis, who said experience wasn't necessary, that all they had to do was to dance with 'reubens,' and that whenever Davis blew a whistle the girls were to line the men up against the bar to buy drinks, and that a 'live wire' could make as high as $15 a night."

A man reporter was sent out to round up Davis. He proved to be A. K. Davis, manager of the "Days of 49 show," an offshoot from the San Francisco exposition. But in looking for the Davis advertisement the reporter found that of Walter Skinner in the same paper, also asking girls to respond at the Saratoga hotel.

Davis' Version of Affair.

Davis was brought to THE TRIBUNE office, and here is what he said:

"I'm an old Chicagoan. I managed a Madison street movie house for a long time. I am respectable, and have a wife. I hail from Louisville, Ky., and my father is a big business man in Denver. I am clean morally, and my wife looks after those girls just as if they were her own daughters. The girls dance with the men who attend the carnival, and the dances run only about a minute or a minute and a half, and whenever I blow the whistle the girls line the men up against the mahogany and we sell them two small whisky glasses filled with a soft drink and charge the rube 15 cents.

"A nickel of that money goes to the girl, I get the second nickel, and the carnival owner gets the third nickel, but we don't allow any immorality, and when the dance is over at 2 a. m. the girls have to go straight to bed."

There was really nothing on which to hold Davis, but he was told in plain words what THE TRIBUNE thought of his scheme to corrupt Chicago girls, and was informed that an exposé would be made of his show at Momence, Ill.

New Trail Opens Up.

The story was believed to be concluded right there, when the reporter decided to notify the advertising manager not to accept ads of that character, and the advertising manager said: "We were offered and accepted an advertisement for a model, and one of the leading hotels vouched for the ad, but a man named Chatsworthy just phoned that his sister-in-law answered that ad in the morning and had not been seen since, but that she confided to a friend that a man named Skinner, from Detroit, was going to take her some place in Indiana and make an actress out of her with a '49 show.'"

The reporter was told the missing girl was 17 years old, 5 feet 7 inches tall, and "very" light. He hastened to the reputable hotel mentioned and found that the advertisement in THE TRIBUNE was bona fide, and that the girl, Elsie Draperton, either fibbed to her sister or else started to answer THE TRIBUNE ad and then changed her mind and decided to accept the place offered by the afternoon newspaper ad.

Davis Flees Hotel.

Hastily the reporter "beat it" to the Saratoga. Mr. Davis had fled, but Mr. and Mrs. Skinner were located in room 404 with a group of girl recruits. Only one young blonde woman came anything near the description the reporter had, and she insisted she was the wife of one of the men. All denied being Elsie Draperton.

The reporter phoned another reporter and hastened to the depot on the chance the girl might precede the party. No one, however, answered the description.

One woman carrying the card of "Princess Pauline, oriental and muscle dancer," showed an inclination to be agreeable.

"Aren't you afraid of some of these girls being led astray among men in a strange town?" asked the reporter.

"Not while they are with me," responded the "princess."

To disarm the party of suspicion, the reporters shook hands good-by with every member of the party, but once out of sight they hurried to a telephone booth and requested Chatsworthy to come post haste and see if he could pick out his sister-in-law.

Now, gentle reader, you already know the sequel to the story.

Editor's note: For obvious reasons, the names "J. F. Chatsworthy" and "Elsie Draperton" are not the real names of the relative and the girl.

THIRTY BOYS—THREE ROOMS

"Red" McGee Comments on Spaciousness of Juvenile Detention Quarters.

"Red" McGee and Joe Ward were working at their bench in one of the three detention rooms of the Juvenile court, when THE TRIBUNE man snapped them.

"Aw, this stuff's all right for a couple of hours a day," said "Red" when asked how he liked the living conditions offered by making thirty boys live and sleep in three small rooms, "but I'd kinda like to get a chance to do some farm work.

"I wish they would hurry up and finish the dormitory. It gets sort of stale when all a kid can do is scrub floors and make boxes."

Claims filed against Butler & Co., to whom has been let the contract to build the dormitory for delinquent boys, was given by city officials as the explanation for the delay in the erection of the new building.

HEAT "DONTS"

Health Department Gives Living Rules for Hot Weather.

The health department yesterday issued the following hot weather don'ts:

Don't hurry and don't worry.
Don't get mad.
Don't talk politics unless you can keep cool about it.
Don't run for cars; there will be another along after a while.
Don't drink booze.
Don't eat much meat.
Don't overeat at all.
Don't drink ice water if you are overheated.
Don't neglect the bath tub and the bathing beaches.
Don't stay in the lake too long.
Don't dive at once into deep water—wait till you have first cooled off.
Don't think it's fun to burn your arms.
Don't work hard under the blazing sun if you can avoid it.
Don't forget that the parks and the municipal pier are fine paces for the wife and children.

RADICAL PREACHER CALLS EVANSTON CHRISTIAN SHAM

The Rev. Mr. White, Accused of Insulting United States Flag, Talks Before Garrett Students.

"If a real Christian should come to Evanston he would shame the so-called Christians here out of countenance. The people here are only make believe Christians."

This was one of the hot shots fired before the students of the Garrett Biblical institute in Evanston at chapel exercises yesterday by the Rev. Bouck White, pastor of the Church of the Social Revolution of New York City, who recently served a thirty day sentence on Blackwell's island for circulating a cartoon attacking the American flag.

Mr. White stopped in Evanston for two days during a lecture tour to do some writing and Prof. Solon C. Bronson, a member of the faculty, invited him to address the students at chapel.

Mr. White, who still faces trial in New York for burning the American flag at a socialistic religious ceremony, is a graduate of the Union Theological seminary. His topic yesterday was "The Immorality of Riches," and his topic was based on the stories of Lazarus and of the man who tore down his barns in order that he might build them greater.

He touched slightly upon the European war, declaring that it was caused primarily by commercial greed.

"I spent a year in Turkey," he said, "and I know that the possession of the Bagdad railroad was the one big cause. England and Germany both want to control it."

INJUNCTION OF LUTHERANS BARS METHODIST FUNERAL.

Churchmen at Lemont, Ill., Would Prevent Ceremony at Their Burial Ground by Rival Pastor.

The trustees of the Evangelical Lutheran St. Matthew's congregation at Lemont, Ill., served an injunction on a Methodist minister, the Rev. E. Bethard, yesterday, enjoining him from holding a Methodist ceremony over the body of John Thomelen.

The injunction was secured from Judge Theodore Brentano, sitting in the Emergency court. Henry Suh and John Rieck maintain in their petition for injunction, that a burying ground was bought by the Lutheran congregation which was to be reserved for members of the church only "who had remained unto death a member of the church."

The trustees point out further that when Thomelen died on July 31, the people who had charge of the burial were Methodists. The Rev. Bethard was the minister, and according to the trustees, on two other occasions he trespassed on the burying ground and performed ceremonies of the Methodist church. The minister has threatened, so the bill alleges, to hold services over the body of Thomelen in the cemetery on August 5.

STORM CHECKS NEW HEAT WAVE

Several Hurt When High Wind and Lightning Damage Buildings.

Half a dozen persons were injured more or less severely yesterday afternoon by the thunderstorm and tornado-like wind that put a violent check on Chicago's returning heat wave after it had run the mercury up to 94 degrees. Heavy rain fell in the loop and along the north and south shore, but only a few drops fell on the west side.

Several buildings were struck by lightning and partially wrecked, a construction tower on the south side collapsed, flinging a workman to the ground, and passengers on a Sixty-third street car at Robey street were panic stricken when a bolt hit the roof.

The storm caused a drop in temperature of fourteen degrees in an hour. Cooler weather is due today and tomorrow. Thunder showers are on the forecaster's bill.

The storm brought the temperature down to 76 degrees by 6 p. m. Cool weather is in sight for the rest of the week.

Just before the storm broke 7 year old Edward Kramer died in his home at 2046 West Nineteenth street. The police added his name to the list of heat prostrations.

Unidentified Man Ends Life.

Shortly afterwards an unidentified man, said to have been startled by a clap of thunder, jumped into Lake Calumet at One Hundred and Nineteenth street and was drowned. The Kensington police recovered the body after dragging the lake for an hour.

Mrs. Rose Berlinger of 3160 Ogden avenue, her 4 year old son, Arnold, and Mrs. Selina Lowther of 6137 South Tripp avenue suffered severe shocks when lightning hit the street car. They were taken home in ambulances. Eight others in the car were uninjured.

Workman Caught in Crash.

Firemen pulled Anton Bitisk from the débris after a 200 foot concrete mold collapsed in Forty-third street, near Packers avenue. Bitiak had been working on the structure, which was being used in the erection of a chimney at Armour & Co.'s plant.

He was unconscious and was taken to Armour's emergency hospital, where it was said he was badly hurt. Witnesses said another man was struck by a timber, but he could not be found.

Edward Bitcitzo, a switchtender for the Chicago Junction railroad, was the victim of a similar accident when the switch tower at Fifty-fourth street and Packers avenue was struck by lightning. The wreckage caught fire and Bitcitzo, severely bruised and cut, was pulled from the débris just in time.

Life Guards Save Couple.

Life guards at the Chicago Beach hotel rescued a man and woman from the sailboat Bacchante, which had been capsized by the storm. Both wore bathing suits. They left without giving their names.

When the Bacchante went over three canoes also capsized and their occupants—two men in each case—were plunged in the water. All were rescued by the life guards, as was a woman farther in-shore who had gone beyond her depth.

Twenty-five occupants of a rooming house at 559 West Forty-seventh street were shaken up when lightning tore away part of the front of the building. The front of a house in Halsted street between Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth streets was blown off by the wind and lightning did $300 damage to an apartment building at 5613 Winthrop avenue.

Lightning tore off part of the roof of Herman Koehler's cottage at 5026 Princeton avenue. The wreckage fell on the back porch of George Keller's cottage next door and demolished it. No one was injured.

Excursionists See Woman Hurt.

In view of hundreds of excursionists aboard the steamship Christopher Columbus Miss Christine Wetterling of Ionia, Mich., was run down and seriously injured yesterday by an automobile driven by Henry Hoffer of 6024 Rhodes avenue on the Rush street bridge.

FOREST PRESERVE BODY TO GET 'THATCHER'S WOODS'

Commission Decides to Acquire 240 Acre Tract Along the Desplaines River.

At a meeting of the forest preserve commission and the Chicago plan commission, it was decided yesterday to acquire either by purchase or condemnation 240 acres along the Desplaines river—a stretch of land between West Madison street and North avenue in River Forest, commonly known as Thatcher's woods.

This afternoon members of the two bodies will leave the county building in an automobile and make a tour through the Skokie, which begins west of Kenilworth and extends beyond the county line north. A complete investigation of this territory will be made in order to ascertain the possibilities of this land for a forest preserve. It has been said that there are numerous tracts of timber land in this vicinity worthy of preservation.

Condemnation proceedings were begun yesterday to secure 1,200 acres of unbroken woodland in Palatine township, west of the Desplaines river. This has been done in order to start work on the proposed outer park system, which is to encircle the city on three sides.

The forest preserve commission offered the owners of this tract $100,000, but the proposition was refused; consequently Adolph D. Weiner, the attorney for the county in this action, filed a petition in the Superior court to have the property condemned.

CAPT. GALLERY IS SHIFTED.

Chief Healey Moves Him from Desplaines Street Station to West Chicago Avenue.

Chief of Police Healey yesterday shifted Capt. Michael J. Gallery from Desplaines street station to West Chicago avenue, and Capt. Max L. Danner from West Chicago avenue to Desplaines street. Five police sergeants, two senior detective sergeants, nine detective sergeants, and five patrolmen also were transferred by the chief's order.

FILIPINO'S VAST WEALTH DEVOTED TO HIS PEOPLE

Teodore Yangco, Man of Millions, Studies Rockefeller Foundation.

FATHER FOUNDED FORTUNE.

Teodore Yangco was in Chicago yesterday. Associated with this name is the story of the rise of a native Filipino from a poor, half clad boy of the streets of Manila to the position of the wealthiest man in the Philippines.

Before the gripping human interest story is related it should be observed that Yangco, after eight months spent here in the United States, is returning to Manila to establish a foundation after the Rockefeller pattern, by which he will turn over his millions of dollars to the education, modernizing, and uplifting of the people of the Philippine islands.

People Want Independence.

Yangco is a bachelor. He is of sturdy build, affable, polished, and democratic. He loves Americans for what they have done for the Philippines and declares that the Filipino is not only capable of self-government now but demands independence for the islands.

And he predicts that in the next few years the Philippine islands will be one of the richest spots on the face of the earth. Untold wealth, he said, sleeps in the virgin soil and the hills. It awaits only the magic touch of American capital and a little more advancement on the part of the natives.

But to the fairy story of a half clad Filipino boy sixty years ago that makes the careers of Dick Whittington and U. S. Grant look ordinary.

Career of His Father.

That boy, the father of Teodore, was then 14 years old. He had been living with an aunt who was cruel to him. One night he packed up his little scarf and ran away. He lived in the out of the way places in Manila for a little while, managing somehow to keep soul and body together. Then he managed to get a few shining trinkets.

He told his friends he was going to pay a visit to the head hunting Moros on the southern island. They warned him he would be killed and probably be served up for breakfast. He sneered at the warnings and set out.

They met him on the shore and asked him what he meant by coming to them. By way of reply he spread out the glistening trinkets before them. They were interested. He traded all the trinkets for their rice, which he sent back to Manila in a crude boat.

It was but a few years before he was building other boats to run to all the islands. Then he began trading with England and the continent.

Teodore, his second son, was his favorite. The father had money to educate him and wanted him to be a great man. He was sent to London.

Worked for Father.

He worked in his father's stores. He finally knew the business from the ground up. His father died seven years ago, leaving the vast properties almost entirely in Teodore's hands.

Since then Teodore has given great sums to the poor people of the Philippines. He has built schools, hospitals, and Y. M. C. A.'s. He's now president of the Manila chamber of commerce. His wealth is in the millions.

"And you never ran across the one girl in all the world for you?" THE TRIBUNE man asked.

Teodore Yangco smiled and looked out the window of his suite at the Hotel La Salle.

"No," he said. "And yet this world is not worth living in without love. But I have found that love—love of the Filipinos.

"They call me the Rockefeller of Manila. I don't think that is the right word, for I love the poor people more than Rockefeller."

Mr. Yangco left last night for Vancouver. He will sail for Manila Aug. 10.

"PIN BRIGADER" MAY COME TO O'DONNELL TRIAL.

Attorney Says He Hopes Hoyne Will Bring Jury Briber to Testify Against Him.

State's Attorney Maclay Hoyne announced yesterday he may call "Bill" Gallagher of "pin brigade" fame as a witness in the coming subornation of perjury trial against Attorneys Patrick H. O'Donnell and Charles E. Erbstein, former Police Capt. James O'Den Storen, and former Detective Sergeant Michael Weisbaum.

Gallagher, who was convicted nearly fourteen years ago as a member of a jury bribing clique, was arrested recently as a fugitive from justice in Flushing, L. I. Mr. Hoyne declared that Attorney O'Donnell was involved in the "pin brigade" cases in that they were mentioned in an alleged conspiracy to put members of the clique on juries in street car company damage suits.

"When Maclay Hoyne has given immunity to every crook from the Atlantic to the Pacific," said Mr. O'Donnell, "we shall come to trial and blow him out of the water. The happiest moment in the last fourteen years of my life came with his decision to call Bill Gallagher as a witness. I have waited for fourteen years for this chance to prove my innocence."

Accuses Her of Desertion.

In his bill for divorce Abbott V. Peterson of Evanston complains that after his marriage at Waukegan to Ellen Johnson she refused to accompany him to his mother's house and live there until he had means enough to prepare a suitable abode.

Society and Entertainments

Aldis Playhouse Opening Tonight.

THIS evening the little playhouse which has in past years offered such charming dramatic hospitality to the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Aldis in Lake Forest will have its opening night of the season. The playhouse has been used this summer for the Red Cross workshop and for a while there was despair in the exclusive little suburb lest there be no plays there at all this year.

The death in the spring of Bryan Lathrop, Mr. Aldis' brother-in-law, has undoubtedly had something to do with the abondonment of the usual summer program at the Playhouse, but the importance of the work to which the cottage has been dedicated until only lately when the Red Cross work was moved to a room in the City Beautiful block has had more to do with the absence of dramatics on its tiny stage.

Tonight the youths of Winnetka who have been members of Prof. Baker's class in the drama at Harvard will present four plays: "A Guest for Dinner," by Lewis Beach; "The Other Voice," by S. H. Fairbank; "America Passes By," by Kenneth Andrews; and "The Price of Orchids," by Winifred Hawbridge. Lewis Beach, S. H. Fairbank, J. V. A. Weaver, and James Seymour of Harvard, with Miss Blanche Day of Winnetka, Miss Marion Keehn of Kenilworth, Mrs. Cecil Barnes, F. S. Otis, William C. Boyden Jr., and Mrs. Laird Bell of Winnetka compose the company.

James Seymour, who is president of the Harvard Dramatic society, has come on from New York to coach the performances. He and Miss Hawbridge are the guests of Mrs. William C. Boyden in Winnetka.

Mrs. James Houghteling of Winnetka has gone east to visit Mrs. John S. Runnells at Chocorua, N. H.

Eames MacVeagh has returned from a visit in Dublin, N. H., and is at the University club.

John A. Spoor of 1526 North State street arrived in town Monday to spend a week.

There will be a ladies' bridge party this afternoon at the Chicago Yacht club.

From Lake Forest Mrs. Prentiss L. Coonley and her sister, Mrs. Edward L. Hasler, and their children are leaving today for Desbarets, Canada, for a few weeks of outdoor life.

The Western Woman's Golf association tournament begins today at Indian Hill Country club at Winnetka. There will be a dinner dance at the club tomorrow evening.

Mrs. Caleb H. Canby Jr. of 4712 Drexel boulevard has returned from the Wausaukee Fishing club in Wisconsin, where she was visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wellington Cudney.

Dr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Talbot Jr. of 62 East Division street and their family are at Castine, Me.

Mrs. Stephen H. Black of 4405 Drexel boulevard is in Atlantic City, N. J., for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Nichols Jr. returned home last night from a brief visit in New York. Mrs. Nichols was formerly Miss Margaret Billings, a June bride.

Mrs. James C. Hutchins Jr. of 10 East Schiller street left last night for Camden, Me., to visit her mother, Mrs. Chauncey Keep. The latter part of next week Mr. Hutchins will join his wife in Maine.

Among those giving dinner parties last night at the South Shore Country club were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lawler, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Peacock.

The sixth of the series of ten lectures in Lake Forest by Prof. John J. Halsey on current topics was given yesterday morning at the residence of Mrs. Hobart Chatfield-Taylor.

The third of a series of summer socials will be given this afternoon by the Chicago chapter of Mount St. Joseph college alumnæ at the Garfield park pavilion.

Engagements.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Stewart of 311 North Parkside avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Gladys, to Charles M. Sailor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sailor of 25 North Central Park boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. M. McLernon of 6021 Vernon avenue announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen, to W. Dane Hooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hooper of 6510 University avenue. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Jennie Oppenheim of 820 Leland avenue announces the engagement of her daughter, Sylvia, to Henry A. Lassers.

Mrs. A. Kaplan of 6033 Ellis avenue announces the engagement of her daughter, Harriet, to David E. Felsenthal.

Chicago May See Submarine.

Chicago may get a peep at a United States submarine if the plans of Lawrence Heyworth of the South Shore Country club work out. Mr. Heyworth has been in communication with Congressman Foss in Washington, and Mr. Foss has already made application for a permit to bring one of the government undersea boats here.

It is the plan of Mr. Heyworth to have the subsea war boat arrive for the county fair to be given at the South Shore club starting Sept. 20. The fair will be a charity affair and it is the plan of the committee in charge to get the best attractions in the country to boost the fund for charity.

Congressman Foss has informed Mr. Heyworth that the only thing in the way of the submarine project is the international law between Canada and the United States regarding armed vessels on the great lakes. This law forbids either nation to have war craft on the lakes, but Mr. Foss has written that he may be able to get a special permit.

Outing and Reunion of Old-Time Printing Pressmen.

The eighth annual reunion and get-together of the Old Time Printing Pressmen's association No. 1 will take place at Atlas park, Crawford and Lawrence avenues, tomorrow.

The Old Time Pressmen's organization embraces a membership connecting the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, as Peter M. Balken, now 81 years old, as a youth worked for John H. Kinzie, who held a close contact with the Iroquois and Pottawattomie tribes of Indians, will be in attendance. Mr. Balken was sergeant at arms in the old Chicago wigwam in May, 1861, when Abraham Lincoln was nominated, and he served in like capacity at the Republican national convention in the Coliseum in 1912.

There will be various games and contests and dancing.

Training Camp Notes.

Imagine only one mirror, 8x10 inches, to be shared by four women. Under the average circumstances it would be labeled an impossibility.

But there will be none of the luxurious mirror comforts of the boudoirs for the society girls who go to the National Service school, No. 3, which opens Aug. 15. Four of the girl rookies will share a mirror. Four girls will comprise a squad and occupy a tent together and each tent will have but one mirror.

Also there is a regulation in regard to pins. If a member of the camp is used to sticking her pins around promiscuously, she'll find herself up against difficulties. For pins must not be stuck into the tents for the reason that it ruins an army tent.

The matter of saluting is a part of the training that will be strictly carried out as it would be in a United States army camp. The officers of the camp will dress as the rookies, but will be set apart by the wearing of black and gold hat bands and the insignias that are used in the regular army—stars for generals, eagles for colonels, silver leaves for lieutenant colonels, gold leaves for majors, bars for lieutenants and captains, and chevrons for sergeants and corporals.

A meeting was held yesterday at the residence of Mrs. George McKinlock in Lake Forest to plan details of the numerous regulations necessary for strict dignity and efficiency in a camp the size of the National Service Training school. Mrs. V. Wilson, organizer; Mrs. Frederick Countiss, Miss Lolita Armour, Capt. William Moffett, Ensign Martin, and Dr. Sullivan attended.

It has been decided that the number of day pupils will be limited to fifty.

No Lack of Color at the Fash on Show.

A mad carnival of color will gladden every woman's heart when she visits the style show to open Monday evening at the Bismarck garden under the direction of the Chicago Garment Manufacturers' association, continuing through the week. No stringency in the dye market has been allowed to dim the brilliance of the show, and though the rarest colors may enrich the cost of a garment, they still will add to its decorative value. In the rainbow of shades which will appear on the long glittering fashion avenues along which the mannequins will walk will range colors which will include paprika red, Burgundy wine color, Russian green, rose, blue, citron color, richest of purples, and brightest of yellows—everything to defy the rising cost of dye stuffs to do their worst.

"While the German market has been largely limited by the war," declared John P. Hovland, one of the arrangement committee of the show, "still we have been able to get the colors we wish, though at an enormously increased cost. Some dyes which used to be obtained for 8 to 10 cents per pound we now pay as high as $3 for. But we bought them, nevertheless, and they will color the more elaborate coats and suits and gowns."

Wool velour and Bolivia cloth, both heavy and soft fabrics, are to be used largely in cloaks this season, as shown in the advance models, and one of the most startling effects seen was a cloak of Bolivia cloth trimmed in seal collar and buttons, made flaring and of the most brilliant paprika red.

Borrowed Timers Meet.

Eighty members of the Borrowed Time club of Oak Park were present at the weekly meeting held yesterday at the residence of James Fyfe, 417 Home avenue, Oak Park.

CLUBS

THE National Woman's party will hold a meeting this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Chicago Beach hotel by invitation of Miss L. Brackett Bishop. The purpose of the meeting is to organize the Sixth ward. The speakers will be Miss Ella Abeel, Mrs. Ella Stewart, and Mrs. Jessie Hardy MacKaye.

At the invitation of Miss S. P. Breckenridge, the Woman's party will meet next Wednesday evening at 6:45 in the woman's quadrangle on the University of Chicago campus. Miss Florence King and Mrs. J. H. MacKaye will speak. It is planned to hold fortnightly meetings in the quadrangle.

The Woman's Association of Commerce will give a breakfast at the Lincoln park refectory at 11 o'clock on Sunday. On the seventh they will dine at 7 o'clock at the Bismarck garden and attend the opening night of the Fashion show.

The midsummer meet of the Woman's Party of Cook county will be held at the Edgewater Beach hotel tomorrow at 2 p. m. A musical program will be given and refreshments will be served. Mrs. Frank A. Benson, first vice president, has charge, and will be hostess of the day.

The West Side Woman's Christian Temperance association will hold a business meeting today at 2 p. m.

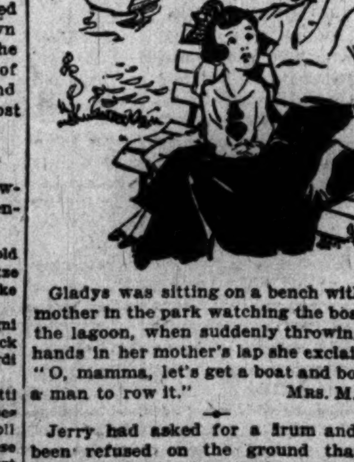
The Lady Aberdeen chapter of the Daughters of the British Empire will meet at the residence of the regent, Mrs. W. S. Howell, 7137 Eggleston avenue, for all day sewing next Tuesday at 10 a. m.

The Virginia colony of the Illinois Colony club will hold a basket picnic next Wednesday at Ravinia park.

The Woman's regular Democratic organization of the Second ward will give a picinic on the Municipal pier next Wednesday. Luncheon will be at 12:30 p. m.

BRIGHT SAYINGS of the CHILDREN

"The Tribune" will pay $1 for each childish saying printed. The only condition is the story told must never have been printed in any magazine or paper. Write on one side of the paper only. It is not possible to acknowledge or return unavailable contributions. Address bright sayings to Aunty Bee, "Tribune," Chicago.



Gladys was sitting on a bench with her mother in the park watching the boats in the lagoon, when suddenly throwing her hands in her mother's lap she exclaimed: "O, mamma, let's get a boat and borrow a man to row it." MRS. M. H.

Jerry had asked for a drum and had been refused on the ground that he would disturb everybody with the noise. "No, I won't," said Jerry. "I will only play it when you are all asleep."

A little girl of 4 was happily singing one day when her mother impatiently said: "Mary, stop your singing." "Why, mother, the sing is in me and it has to come out." M. F. W.

MARION HARLAND'S HELPING HAND

By Marion Harland

Bust Form to Donate.

"I RECEIVED the letter you sent me of the offer of a bust model from Mrs. S. J. K. I have already received one. I am writing to let you know this so that you may give this one to some other woman who needs it. M. S."

Upright and merciful soul that you are, you cannot rest without giving somebody else the opportunity of tasting the contentment you derive from the gratification of your expressed desire! We offer the second bust form with a will, stimulated by your example. Who wants it?

Reading Matter Wanted.

"Regarding Mrs. L. F.'s offer of magazines, I am not exactly a shut-in, but my limbs and hands are partially paralyzed and I cannot do any work. I would be pleased to receive the Catholic reading matter she so kindly speaks of. "T. J. M."

Will Mrs. L. F. let us know if she has still the magazine she put at our disposal a while ago? If it is still hers, we will pass over the address of T. J. M. to her. The impression is strong in our minds that she has given it to an applicant whose address we sent to her. This is our reason for inserting the paralytic's letter. There are thousands of his communion who read and contribute to the Corner.

Both Fond of Reading.

"I saw the offer of reading matter in the Corner. I should like to have it, and so would my husband, who has tuberculosis and can't work. We are both fond of reading, but cannot afford to buy any, outside of the newspaper. We hope to be lucky enough to get something to read. "CLARA L. C."

We must weed crowded book shelves and dispatch our surplus to the address obtained from a grateful Corner.

Cake Without Butter and Eggs.

"I am sending your readers a cake recipe without butter or eggs. I think it is fine: Put into a saucepan one cup of brown sugar, or granulated will answer, one cup of water, two cups of seeded raisins, one-third cup of lard, one teaspoon of cinnamon, a quarter teaspoon of nutmeg, half teaspoon of ground cloves, and a pinch of salt. Set over the fire and boil together for three minutes. Let it get cool. Then add two teacups of sifted flour with which one teaspoon of soda and two of cream of tartar have been sifted. N. C. H."

Your recipe is refreshingly novel, and commends itself, moreover, to frugal housewives, groaning under the rising prices of eggs and butter. I wish our practical housemother would try it and report to headquarters upon it. Once in a while she goes out of her way to say how much pleased she is with recipes supplied by her sister cooks. It is inspiriting and kind.

Book of Children's Songs.

"Can anyone tell me where I can get a song book containing children's songs? I am especially anxious to get one entitled "Little Feet." While I should be glad to get the book, I should be grateful for a copy of this one song. "MRS. A. J. J."

The run upon songs and poetical selections is brisk this week. Past successes warrant the expectation that you will be answered satisfactorily. We draw few empty nets to shore.

Mexican and Greek Beans.

"A short time ago some one gave me Mexican and Greek beans. I should like to know how to cook them. Are they cooked the same as any other kind of bean? I should also like to know how to take the stains off the polished top of my stove. I have tried everything I can think of, but they remain as noticeable as ever. M. S."

Both your queries are referred to the practical housewife. Were I in your place I should send for a dealer in ranges, etc., and take his advice. My own range yields readily to the action of a soft cloth wrung dry after a dip in water to which a few spoonfuls of kerosene were added.

MONEYWORT is a satisfactory hanging plant where a good deal of foliage is desired. It sends out a large number of shoots which droop after making a few inches of growth, and these generally reach a length of eighteen inches or two feet. They are thickly set with leaves, and a well grown specimen soon conceals the pot it grows in. This plant is easily grown from cuttings.

Saxifraga, more commonly known as strawberry plant, because of its runners, which are similar to those of the strawberry, deserves more attention than it gets. It has a circular leaf, olive green on its upper surface and red below, and its upper part has a pretty variegation of silvery gray.

Several leaves are sent out from each joint. Then the stalk lengthens and develops another joint, and another set of leaves is formed, and by and by runners are produced, each one of which can be made the basis of an independent plant if it is inserted in soil and allowed to form roots.

Othonna, better known as pickle plant, because of its thick, cylindrical foliage, is attractive because of its peculiar leaves, but more so because of its profusion of pretty yellow flowers, which will appear throughout the winter if the plant is given a sunny window to grow in.

Lysimachia, more commonly called Kenilworth ivy, sends up a great many slender stems bearing pretty foliage and develops into a pleasing specimen more rapidly than almost any other plant I know of. This can be grown from cuttings or by division of its roots.

Vinca Harrisonii is a most attractive plant when well grown, with its dark green foliagle bordered and blotched with bright yellow. The yellow in it is an admirable substitute for blossoms.

Tradescantia will be found satisfactory if its owner is careful to pinch it back sharply until it has developed a large number of branches close to the base of the plant. Unless this is done it is likely to be too thin to be attractive. It is the most self-reliant plant on the list.

The single petunia makes a fine hanging plant if cut back from time to time and forced to renew itself. It will bloom all through the winter if the treatment given it results in the production of new branches.

Motor Coat of Gray Green Homespun.

BY HELEN MERRILL EMERY.

AS yet it is a bit too early to predict with any certainty the distinctive features that will predominate in the modes for fall and winter. From one source we hear that empire styles are to be in the ascendant, only in the next breath to have this assertion questioned. Strictly empire or not, one fact seems established and that is that the waist line will be slightly raised—a fashion always welcomed, as it gives a graceful and youthful line to the figure. The new coats all feature this high waist line, usually accentuated by a narrow belt, and the result is extremely smart and effective.

Depicted in the accompanying illustration is an exceedingly handsome coat which leaves nothing to be desired in the way of smartness or comfort. Developed in homespun in indefinite shades of gray and green, the voluminous skirt is plaited at either side. These plaits extend above the belt, form tabs which lap over, and are fastened with large bone buttons which in tone reflect the shades of the material. The upper part buttons closely to the throat, and the wide collar and roomy sleeves prove that comfort has not been sacrificed to style.

Although this model is originated in homespun, it would be equally attractive in one of the new velours or cheviots which promise to be in the front ranks of fashionable materials for the coming season. Soft, indefinite checks or stripes in lovely autumn colors borrowed from the tints of the changing foliage are featured in these materials, which will, no doubt, be extensively used for tailor suits as well as separate coats.

Since straw hats now make their appearance in January, one is not surprised to find the hat for midsummer wear fashioned of velvet or felt. These are fairly small, with tam crowns showing no sign of losing their popularity. An interesting model is a close fitting hat of blue velvet with a flat tam crown topped by a brilliant red pom pom.

The TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

EDITED BY JANE EDDINGTON.

All recipes have been scientifically tested by Miss Eddington with current market materials and are indorsed by her.

No man without training or experience would think of attempting to build a skyscraper, yet people everywhere are constructing what should be heaven kissing brows without knowing the first principle of body building.

One of the Ice Creams.

PEOPLE are accustomed to making ice cream for home use in the easiest way, to sweeten some cream, flavor it to taste, and freeze it. But sometimes we want a cream which will stand up better, that is, have a denser body. For these we must use eggs, but we need not have just frozen custard or picnic ice cream because we do. Elegant creams can be made with eggs.

In cooking the egg part it is a notorious fact that the egg cannot be cooked beyond the place where it just coats the spoon, or it will curdle. If but slightly curdled, as it sometimes is when the whole stayed on the fire till just the minute it was ready to curdle and the whole became granular at the moment of removal, it can be made smooth again by whipping it with a turbine egg beater.

For an ice cream of good body, and one to which fruit purees, that is, sieved fruits, may be added, the following is rich and good:

Add a scant cup of sugar to five egg yolks and whisk until they form a perfectly smooth ribbon when the whisk is lifted. Add to them two cups of hot milk and cook just till they coat the spoon. A piece of vanilla pod may be cooked in the milk and the mixture, or vanilla flavoring added. Cool the whole, and when cold add a cup of cream and freeze. One cup of banana put through a sieve and sweetened may be added, or some other fruit.

Asks Compensation for Motherhood.

FOR centuries women have been led into the physical danger and extreme sacrifice of bearing and rearing children by "cheap devices." Now it is time that they should become conscious of these methods of impelling them to undergo pain and trouble, refuse to be swayed by them longer, and insist on "adequate compensation, either in money or in fame."

This is the opinion of Leta S. Hollingsworth of Bellevue hospital, New York, who writes on "Social Devices for Impelling Women to Bear and Rear Children" in this month's number of the American Journal of Sociology, issued by the University of Chicago Press.

"Child bearing is in many respects analogous to the work of soldiers," the article reads. "It is necessary for national existence; it means great sacrifice of personal advantage; it involves danger and suffering, and, in a certain percentage of cases, the actual loss of life. It is clear, indeed, that the social devices employed to get children born and to get soldiers slain are in many respects similar.

"The facts, shorn of sentiment, are: The bearing and rearing of children is necessary for tribal or national existence and aggrandizement. The bearing and rearing of children is painful, dangerous to life, and involves long years of exacting labor and self-sacrifice. There is no verifiable evidence to show that a maternal instinct exists in women of such all consuming strength and fervor as to impel them voluntarily to seek the pain, danger, and exacting labor involved in maintaining a high birth rate.

"There has been evolved the social type of the 'womanly woman.' The medical profession insistently proclaims desire for numerous children as the criterion of normality for women, scornfully branding as abnormal those so ill advised as to deny such desires.

"Medical men have done much to help population (and at the same time to increase obstetrical practice!) by inventing bugaboos. For example, it is frequently stated by medical men and is quite generally believed by women, that if a first childbirth is delayed until the age of thirty years the pains and dangers of the process will be gravely increased, and that therefore women will find it advantageous to begin bearing children early in life.

"One also reads that women who bear children live longer on the average than those who do not, which is taken to mean that child bearing has a favorable influence on longevity.

"A third bugaboo is that if a child is reared alone, without brothers and sisters, he will grow up selfish, egotistic, and an undesirable citizen. Figures are, however, so far lacking to show the disastrous consequences of being an only child.

"Child rearing is also legally insured by those provisions which forbid and punish abortion, etc. There could be no better proof of the insufficiency of maternal instinct as a guaranty of population than the drastic laws which we have against birth control, abortion, infanticide, and infant desertion. There is a very stern social taboo on conversation about the processes of birth. The utmost care is taken to conceal the agonies and risks of childbirth from the young.

"The mother with children at her breast is the favorite theme of artists. Poetry abounds in allusions to the sacredness and charm of motherhood, depicting the yearning of the adult for his mother's knee. Fiction is replete with happy and adoring mothers. Thousands of songs are written and sung concerning the ideal relation which exists between mother and child.

"How will 'the social guardians' induce women to bear a surplus population when all these cheap, effective methods no longer work? If surplus population is desired for national aggrandizement it would seem that there will remain but one effective social device whereby this can be secured, namely, adequate compensation, either in money or in fame.

"If this aspect of human life could be managed rationally instead of irrationally as at present, the social gain would be enormous—assuming always that the increased happiness and usefulness of women would, in general, be regarded as social gain."

Children's Day on the Pier.

Henry V. McGurren, superintendent of the bureau of compensation, announced yesterday that arrangements have been made with Miss Helen Hamilton of the Educational Dramatic league for "children's Saturday afternoons" at the pier. The first one will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The entertainment which will be given in the auditorium will consist of harp solos by Mrs. Edna Wheeler Ballard and the rendition of a scene or two from Maeterlinck's "Blue Bird."

FLICKERINGS from FILM LAND

Griffith Names New Film "Intolerance."

BY KITTY KELLY.

At last the new Griffith "sun play," which has been especially stirring the minds of the public since in such vast numbers it viewed his "The Birth of a Nation," is announced for exhibition.

It will open at the Liberty theater in New York on Tuesday, Aug. 22, according to present information. Soon after it is launched there another print will be shown in Chicago.

"Intolerance" is the final releasing name of what has been called "The Mother and the Law" for working purposes. For the first time, too, is information in regard to the actual matter of this new production made public.

Mr. Griffith carried the story, which has been in reality the product of five years' thinking, in his mind, working out episodes bit by bit, actually keeping the participating players in the dark as to the whole theme. Such care is necessary in a film creation in order to guard against cheap and hurried imitations by less conscientious and artistic picture makers, who seek to reap profit under the shadow of another's publicity.

The mysteries of the mighty sets and of the year's secret activities on the Fine Arts "lot" are out.

"Intolerance" consists of parallel narratives, coming down through four ages in the world's development, connecting the present with the past, showing that the same force which has created crises in the world's affairs is still at work.

There is a modern story of striking power in its general appeal, concerning a young couple who get caught in the whirlpool of social reform. In the effort to thwart the law of individual destinies, the lovers and those associated with them are forced into the sea of succeeding circumstances which engulfs them. Griffith's knowledge of people and the ways of the world has fine display in working out this situation.

Then this present is linked to the past by an elaborate switchback technique which parallels narratives of the fall of Babylon, the coming of the Nazarene into Judea, and the massacre of St. Bartholomew in Paris in 1572. In which setting are introduced characters analogous to this in the modern story.

Much research has been expended in seeking historical accuracy for the chronicling and vast sets have been erected, much time and labor consumed, and many people employed in the making of this great picture story which Griffith has denominated "sun play," as the new term best fitting it.

Film Flickers.

Gail Kane, whom we have just grown to admire in pictures, has broken the celluloid hobbles and departed to the footlights. Next year she is going to be leading woman to John Drew in "Pendennis."

Anita Stewart, Vitagraph's pretty player, collapsing from heat and work, is now seriously ill and will not be at work again for two months at least.

Sidney Olcott, with his company, of which Valentine Grant is leading woman, has returned from a nook in the Adirondacks, which the director declares is Scotchier than Scotland. The occasion of the trip was the making of exteriors for a little Scotch play featuring Miss Grant.

A Film Reporter Without a Notebook!

A NEWSPAPER story without a notebook—it seems the impossible but here it is, done. The reporters and the reporters flit about and absorb facts and impressions mentally, not lead pencilly. There are other fourth estate realisms in "The Daring of Diana." An actual "local room" seems to have contributed itself to the picture.

Still—youthful reporters, as a rule, take off their hats when they enter into the presence of the managing editor, especially if they are invited to sit in at a political conclave, rather an unusualness in itself.

Lady reporters, if they be flip, and most of the good ones are not, do not extend their pertness to the powers that be. Having the powers in love with them puts a different light on the situation, of course, for most managing editors have been fallen in love with and annexed long before their m. e. days, which usually don't fall till after a period of experience ripening.

For the most part it isn't a newspaper story. It is a melodrama, with an imposter trying to defraud the man the girl loves. She, with a vast lot of freedom, and armed with her personal card—no celluloid reporter ever yet that I have seen has identified himself by his "police card," the magic bit of pasteboard that always crumples up the blue arm of the law and lets the news gatherer through the police and the fire lines wherever excitement calls—ventures into desperate situations to which she has difficulty in gaining the attention of the police.

Never have I seen such slothful, doubting police as those she tries to summon after she has emerged from beatings, fightings, threatened shootings, imprisonment. Anyhow, she gets the facts and saves the day. She does it more by hard physical labor and conflict than by cleverness, but she is an ornamental person and she keeps her hair coiffed beautifully through it all.

Miss Stewart's dazzling smile is frequently featured, and that is well, for she is a talented smiler.

Julia Swayne Gordon, as the adventuress, gives another one of her effective impersonations. She is a splendid actress. Curious, how skillful most of the character people are. They do more significant playing than all the lauded leads put together.

The rest of the cast works earnestly, with histrionic profit, and the settings are matters for pleased contemplation.

Beauty Hints by Antoinette Donnelly

If you missed the Antoinette Donnelly series telling how she reduced Mrs. Lane thirty-six pounds in six weeks send her stamped addressed envelope and she will mail you complete exercise and diet instructions. Any other questions on obesity will be gladly answered by Miss Donnelly.

BLONDIE: SOME GIRLS CONTINUE to grow until they are 20 and sometimes 22. If you are only 16 you may grow a couple of inches yet. Practice exercises that have a tendency to stretch the muscles, such as swimming, tennis, basket ball, rowing, and using the traveling rings. If you will massage your face with a good skin food or cold cream it will keep your face from peeling after it has been sunburned.

MRS. T. S.: EAT PLENTY OF VEGETABLES and fruit during the warm weather. Asparagus has a stimulating effect upon the kidneys and onions have a good effect upon the liver. Carrots are especially good for the blood. The juice of pineapples is a splendid tonic and is especially recommended for indigestion. A faulty diet will cause the face to break out in pimples. It would be better during the warm weather to eat meat but once a day. Substitute fish salads for meat, as they are cooling to the blood. I shall be glad to send you my treatment for pimples if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

PRETTY: SWEAT BATHS ARE EXCELLENT for cleansing the body of its accumulated impurities. They should not be taken, however, oftener than once a week. A glass of hot water taken one hour before meals will do much to rid the stomach of mucous and put it in good condition for the digestion of food. A hair curling fluid will make your hair pretty and wavy. The hair is moistened with the fluid before putting it up in kid curlers or before using the curling tongs. I shall be glad to send you my formula for hair curling fluid if you will send me a stamped addressed envelope.

HENRY M.: THIS LOTION WILL correct the oiliness of your skin: Orange flower water, six ounces; tincture of benzoin, one-half ounce; witch hazel, two ounces. Mix the witch hazel and the orange flower water, shake lightly, and add to the tincture of benzoin. Apply this wash with a piece of absorbent cotton night and day. I shall be glad to send you my instructions for scalp massage and formula for hair tonic if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

FLORENCE: BITING YOUR NAILS would not make your fingers stubby. Ridged nails are caused from a run down system. You might try massaging your fingers from the base to the tips, being careful not to pull and break the joints. It will take a long time probably before you can see any improvement. You are going to go right on having trouble with the quick so long as you continue to bite your nails. Will power alone is the remedy. If you cannot manicure you nails yourself, have a manicurist do them once a week and then you will not be tempted to bite them.

POLLY: TO CURE ACNE, YOU must get rid of blackheads. Scrub your face vigorously every day with warm water and soap, preferably green soap, if your skin can stand it. After squeezing out the pus that forms in the acne lesions apply a drop of peroxide. This will keep the spots from getting red. The best blood purifier you can take is fresh air, exercise, plenty of sleep, and a careful diet. Drink lots of water and guard against constipation. I shall be glad to send you my instructions for removing blackheads and lotion to close enlarged pores if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

MISS JANE A.: THERE IS NO VIRTUE in the epsom salts baths for reducing. One hundred and eighty-three pounds is much too great a weight for a girl of 20 who is only 5 feet 3 inches in height. The only way to reduce flesh is by dieting and exercise. I shall be glad to send you my series of articles on how I reduced Mrs. Eva Lane thirty-six pounds in six weeks if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

OBITUARY.

HARRY MONROE LEAVES NOTHING BUT HIS HOUSE.

Attorney Henry R. Baldwin of 74 West Washington street, yesterday gave out the disposition of property left by Harry Monroe. The famous evangelist left practically nothing save his little house in Morgan Park, which he had long since given to his wife. In his will, he bequeaths one thousand dollars to the Pacific Garden mission, after having already given it thirty-six years of his life. But the expenses of his year-long sickness have reduced his little fortune to nothing.

"Harry had unchecked control of almost unlimited funds during his years as head of the mission," said Mr. Baldwin, speaking of his life-long friend, "but he hardly ever was a cent ahead of the game himself. After the few occasions when he took time from his work to make money, he always spent it immediately on the mission. He could have been a very rich man if he had wished it, but his interests didn't lie in that direction."

The mission will receive nothing from the estate.

Mrs. Thomas Hammond

Born 1846 Died August 3, 1916

Mrs. Helen Elizabeth Hammond, widow of the founder of Hammond, Ind., is dead. The city for which she and her husband devoted the greater parts of their lives is in mourning as the body lies in state. The funeral will be today at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Hammond was noted for her philanthropic work and for her energy in conserving the estate of her husband. She was reputed to be one of the wealthiest women of Indiana. She came to the site of the present city of Hammond forty years ago. Their home was the first house in the town. Thomas Hammond, her husband, was made congressman from the district and founded the Commercial bank. Later he aided his brother George in building up the G. H. Hammond Packing company, which later was sold to Chicago interests.

Mrs. Hammond was 70 years old. One of her latest gifts was that of a $4,000 organ to the First Baptist church. She is survived by three children, Frank Hammond, Mrs. W. A. Hill, and Mrs. G. I. Smith. There are fourteen grandchildren.

THE REV. S. D. FERGUSON, for the last 35 years bishop of the Episcopal church in Liberia, is dead, according to cable dispatches. The clergyman was born in Charleston, S. C., in 1842 and with his family emigrated at the age of six to Liberia, where he was educated in the mission schools.

Real Love Stories

Frank and the Heiress.

Just why our Frank, only an average Chicago bank clerk, like the rest of us, should be fortunate enough to obtain the seat in that Glacier park automobile next to the most beautiful heiress in Montana is a mystery. From the moment Frank looked into her sparkling blue eyes we knew that he was gone.

We—Carl and I—tried our best to save him before it was too late. We suggested changing seats; attempted to monopolize the conversation, and repeatedly called attention to the wonderful scenery which graces this primitive national park. 'Twas useless.

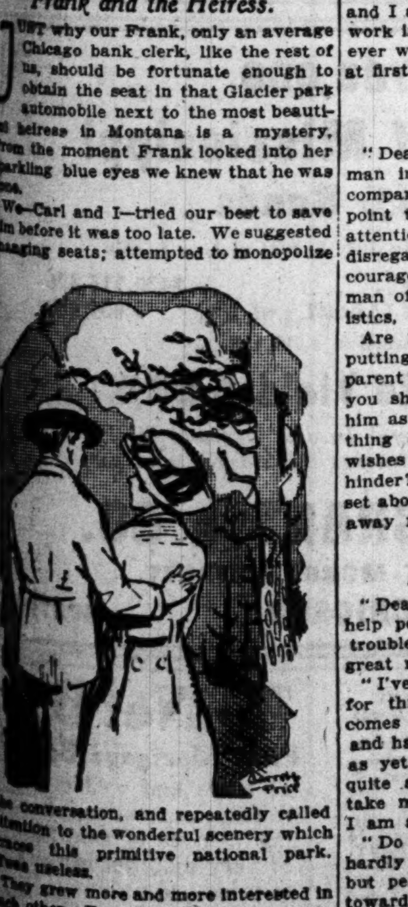
They grew more and more interested in each other. Even Dorothy's aunt, up in the front seat with the driver, began to take notice. For miles the road was bordered by beautiful birch and stately pine, but to those two it apparently seemed merely a conventional lover's lane, arranged by nature especially for their benefit.

Finally we reached Two Medicine, but the majestic, snow besprinkled mountains and the marvelous, steel blue lake received but passing glances from the two lovers. Down a wooded lane they strolled, and that was their last appearance until we summoned them by tooting our auto horn an hour later.

After the dance that night at the hotel Frank proposed. Radiantly, he broke in upon us at midnight to tell us that he had been accepted. Instead of returning with us, as had been planned, allowing himself a day at home to rest before going to work, he changed his reservations and 10,000 acre ranch which Dorothy and her stopped off for a day in Helena to visit Dorothy. Just outside of Helena is the brother own.

When Frank returned to Chicago we had a little celebration in his honor. Carl and I are agreed that this is the quickest work in the romance line which we have ever witnessed—a genuine case of "love at first sight."

R. E. R.



He Notices Her.

"Dear Miss Blake: There is a young man in town who, although he keeps company with another girl, makes it a point to notice me and to attract my attention. Do you think I had better disregard his attentions entirely or encourage him? He is a well known young man of fine habits and good characteristics, generally. G. G."

Are you quite sure that you aren't putting too much stress upon his apparent interest? There's no reason why you shouldn't speak to him and treat him as a friend without attaching anything serious to his motives. If he wishes to know you better, what's to hinder? No need for you to deliberately set about to encourage him and get him away from his "steady."

Nightly for Three Years.

"Dear Miss Blake: I know how you help people with your answers to the troubles of their hearts and I am in great need of some one to advise me.

"I've been going with a young man for three years, and every night he comes over to see me. He is young and handsome, but terribly bashful, and as yet has not proposed. If I were quite sure that he loved me I would take matters into my own hands, but I am afraid of a refusal.

"Do you think he loves me? He'd hardly come over so often if he didn't, but perhaps he only feels as a friend towards me. POLLY."

Every night for three years, I would say, was sufficient proof that the "Young-man-afraid of himself" would not turn down a proposal. But here's where I must pour cold water on your brilliant idea—I do not approve of girls proposing, no matter how handsome and bashful said swain may be. You make a mistake in allowing him to come so often and in giving up all your other men friends. If you would suddenly change your tactics, not allow him to come so often, and accept some invitations from other folks, I think it would set him to thinking quicker than any other method. Just you try it and let me know results!

SEARS-ROEBUCK SALES MAINTAIN RECORD OF JULY

Business Shows Steady Gain; $20,000,000 Surplus at End of Year Expected.

Sears, Roebuck & Co.'s sales this month maintain the July level and give every indication of continuing the year's percentage of increase to date this quarter if not the last quarter also, although officials do not commit themselves to any estimate beyond the autumn. Unless something unforeseen happens the company should round out the year with $20,000,000 surplus.

Prices the first half of this year were little higher than a year ago. Therefore the sales would make a fair comparison if it were not that the company has pushed the sale of the Encyclopedia Britannica, which accounts for about 6 per cent of the increase in total sales. This feature may not be continued next year, but something else may supplant it. Even if volume increase is not maintained in the same ratio during the coming months comparisons should be upheld by pretty general increases in prices quoted in the July catalogue. These increases are generally moderate and there is no horizontal increase.

Directors have not considered a stock dividend or other big financing yet and unless they change their minds there will be no such development this year or before next spring. What action they will favor then will depend on this year's results and next year's prospects.

View of the Directors.

An influential director said:

"We will probably do as we have done before, namely, proceed strictly according to the status of our own affairs, actual and prospective, without considering any outside influence. You remember our 50 per cent stock dividend was declared eight months after the European war began.

"Naturally with such large growth as ours we like to remain strong in surplus and we have to invest liberally in plant extension and improvement, but the surplus belongs to the stockholders in one form or another in due time. They never have had to worry about it. Our expenditures the last year have been relatively about the same as in the years just preceding. We do a larger proportion of our own manufacturing than formerly. Apart from the encyclopedia we have no special feature to report. All lines show about the same proportion of gain."

Will Abandon Tobacco Coupons.

Savings amounting to between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000 to the three tobacco concerns of the country are to be inaugurated through the abandonment of the coupon system. Experiments by the American Tobacco company for a single week demonstrated that the concern could save $200,000 per month, or $2,400,000 annually by cutting out the coupon system. This is equal to 6 per cent on the entire common stock of the company, and Lorillard and Liggett & Myers are also favorable impressed.

The American company can make further elimination amounting to $100,000 monthly. This would add 3 per cent more to earnings on the common shares, or a total difference of 9 per cent. Figuring that the American company is a consistent 25 per cent earner for the common shares with the use of coupons, this would mean that the company can show in the neighborhood of 35 per cent on the common stock with coupons eliminated. The saving to the Liggett & Myers and Lorillard concerns will be in proportion.

Studebaker's Strong Showing.

The Studebaker company's net profits of $6,028,329 for the half year are 65.2 per cent as much as the company earned in all of last year.

Because of its strong financial position and the final extinguishment of a note debt of $11,350,000, the Studebaker company now has banished interest charges from its income account. The preferred dividend requires less than $770,000 and is being earned fifteen times over.

Steel Foundries' Statement.

The directory of the Steel Foundries company gave out the following after the meeting:

"Profits for the half year do not include any from the forge plant. On account of delays, including strike at Westinghouse plant, where forgings are being machined, the forge shop did not show any profit until July. Time for completion of contract has been extended because of difficulties up to Nov. 30. We have taken another contract of about same size as the first one, to be completed by April, 1917, and we have sufficient tonnage on our books to insure operating of all plants to next year.

Six months ended June 30 net earnings increased $1,330,259; surplus increased $1,370,818."

General Motors' Showing.

The General Motors company statement for the eleven months ended June 30 shows undivided profits equal to 148 per cent earned on the $16,506,783 common stock, or at annual rate of 162 per cent. On June 30 the company had approximately $25,000,000 in cash in banks and in sight drafts with document attached, which is equal to about 155 per cent on the amount of common stock outstanding.

While July may show a slight decrease in volume on account of some of the factories closing down for inventories, the previously estimated profits are expected to be fully realized. Sales show no diminution.

July Copper Output Small.

The refinery yield of copper during July was the smallest for some months. This was due to labor troubles and the severe heat. The peak of production at refineries was reached last May, when all plants turned out about 190,000,000 pounds of marketable metal. Consumers were also affected by last month's hot wave, particularly brass mills of the Connecticut valley, which were forced to slow down their operations. The result of this was a request that producers delay deliveries, but for which there would have been an actual shortage of copper.

Sales of October-November delivery have been made at as high as 27c, and it is understood there is little copper available under the figure. The demand is increasing and consumers are now displaying no little anxiety to place orders.

NEWS OF THE FINANCIAL WORLD

Figures compiled by the New York Journal of Commerce show in the two years since the war commenced a total of $762,000,000, par value, of securities of new corporations have been offered to the public. They were: Oil and gas companies, $432,000,000; ship companies, $76,000,000; war munitions companies, $129,000,000; dye and chemical companies, $129,000,000.

Notices have been mailed to stockholders of the North American Film corporation to the effect that 50 per cent of the remainder of the preferred stock issue will be retired at 110 and dividend on Sept. 1 and the balance of the issue on Oct. 15. The preferred stock was sold to the public at par carrying a bonus of common stock.

Record holders of over 200,000 shares of stock of the Union Bag and Paper company have approved the reorganization plan of the stockholders' committee. This plan is the one sent out in the circular letter of May 1. The above shares represent more than two-thirds of the total outstanding stock.

The Stromberg Carburetor company is claimed to be earning at the rate of $5 per share on the 50,000 shares of the Stromberg Motor Devices company. The company on July 1 last had unfilled orders for 90,000 carburetors which have been keeping the plant working double shifts.

An extra dividend payment of 1¼ to 2 per cent is talked of to be declared at the next meeting of the United Cigar Stores directors. July showed the largest sales of any July in the history of the company, and net earnings for the first six months of this year increased 47 per cent.

The International Motor company, it is reported, will issue stock to take up the $2,800,000 of notes maturing on Nov. 1. Thirty thousand shares of common of no par value, according to these reports, will be issued in the financial readjustment of the company.

The E. W. Bliss company has called for redemption its 6 per cent coupons on gold bonds dated April 29, 1902. The bonds may be redeemed on and after Oct. 1 at par with 10 per cent premium at the Franklin Trust company in Brooklyn.

Kuhn, Loeb & Co., reorganization managers of the Missouri Pacific, are forming a syndicate to underwrite $46,000,000 cash requirements of the reorganization. Satisfactory progress is reported in working out the plan.

President Edward L. Dohney of the Mexican Petroleum company is reported to have purchased for about $2,000,000 a tract of 10,000 acres of the Bell ranch in the Santa Maria oil fields in southern California.

The railroads in the United States last year used 24 per cent of the country's total coal production. Figures compiled by the geological survey show that 128,200,000 tons went that way.

An amended complaint for an accounting by American Hide and Leather preferred stockholders has been filed at Trenton, N. J., despite last week's 5 per cent dividend declaration.

The Hartman corporation for the six months ended June 30 reports earnings of $1,065,000, an increase of $489,000. This is a new record and equal to 17.92 per cent on the stock.

The Minneapolis and St. Louis Railroad company will take up $2,500,000 notes. The readjustment plan also provides for wiping out the company's floating debt.

The Otis Elevator company announces that the first half of the year was the most prosperous period it ever enjoyed and that deliveries represented a gain of 50 per cent.

The American Smelting and Refining company has reduced the price of lead from 6½ to 6 cents. Recent sales by independents have been between 6.20c and 6.30c.

The Anglo-American Oil company has discovered a new motor fuel which will be put on the English market shortly as a substitute for gasoline.

U. S. TREASURY STATEMENT.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 3.—The following is a statement of the condition of the United States treasury on Aug. 2:

Income to date this year	$67,913,645
Income to date last year	63,807,521
Increase	4,106,124
Outgo over income this year	11,086,622
Outgo over income last year	3,828,656
Increase	7,257,966
Balance, general fund	229,316,993
Balance previous day	230,134,921
Decrease	817,928

The foreign demand, while not especially large, is absorbing a fair amount.

American Zinc Ownership.

In connection with recent change of ownership of large blocks of American Zinc common and preferred there was some speculation as to whether Butte and Superior might become owner of whole or part of the block of stock affected.

Butte and Superior has participated in the purchase of these shares to the extent of 35,000 shares of common and has issued in payment therefore 17,500 shares of its own stock. The balance, which was the largest portion, consisting of more preferred shares than common, was taken by Hayden Stone & Co. and has been placed with their friends.

Rubber Goods in Demand.

The B. F. Goodrich company reports it finds it impossible to supply the demand for its rubber substitutes for leather soles. The mechanical goods department also continues to show big increases in business. In fact, so great is the demand for all forms of mechanical rubber goods by the railroads and others that sales in this department represent at least half of the Goodrich total business.

The tire capacity of the company has been brought well above the 20,000 a day figure, although output at this time is not up to that mark.

Corporation Earnings.

The Western Express company reports to the interstate commerce commission for April as follows:

	1916.	Increase.
Total operating revenue	$ 64,606	$10,369
Net operating revenue	9,403	3,845
Operating income	8,179	3,541
From July 1 to April 30—
Total operating revenue	641,482	15,396
Net operating revenue	99,644	129,996
Operating income	88,317	128,413

Railroad Earnings.

Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul for June:

		Increase.
Net after taxes	1,894,408	*928,329
For twelve months ended June 30:
Gross	$105,946,484	$14,211,109
Net after taxes	31,261,196	6,544,243

*Decrease.

In June sixty-seven railroads earned $106,865,624 and expended $68,282,723. Net revenues amounted to $35,580,901, as compared with $27,890,849 for June, 1915.

Virginia railway June gross income increased $194,092; corporate income increased $132,277.

PRICES DECLINE IN N. Y. MARKET

Industrial Unrest Aids Traders in Attack; Day Is Irregular.

BAROMETER OF THE MARKET

Average of Closing Prices of Twenty Leading New York Stocks

Thursday, Aug. 3	87.67
Wednesday, Aug. 2	87.79
Net loss for the day	.12
Year ago, day of week	80.72

The twenty stocks are: Anaconda Copper, American Car and Foundry, American Smelting, American Telephone, Atchison, Baltimore and Ohio, Brooklyn Rapid Transit, Chesapeake and Ohio, Erie, Great Northern preferred, New York Central, Northern Pacific, Pennsylvania, Reading, Southern Pacific, Southern Railway, St. Paul, American Sugar, Union Pacific, and United States Steel.

Total sales of stocks, 350,000 shares.

Total sales of bonds (par value), $2,855,000.

MARKET IS IRREGULAR.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Irregularity was the dominant characteristic today of the market, which, like the sessions of the early week, was largely if not wholly under control of the trading element. That faction again made the most of the uncertainty now prevailing in the railroad world and various lines of industry to depress prices, and the net result was moderately favorable to that side of the account.

There were further gross declines of 2 to 5 points in leading motor shares, while sugars and petroleums were materially affected by adverse trade conditions. Cuban-American Sugar registered an extreme loss of 6 points, with 5¼ for Cuba cane, four for South Porto Rico and 2½ for American Beet.

Weakness of oils, which was most pronounced in the five point decline of Texas company, was naturally ascribed to the price adjustment now going on in the oil industry. Mexican Petroleum lost a point, with 2 for the preferred stock.

Shipping Group Strong.

Shipping issues as a group were consistently firm to strong and infused vitality into the later dealings when the more severe losses of the forenoon were largely retrieved.

Rails were extremely variable, Union Pacific leading an advancing movement, which was retarded by recessions in Canadian Pacific, Chicago and Northwestern, Erie first preferred, and St. Paul. Heaviness of the latter was explained by the publication of June earnings, showing a net decrease of $928,000.

Bonds were irregular, with occasional pressure against Anglo-French 5s and some of the more speculative issues in the international group. United States bonds were unchanged on all.

IN FOREIGN STOCK MARKETS.

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Apart from some activity and improvement in Russian mining shares the stock market was uninteresting today. Further offerings weakened home funds, but foreign issues were firm, especially those of the smaller South American states, on reports that provisions are being made for meeting their obligations. Japanese bonds had a good tone and shipping shares were quietly steady. American securities were neglected. Money and discount rates were steady. Bar silver, 30⅞d per ounce. Money, 4½ per cent. Discount rates—Short bills, 5⅜@5⅝ per cent; three months, 5⅝@5¾ per cent.

BANK OF ENGLAND STATEMENT.

The weekly statement of the Bank of England shows the following changes: Total reserve decreased £2,104,000; circulation increased £673,000; bullion decreased £1,431,377; other securities increased £438,000; other deposits increased £276,000; public deposits decreased £1,980,000; notes reserve decreased £2,055,000. Government securities unchanged. The proportion of the bank's reserve to liability this week is 26.36 per cent; last week it was 28.05 per cent. Discount rates, 6 per cent.

We Are Bond Merchants

The "goods" we sell are investment bonds. Every bond we sell has first been scientifically investigated by our organization and by experts outside of our office and then purchased outright by us with our own funds.

We buy our bonds at a wholesale price and sell them at a retail price—the difference between the two prices is our profit. Consequently there is no commission added to the prices we charge our customers.

The success of our business, like that of any other merchant, depends on the quality of the "goods" we sell. There is one great difference, however. The goods an ordinary merchant sells will some time wear out. Those we sell can never "wear out." They must be as good years from now—in other words, as safe—as they are when we sell them.

What we do to assure ourselves of the safety of our bonds is described in an interesting manner on pages 7-14 of our fifty-page booklet, "The Most Satisfactory Bonds." Let us send you a copy of this booklet. Don't feel that you must wait until your funds have accumulated. You will assume no obligation by sending for this investment information NOW.

REACTION MARKS TRADE IN WHEAT; SELLING HEAVY

Longs Sell on Bulge Caused by Higher Cables and Bullish Canadian News.

Trade in wheat was of immense volume yesterday, and for a time prices were sharply higher than the previous close, but the profit taking was on an enormous scale. There was no radical change in the character of the news from our northwest and early Canadian advices were sensationally bullish. Later there were denials of any material damage in Canada from government officials and from railroad men.

The demand for wheat was general and reports from New York said agents for foreign governments were becoming decidedly nervous over the situation. They have neglected to buy, expecting a downturn in values, and now with the damage to the northwest crop they are in a serious predicament, as winter wheat farmers are holding their grain more firmly than ever. Final prices were ½@⅞c lower.

Spring Wheat Damage Heavy.

Damage to the spring wheat crop is estimated at 40 to 60 per cent, and estimates of the crop now range mainly from 115,000,000 to 130,000,000 bu. Le Count sent a bullish report from Estevan, Sask., saying damage was spreading and that in a week or so conditions would be as bad as farther east.

Cables denoted considerable excitement on the other side, spot wheat at Liverpool being 6@8d up. With moderate stocks the sensational reports from this country have created an entirely changed situation in foreign markets, where for a long time there was a good deal of confidence in prices being lower owing to the heavy carryover. Argentine shipments were estimated at 1,200,000 bu. Foreign crop news was mixed.

Export Bids Are Strong.

Export bids were strong and sales of 900,000 bu were reported, including 150,000 bu from Omaha, where exporters were said to be eager bidders. Country sales showed a sharp reduction. Receipts were 222 cars with primary arrivals 1,930,000 bu, compared to 732,000 bu a year ago. Clearances were 1,081,000 bu. Northwest receipts were 502 cars, compared to 106 cars a year ago. Winnipeg had 661 cars, against 46 cars a year ago.

Selling was led by Logan-Bryan, Armour, Lawson, Jackson Bros., and Bartlett. A good many of the local longs also sold out wheat they have carried up from much lower levels. On the late recession there was a renewal of buying by leaders on the bull side.

Corn Longs Take Profits.

Corn offerings were light early and prices advanced sharply. Later rains were reported in Iowa and there was free selling with final quotations ⅛@¼c lower. Cash prices were strong and the demand was the best in some time, offerings being moderate, while sales were 485,000 bu, including 315,000 bu for export. The weather forecast was for unsettled weather over the northern portions of the belt, with possible showers. Over most of the belt fair and warm weather was indicated. Kansas reports were bullish, high temperatures having prevailed in the last two days.

Receipts were 229 cars and primary receipts were 476,000 bu, compared to 522,000 bu a year ago. Clearances were 111,000 bu. Cables were unchanged to ¼ up. Country sales to arrive were reported light.

Oats Show More Strength.

Oats showed independent strength and closed with gains of ⅝c to ¾@⅞c in spite of the late heaviness in other grains. Buying was of a fairly general character and the reports of damage northwest, and of light weight oats in other sections checked the selling. From the top figures of the day there was a substantial reaction. Cash sales were 250,000 bu, including 70,000 bu for export. Receipts were 347 cars and primary arrivals aggregated 1,084,000 bu, compared to 922,000 bu a year ago. Clearances were 58,000 bu. Hedging sales against country purchases were reported light.

A better export demand for products, especially for lard, gave provisions a better tone, along with some buying supposed to have been for packers. The cash trade was good, and recent selling of products is said to have eliminated many weak holders. Fresh meat prices were higher. Hog receipts were 2,000, were 16,000 the estimate for today, and western receipts were 88,700, compared to 75,600 a year ago. Liverpool prices were ½s up for backs and hams and 6d higher for Cumberlands, while lard was 6d off for spot and 1s off for September.

Rye and Barley Higher.

Rye ruled strong. Cash No. 2 sold at $1.06. Receipts were 4 cars.

Barley was 1@2c higher. Malting ranged at 70@80c, with sales at 72@78c. Feed ranged at 65@70c and sold at 70c. Screenings ranged at 40@61c and sold at 60@61c. Receipts were 31 cars.

Timothy seed rather slow. A small lot of September sold at $5.90; October, $5.50 bid and $5.85 asked. Country lots nominally $4.50@7.00.

Duluth flax closed 1@2½c lower; cash on track, September, and November, $2.12½; December, $2.12; receipts were 14 cars. Minneapolis cash on track closed at $2.10½@2.14½; receipts were 13 cars. Winnipeg 1c lower; October and November closed at $1.91; receipts were 31 cars.

NEWS AND GOSSIP OF BOARD OF TRADE

Reports in regard to Canadian conditions were conflicting. Officials of the different provinces in western Canada maintain there is no serious damage so far from black rust. The president of the Moose Jaw exchange sent a message to J. P. Griffin of the local board of trade denying alleged reports that black rust existed in that section. On the other hand, Le Count claimed extensive damage in both southern Manitoba and Saskatchewan. Canadian government and railroad officials continue optimistic in their reports. In our northwest there was no change in the character of the reports and yields being reported show serious damage. A digest of replies received by one of the leading Minneapolis concerns makes the damage in the three states from 55 to 65 per cent. Reports to the Northwestern Miller indicate a loss of 40 per cent during July. Other reports were to the same effect. Much will depend on the Canadian crop, but damage in our northwest appears to be sensational enough to cause anxiety on the other side.

The corn trade was affected yesterday by the reports of rain at several points in Iowa. The morning official map showed only rains in southern and eastern Missouri. During the day there were reports of showers at a few points. The forecast was for showers in northwest, and possible thunderstorms in Nebraska, with cloudy weather for Iowa and Illinois. Generally conditions were hot and dry over most of the belt, with showers entirely local in character. The condition of the crop, in the southwest is said to be poor. Houston of Kansas City wired that the Kansas crop was practically worthless. A good many northwest reports indicated rain was badly needed.

H. E. Webber of Fergus Falls, Minn., writes E. J. Schaack of Ware & Leland as follows: "Regarding the wheat crop in this section of the country, I have traveled a good many miles around here and examined the wheat in every direction and I have yet to find one single field that would make anything like wheat. It is all gone. I saw fields yesterday that I would not furnish the binder twine to cut the crop with if they would donate the whole crop, and there are other fields that undoubtedly never will be cut at all. In my judgment the damage is more complete and farther reaching than it was in 1904."

Export buying of corn was on quite a liberal scale yesterday. Sales were 485,000 bu, of which 315,000 bu was to exporters. Foreign markets were steady. It is understood the amount of corn sold for August shipment from the seaboard is large. Argentine freights are almost prohibitive, but there are fair shipments from that country. Country sales are moderate and receipts at western points show a considerable falling off. Cash prices were 1c higher. Oats were strong and there were sales of 250,000 bu, of which 70,000 bu was for export.

Cash prices for wheat were strong in all markets. St. Louis was especially firm, prices there being 3@5c up, with sales moderate, and smaller offerings from the country. Local receivers said country offerings had dropped off sharply. Omaha reported exporters after wheat with sales of 150,000 bu. Local sales were 60,000 bu. Omaha had a fair run of wheat, but St. Louis and Kansas City arrivals showed quite a falling off compared to few days ago.

B. W. Snow's report, based on returns of July 25, makes condition of oats 82.1, against 85.9 on July 1, and indicates a crop of 1,254,000,000, against an indication of 1,281,000,000 bu a month ago. Hot dry weather during the period of heading has caused considerable grain to be light in weight and the final yield is likely to be below the figure indicated on July 25.

Charles Sincere & Co. had the following from Allerton, Ill.: "Thrashing of oats is in full swing, and the yield is beyond the farmers' expectations. The corn in this county is excellent. No damage at all from hot weather."

Receipts inspected yesterday: Wheat, 222 cars; corn, 229 cars; oats, 347 cars; rye, 4 cars, and barley, 31 cars. Hogs estimated for today, 16,000 head.

COFFEE AND SUGAR.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Rather a smaller increase in the world's visible supply for the month of July than had been looked for failed to stimulate buying in the market for coffee futures here today, and after opening unchanged to 1 point higher prices eased off in the late trading. Business was quiet enough to suggest that attention had been diverted by the excitement in sugar and cotton. Sales for the day amounted to only 2,500 bags. September contracts eased off from 8.41c to 8.36c under small offerings, while December declined from 8.54c to 8.51c, and the market closed at a net loss of 2@4 points for the day. August, 8.31c; September, 8.36c; October, 8.41c; November, 8.46c; December, 8.50c; January, 8.56c; February, 8.63c; March, 8.70c; April, 8.75c; May, 8.80c; June, 8.85c; July, 8.90c. Spot coffee was again reported in fair demand, with prices unchanged at 9¼c for Rio 7s and 10¼c for Santos 4s. Cost and freight offers were unchanged. The official cables reported a decline of 75 reis at Rio, but Rio exchange to London was 1-16d higher, and Santos futures were unchanged to 25 reis higher. Brazilian port receipts, 57,000 bags; Jundiahy, 42,000 bags; Rio cleared 4,000 bags and Victoria 10,000 bags for New York. Sao Paulo temperatures ranged from 42 to 84. The world's visible increased 579,330 during July, against 1,009,880 last year, making the visible as of Aug. 1 17,907,704, against 8,582,583 last year. SUGAR—Raw, no sales; prices Cubas at 5 3-16c cost and freight, equal to 6.21c for centrifugal. Refined lower at basis of 7.45@7.65c for fine granulated. Futures: September sold from 4.90c to 4.50c, closing 4.52c; October, 4.84@4.50c, closing 4.52c; December, 4.72@4.30c, closing 4.32c; March, 4.20@4.05c, closing 3.89c; May sold at 4.32c, closing 3.93c.

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—SUGAR—Following prices were quoted by wholesale dealers per 100 lbs.: Cut loaf, H. & E., $9.18; powdered, standard, $8.68; standard cane; granulated, $7.98; beet granulated, $7.38; extra C, $7.58; canary, $7.28.

S. O. Goodsell Promoted.

Announcement is made by the Union Pacific system that J. O. Goodsell, city passenger agent in Chicago for the last three years, has been promoted to assistant general passenger agent at Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Goodsell's successor in Chicago will be George R. Lemmer, who has occupied the position of traveling agent for the company at Chicago.

Steady to 10c lower prices prevailed for hogs at Chicago yesterday, most offerings showing 5c decline. Weakness was most pronounced in the better grades, while many of the plainer hogs that sold so weak Wednesday showed little change. Best sales were at $9.90, with the bulk of transactions at $9.05@9.70. The average market was the lowest since the last day of March. Receipts were more liberal than expected at 22,000 head. Pigs were slightly weaker.

Choice steers were again in limited supply and ruled firm, cattle of value above $9.00 being strong to 10c higher. Most of the 3,000 cattle received were of common quality and market for this kind was slow. With the cooler weather an improved demand for beef is indicated. A prime drove of Indiana fed western bred steers brought $10.35. Calves were active and strong, selling up to $12.50, highest price of the summer. Cows and heifers generally easier. Feeding stock slow and easy.

Lambs Advance; Sheep Steady.

Most native lambs ruled 10@15c higher, while some range stock showed 25c advance. The latter sold as high as $11.30, new record for the summer, with some native lambs making $11.00. Offerings were limited and packers were active buyers. Sheep were largely steady. Receipts were 12,000 head.

DRY GOODS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Cotton goods were strong today with price advances reported on sheetings, drills, and print cloths. Yarns were firm and high. Dress goods of a staple character were advanced from 1 to 5c a yard over the opening spring prices named last week. Raw silk was higher. Jute advanced £1 sterling a ton, while burlaps went up another shilling a 100 yards at Calcutta.

FRUIT SHIPPER SUES I. C.

Charging that for years the Illinois Central railroad has been charging him excessive and unreasonable rates on shipments of fruit and vegetables from Mississippi, Florida, and Louisiana, Edward G. Davies, president of the Edward G. Davies company, yesterday brought suit in the United States District court.

According to the bill the defendant has charged the Davies company "extortionate, duplicate, incorrect, and unauthorized overcharges," and that when Mr. Davies refused to pay they attempted to wreck his business by misrepresenting matters to his customers. The suit asks that the railroad be restrained from starting legal proceedings and also that they be restrained from interfering with the business of the complainant.

Chicago Railways Bonds.

J. T. F., Denver, Colo.—The Chicago Railways purchase money bonds were issued early in 1911 to pay in part for property of the Consolidated Traction company bought at foreclosure. They are supposed to be secured by first lien on the property then purchased, subject to the first mortgage bonds of the Chicago Railways company. Their status is disputed, however, and in case of foreclosure would have to be decided by court decree. The bonds are outstanding to the amount of $4,073,000. The other $1,927,000 of the authorized issue were reserved to satisfy possible claims or judgments in connection with the purchase. There is no sinking fund for this issue, and its fate in 1927 is in doubt. If the city then takes over the property under the ordinance the purchase price will pay the first mortgage bonds, the A series, and part of the Bs. There would be no money to pay the purchase money or the adjustment bonds. In case the city turns the property over to some other corporation the price would cover all the bonds. If the present company should continue to operate, it would, presumably, continue to pay interest on all the bonds.

Sapulpa Refining.

H. J., Marion, Ind.—The Sapulpa Refining company is engaged in buying crude oil and refining it. The company owns pipe lines and also two producing properties. It has outstanding $1,000,000 stock of $5 par value and all of one class. Its former bonded debt has all been canceled and its $350,000 of preferred stock has all been converted into common. The April earnings were at the rate of about 80 per cent a year on stock, and capacity has been increased since then. The dividend has just been increased from 1½ to 2 per cent a month. The Midwest Refining company has $18,000,000 of stock outstanding. The dividend rate has just been increased to 2 per cent quarterly. These two companies are independent. Their stocks are not conservative investments.

Remington Typewriter.

S. B.—The Remington Typewriter's $5,500,000 of bonds mature $550,000 annually from Jan. 1, 1917, to Jan. 1, 1926. Inasmuch as earnings have not been satisfactory since 1913 and dividends have stopped, the bonds cannot be called a conservative savings investment. They are, however, fairly well secured as to principal, having a first lien on all the assets of the company. The net working capital was $4,930,478 on Jan. 1 last. The fixed capital is chiefly plants, patents, good will, etc., and $16,951,420. Just what part of this amount is real estate and machinery is not stated.

Brief Answers.

E. S., De Pere, Wis.—The Southern Pacific company pays 6 per cent a year on its $272,677,406 of stock. It has never paid any higher rate. Formerly the company had $74,756,765 of 7 per cent preferred stock outstanding. This was retired in 1909. The stock now sells on a 6.15 per cent income basis, which is not far out of line with the other transcontinental roads.

J. J., Waukesha, Wis.—The United States Rubber company caused painful surprise when it declared no July dividend on common stock in 1915. The statement then made was that the company wished to build up a good surplus. Presumably it has not resumed payments for the same reason. Present earnings are large.

ORDERS FARES READJUSTED FOR BENEFIT OF ST. LOUIS.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 3.—Readjustment of passenger fares between St. Louis and Keokuk, Ia., and points in Illinois was ordered today by the interstate commerce commission in upholding complaint of the St. Louis Business Men's league that the present fares are unreasonable and discriminatory against those cities and in favor of East St. Louis, Chicago, and other Illinois points. The existing rate toll for crossing the Mississippi river at St. Louis and Keokuk was found unreasonable.

The commission directed the interested carriers to construct their rates on a basis of 2.4 per mile plus a reasonable toll for crossing the Mississippi and ordered that the fares between these cities and Illinois points should not exceed the fare from Chicago where the distances are the same.

RECORD FOR USE OF COTTON.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 3.—The world's consumption of American cotton during the year ending July 31 was 14,813,000 bales, an increase of 979,000 bales over the preceding season and a new record, according to a statement today by H. G. Hester, secretary of the New Orleans cotton exchange. The former record for consumption made three years ago was 14,715,000 bales. The gain in world's consumption of American cotton was due entirely to American mills, which more than offset a small loss abroad.

IN BOSTON STOCK MARKET.

BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 3.—[Special.]—Boston had a dull but generally steady market. A loss of 2⅛ to 85¾ in Tamarack Mining made a new 1916 low record—it was 58⅝ a year ago. New England Telephone sold off 3 on new stock issue, with rights selling at 3⅝@4, a ⅝ loss. A $2 rally to 160 was United Fruit's contribution; West Indies Steamship rose 2⅛, with notably active dealings in the afternoon. American Agricultural Chemical advanced 1⅛. There was next to no interest in Zinc stocks. Call money ruled at 3 per cent. Time loans, short dates, 4@4½ per cent. Time loans, six months, 3¾@4¼ per cent. Time loans, year, 4@4½ per cent.

WANTS RECORDER'S OFFICE MADE BEST IN THE WORLD.

"The Cook county recorder's office is the largest in the world. I ask the cooperation of every real estate dealer, owner, and citizen in making it the best in the world," said Recorder Joseph F. Connery at the outing of the North Shore Real Estate Man's association held yesterday at "The House that Jack Built."

Mr. Connery said that during his administration he had rewritten the tract books at a saving of thousands of dollars to the people.

"Our present tract book equipment is not equaled by that of any private corporation in the United States," declared Mr. Connery. "The business of the Torrens department has increased 100 per cent. The month of July just closed showed an increase of 80 per cent over July of last year, due to modern advertising methods and the invaluable aid of the newspapers."

GRIPPED BY LOAN SHARKS.

The operations of loan agents yesterday forced another man into bankruptcy, his petition being filed by Attorneys Callahan & Callahan. The petitioner is Gilbert W. Rogers of 7428 Lowe avenue, a motorman, and he listed liabilities of $742.30, with no assets.

"Rogers became pretty deeply involved with the same bunch of loan sharks I had before Judge Landis several days ago," said Attorney Francis J. Callahan, "and we decided to institute bankruptcy proceedings like we did in the other cases.

"Fifteen more petitions are now being prepared and will probably be filed Monday."

Rail Damage Claims Cut.

A saving of practically a half million dollars in loss and damage claim payments was made by the Rock Island this last fiscal year ending June 30 over the previous one. It is announced this is due to improved roadway, equipment, and a change in organization which was made effective Dec. 1, 1915, when increased supervision was authorized.

WANTED—MALE HELP.

Salesmen, Solicitors, Etc.

SUCCESSFUL LAND SALESMEN, ATTENTION!

How would you like to belong to an organization which has a permanent future?

Are you not tired of jumping from one proposition to another every year or so, losing the cumulative effect of your hard work every time you make a change?

Some successful land men are organizing a company combining the land business with an industrial and manufacturing enterprise. This business should continue for an indefinite period; it should grow in volume each year, and its profits should eventually enable us to retire from this eternal hustle.

We can make room for two or three additional live wire producers.

Investment in our company is not essential, though we can show the man with a little capital an opportunity to join us on a ground floor basis in an enterprise that has tremendous possibilities.

Address N C 419, Tribune.

WANTED—SEVERAL EXPERIENCED motor truck salesmen for our factory sales force. We have one opening for an experienced branch manager and several traveling positions in various sections of the country. We have found that it is absolutely essential that the applicants be successful motor truck salesmen in order to properly fill the positions which we have open. In answering give all facts you think advisable, including salary expected and territory in which you are acquainted. Address D H 1, Tribune.
